Legion Wants Show Returns

All members of the American Legion who have tickets or money for the Legion-sponsored "House of Magic" show, to be presented today at 2 and 8 p. m. at the Pelican theatre, are urged to turn in their money and tickets at the Pelican tonight, or at the Legion club, 219 Main, Friday or Saturday. This is important as a settlement of account must be made with the performers immediately, officers said.

At the special matinee today at 2 p. m., live bunnies were given away free to several youngsters, in addition to the full two-hour presentation by Warren Gram and his troupe. Profits derived from these

Chiloquin Resident Hurt In Accident

Elliott Moore, 48-year-old Chiloquin resident, is recovering in Klamath Valley hospital from a fracture of the left clavicle, received in an accident near the Bray mill east of Chiloquin on Sprague river.

Moore was with Frank Summers, reservation stockman, when Summers' truck overturned. Summers was uninjured. Moore was admitted to the hospital several days after the accident, according to reports. Moore is a seasonal employee of the Klamath Agency forest service but was not on duty at the time of the accident.
