Mother's Day

Barbara King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks of Klamath Falls, came home for the weekend from Oregon State college to spend Mother's Day with her mother.

Ceremony

In a double ring ceremony read in Vancouver, Roberta Naeck of that city became the bride of Samuel F. Konnie Jr., of Vancouver, formerly of Klamath Falls, on Sunday afternoon, May 5.

The service was read at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Nellie Palmer of Vancouver.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of pale blue with a matching hat and shoulder-length veil. Her corsage was of white roses.

Shirley Konnie, sister of the groom, was her only attendant. She was attired in a coral dress with a corsage of irises.

Best man was Floyd Jacobsen of Seattle.

A reception followed the ceremony, with Mrs. Palmer serving the three-tiered wedding cake.

Both the bride and groom were recently discharged from the navy. Following a wedding trip on the Washington coast they will reside in Vancouver.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Cora McHard and Samuel F. Konnie of Klamath Falls.

President

Dorothy Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of 821 Eldorado, has been named president of the Slavic society on the University of California campus at Berkeley, according to word received here.

The Slavic society is one of the oldest on the campus and is composed of students of the Slavic languages at the university. Dorothy is a major in economics and foreign relations. She is in her junior year at the university and does not expect to return home until sometime in August as she is enrolling in the first six weeks' summer session.

Postponed

It was announced today that due to unfortunate circumstances the Little String Ensemble composed of music students of Harry Borel, will be unable to appear in concert Thursday evening.

The rehearsal has been indefinitely postponed but the date will be announced later.

WED IN CHAPEL rites at Holabird Signal depot in Baltimore, Maryland, on April 7, were Phyllis Diana Foust and 1st Lt. William Lovell Wales Jr., of this city.

Elks Plan Last Dance Of Season

The last of a series of dancing parties sponsored and arranged by the Elks lodge for Elks and their ladies, is scheduled for Wednesday, May 29, in the Elks temple.

Making arrangements for the affair, which is to be an informal sports dance, are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lawler, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Golden, Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward.

Supper will be served after dancing in the main dining room.

Gordon's orchestra will play for dancing, according to members of the committee. Final plans for the dance will be made at a meeting of the group on Wednesday evening, tonight, in the pine-paneled room of the Elks temple.

The informal sports dance will end the scheduled affairs for the year and all members of the lodge and their ladies are urged to attend. The last affair will be the formal exalted ruler's ball and one of the biggest parties of the season.

Friendship Club Meets Wednesday

Mrs. Fred Cofer and Mrs. Sydney Evans were hostesses to the Friendship club at Mrs. Cofer's home, 1017 High, on Wednesday evening, May 8. Following the short business meeting, auction bridge was played and Mrs. T. J. Webb held high score.

Mrs. Blanche Barker second, and Mrs. Pollard received the traveling award. Fourteen members were present. Mrs. C. W. Stanley will be hostess at the club's meeting in June.

Circles Meet

Thursday, May 9, the four circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church met for dessert at 1:30. Ruth circle met at the home of Mrs. George Boyd, 1527 Kane street, and a special guest of the afternoon was Mr. East Redman, president of the society.

Fifteen attended, and in the absence of Mrs. Dexter Elliott, devotional chairman, Mrs. Bruce Binkley presented a devotional program and she was assisted by Mrs. Wesley McNea and Mrs. George Casper. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. J. C. Hunt, chairman of the circle. Mrs. McNea and Mrs. Binkley will entertain the group at its next meeting.

Esther circle was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. H. Balsiger of 1919 Melrose, with Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz assisting. There were 17 members present and four guests present, Mrs. Barthman, Mrs. Jigar, Mrs. William Chilcote and Mrs. Eston Balsiger.

The circle chairman, Mrs. J. D. Gillespie, has moved to Portland and Mrs. O. R. Holloway was elected to take her place. Mrs. L. A. Brannan conducted the devotions and Mrs. John Yaden summarized the study of Africa.

Mrs. D. J. Kenyon, circle chairman, was welcomed back after a stay of several months in California, and it was decided that Mrs. Kenyon and Mrs. Brannan would be the hostesses for the June meeting.

Mrs. W. A. Carleton of 264 Eldorado was hostess to Martha circle, and eight members attended. Mrs. Charles Rogers, a bride recently arrived from England, was a guest.

Mrs. Mark Taylor, secretary, presided over the business meeting as both the chairman and vice-chairman were absent, and Mrs. C. H. Barnstable conducted the devotions. It was reported the circle's dinner, served for the home extension unit in the church dining room, was very successful.

Mrs. Louis Petzoldt, who lives in the government house on Nevada, will be next hostess.

Mary circle met with Mrs. J. Riker, 3428 Harlan drive, and she was assisted by Mrs. Wesley McKaig. There were 10 members present and one guest, Mrs. Bryce Osborn.

Mrs. Lee McBride conducted the devotions, Mrs. E. W. Mocabee, chairman, was in charge of the business meeting and Miriam Smith gave an interesting account of the Methodist posts in Africa, the hospitals, homes and schools under the supervision of the church.

Mrs. W. T. Withrow of 229 Jefferson will be hostess for the next meeting.

All circle chairmen stressed the need for workers at the church housecleaning day, Thursday, May 16, and it is hoped that any able to assist even for a short time will plan to be present.

The study program, based on the book "The Cross Over Africa," has been finished and the study hour this month was in general a summary of the winter's work on this great continent.

Merrill

Merrill Rebeckah at the last meeting voted to cooperate with other organizations here to sponsor a community Christmas tree this year, first since the year before war was declared. Civic, church and social groups will help prepare the planned entertainment and distribution of treats. It is possible also that the contest for the best holiday exterior decorations in homes in the community may also be revived. Seven candidates were initiated.

Don Barnes was chairman of the birthday committee which served refreshments at tables decorated in pink and green, lodge colors. The next meeting will be May 20.
