PORTLAND, Ore., May 18 (AP)—Dozens of sleeping occupants were evacuated safely from a blaze which raged through the Mayflower hotel early today and injured 11 firemen.

The fire, starting in the basement of the three-story structure, ate through ground floor shops, destroyed hotel rooms, and left only a red brick shell after several hours' battle.

Fireman Carl Frey, overcome by smoke after helping many occupants out of the building, was taken to a hospital. So were Joe Gately, who rode through the blaze, and Henry White, who suffered a cut hand. Eight other firemen received emergency treatment at the scene.

Many occupants of the downtown hotel fled to the street when the blaze broke out at 2:30 a. m. Others were helped out by firemen. Residents of an adjoining hotel were temporarily evacuated to the sidewalk, where they sat with suitcases, peacocks, blankets and other odds and ends.

Firemen were still pouring water into the building after dawn this morning, though the fire was entirely under control.

"Aw, they were carved there after Harry became president."

SURE FIRE

ATCHISON, Kas., May 18 (AP)—No one can accuse A. F. Matthias of owning a temperamental cigarette lighter. His really works.

Matthias left the lighter on the lower sash of a window in his home. When a member of the family raised the window the lighter flipped open and set the house on fire.

The fire department put out the blaze before much damage resulted.

State Tourist Plans Formed

Two major points discussed at the tourist promotion conference which was called by Gov. Earl Snell for Friday in Portland were a tourist host school and Oregon Tourist Week.

The host school would be to educate service station attendants, police, waitresses, hotel attendants and others in public service in the proper attitude toward tourists, and furnish them with complete information on recreational advantages in the area.

Oregon Tourist Week will be proclaimed by Gov. Snell for the week from June 9 to 15, when radio stations, newspapers and chambers of commerce will be asked to cooperate in its observance.

Representatives from all the major communities in Oregon were present at the conference. Charles R. Stark, manager of the Klamath County chamber of commerce, attended from here.

Florist Lauds Shrine's Work

Tommy Luke, Portland florist and Rotarian, addressed the Klamath Falls Rotary club Friday, telling of the humanitarian, as well as the operational side, of the Shrine hospitals for crippled children.

Luke emphasized that these hospitals are not operated for Shriners, but for crippled children, from babyhood to 14 years, regardless of race, creed or color. The Portland hospital, which takes patients from British Columbia, Washington, Idaho and Oregon, led the nation last year in the number of beds and in operation.

"Our first duty to children is to make them happy," Luke said, and explained that the Shrine hospitals are for crippled children whose conditions can be improved but who could not otherwise get medical care because of financial reasons.

Marshall Cornett was chairman of the day. A number of Klamath Shriners were guests of the club.
