MIDLAND EMPIRE NEWS

Fort Klamath
Jim Dixon of Roseburg visited here last week at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Dixon, at the Dixon ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brattain and son Blaine were home guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Castel Sr. The Brattains, former local residents, had been visiting in Lakeview and Klamath Falls and were en route back to Los Vegas, Nev., where they are making their home. Their other son, Bob, recently was sent to Europe with a U. S. army unit.

Loy Barker of Klamath Falls was a business visitor here last week, representing the Northern Life Insurance company, for which he is the local agent.

Mrs. Peggy Leever visited here Thursday with her son and daughter and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Guss Page and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Orth, and left Friday for her home in Klamath Falls after spending the night at the Guss Page home.

Through error, it was recently stated that Don Gray is employed by the Big Lakes Box company in its local logging operations. In correction of this item, Gray is working with Fred Zumbrun in this vicinity, both men being in the U. S. forest service.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Noah over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Noah and children of Prineville, Roy and Marvin Noah of Brownsville. Ben Noah is now employed as foreman in Prineville by the Ochoco Lumber company. On Saturday, Noah and his three sons were Klamath Falls visitors.

Mrs. Hattie Pate went to Ashland last week to stay with her daughter. Mrs. Pate has been making her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Pate, at the Big Lakes camp, but ill health forced her to move to a lower climate.

Mrs. Bert Gray is now employed as regular local telephone operator, succeeding Mrs. Ival Knox, who will henceforth work as relief operator. Mrs. Harry Engle is chief operator at the local office of the West Coast Telephone company.

Friday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Van Wormer and son Douglas were Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Heath of Chiloquin. James Orth arrived home Saturday from Livermore, Calif., where he has received his discharge from the U. S. veterans' hospital.

Malin Grange Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the Malin grange was held on Tuesday, May 18, with 20 members in attendance. Guests of the evening were State Deputy and Mrs. Charles Wicklander and the new special State Deputy and Mrs. Wallace Reed. Wicklander and Reed spoke briefly on methods used in various granges to obtain and keep members. Mrs. Wicklander is a member of the state juvenile committee and encouraged organizing the younger members of the family into a juvenile grange.

Eleven new applications were received and will be obligated at the next business meeting to be held on June 11. Mrs. Smalle's team was winner of the membership drive and is therefore entitled to a treat now being planned by the losing side captained by Harry Wilson. Plans for this affair will be announced at a later date. The grange voted to wire requests to senators, and representative in Washington, D. C., voicing opinions as opposed to daylight saving time.

The next meeting will be social, to be held on Tuesday, May 28, with Mrs. Don Macken and Mrs. Wilfred Dixon as hostesses.
