

Library Club Elects Officers

The last meeting of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club for the year 1945-1946 was held in the main auditorium of the public library on Monday, May 13. After a short business meeting new officers for the coming year were elected. They are: Mrs. Walter Brown, president; Mrs. Charles Larkin, first vice president; Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, second vice president; Mrs. Lloyd Young, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Schulz, treasurer.

The retiring officers are Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, president; Mrs. Walter Brown, first vice president; Mrs. Glenn Kent, second vice president; Mrs. Paul Farrrens, secretary; and Mrs. Loren Palmerton, treasurer.

Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. Loren Palmerton and Mrs. Walter Brown gave very interesting reports on the Federation of Women's Clubs convention which they had recently attended in Portland. Mrs. Ellingson announced that Mrs. Brown had won the first prize in oils for her painting "Roses in April" which was hung in the art exhibit at the convention. Mrs. Brown's painting has also been exhibited in art shows in both New York and Portland.

Recital Planned

On Monday evening, May 20, at 7:30, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt will present her voice and piano pupils in recital in the library auditorium. The affair is an annual spring program and features both grade school and high school students.

Wed Sunday

Dorothy Catherine Compton, daughter of Mrs. F. B. Compton, of 332 Division, became the bride of Virgil Vernon Knight, son of Mrs. Ada Larson also of this city, in a ceremony read in the Klamath Lutheran church by the Rev. S. M. Topness, on Sunday afternoon, May 12, at 5 o'clock.

The bride was given in marriage by George Knight, brother of the groom. She chose for her wedding a gown of white taffeta with a net overskirt. Her fingertip veil was caught in a crown of seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of red rosebuds and gardenias. Her only attendant was Beth Chastain who wore a gown of blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Best man was Orville Cunningham. A dinner honoring the young couple was held after the ceremony at the home of the groom's mother, Lora Madden, sister of the bridegroom, came here from San Francisco to attend the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Knight are at home at 120 S. Carroll.

Party
Over 100 persons attended the mothers and daughters party held in the Klamath Lutheran church Tuesday evening. The program opened with group singing of "Beautiful Savior" and "Home, Sweet Home." Mrs. Estin Kiger gave a tribute to daughters and Donna Wilkes responded for the daughters.

A group of girls presented the Peter Pan picture suite. Three numbers were given by Margaret Quick, four by Mary Anne Danielson and "The Nursery Clock" was sung by Grace Lou Henry, accompanied by Lynette Kohn. Helen Fisher gave the last three numbers and the story was told by Mary Ann Munsen.

Mrs. S. M. Topness presented the oldest mother present, Mrs. Anne Vaagan, aged 79, with a corsage, and the youngest daughter, Ruth Anna Russell, one-year-old, was also given a very tiny corsage. The mother from the greatest distance was Mrs. Brown from Long Beach, Calif. Mrs. Kiger and Donna Wilkes were given corsages in appreciation of their part in the program. Marjorie Ongman spoke upon the "Lutheran World Action" program. Proceeds from the party will go to the support of this project.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. B. E. Eells, Mrs. Elmer Rindal, Mrs. Ken Samson, Mrs. Francis Delyea and Mrs. W. M. Sharples.

IT'S A BIG MONTH for Eddie and Andrea Lee Silani. On Wednesday, May 15, Eddie observed his third birthday, and on Friday, May 24, Andrea Lee will be one year old. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Silani of this city.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg returned Thursday noon from a six-day outing which took them as far south as Santa Cruz, California, where they attended the annual state assembly of Rebekahs. Mrs. Ethel Bailey, Roseburg, president of the Oregon assembly of Rebekahs, and Mrs. Fred Cofer, an officer of the Oregon organization, were with the Wattenburgs. Mrs. Wattenburg is a past president of the Oregon Rebekahs.

Mrs. D. Z. Powell accompanied the party as far south as Redding where she will spend a few weeks with her sister who is seriously ill.

The Wattenburgs spent Sunday in San Francisco as guests of Mr. Wattenburg's sister, Mrs. Wilbur Hudson, and they also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garcelon, former residents of Klamath Falls, now living near Los Gatos. Mrs. Garcelon is reported as recovering from a recent operation.

May Birthdays

Andrea Lee and Eddie, young daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Silani of this city, observed their May birthdays with a party Wednesday afternoon, May 15.

Eddie was three years old on May 15, and his little sister will be just one year old May 24. Tiny airplane favors marked the places at the party table, which was centered with a toy wheel barrow filled with gifts.

Present were Eddie and Andrea Lee, Sharon Jean Burrell, Deanna Lou Devine, Patricia Mae Devine, Michael Payne, Jerry DeNault, Stephanie Bonotto, Mrs. Louis Devine, Mrs. E. L. Payne, Mrs. Morris Burrell, Mrs. Alfred Bonotto, and Mrs. Andrew Silani.

Friday Tea

The sixth and seventh grade girls of the Fairview Glamor club honored their mothers and teachers with a tea, Friday, May 10, in the school cafeteria. Appropriate fashions for junior girls were modeled by members of the club. Joanne Meed introduced the models and commented on their styles.

The tea table was decorated with spring flowers, as was the background for the fashion display. Doris Ann Thomas and Margaret Powell presided at the tea table.

Participating in the affair were Mariene Peterson, Joanne Meed, Eileen Nelson, Mary Lou Sharp, Doris Ann Thomas, Sally Greenleaf, Sharon Fanning, Marva Swearingen, Joan Kennel, DeLores Thompson, Donna Driggs, Barbara Solie, Mary Lou Joplin, Corlie Blickenstaff, Doris Fleming, Nancy Kintgen, Juanita Kline, Freda Scoggins, Ruby Cook, Mary Agnes Whitson, Marjorie Petty, Jackie McEachern, and Margaret Powell.

Evelyn Ickes, sixth grade room teacher, directed the affair.

On Friday, May 10, two graduating members of the senior class of Sacred Heart academy, Ruth Mattes and Billie June McTaggart, were honored with a bridal shower given by other girls in the class at the home of Rue Ann Dubel, 2036 LeRoy.

Invited guests were Mary Mahoney, Elaine Abbott, Florence Narey, June Selstrom, Barbara Holmes, Mary Vandenberg, Rue Ann Dubel, Celine Carrier, Milie Moteschenbacher, Margaret Provost, Vivien Kiernes, Marilou O'Connor, Elizabeth Dennehy, Helen Bradbury, Irene Kejsar, Dorothy Lund, Theresa Murphy, and the two honor guests, Ruth Mattes and Billie June McTaggart.

Social Club

The Eastern Star Social club met Friday, May 3, in the Masonic temple and five tables of a bridge were in play. High score went to Mrs. Oscar Peyton, second high to Mrs. Peale, and a special award to Mrs. Victor Palmer.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. W. A. Pollard and Mrs. H. Heneline. The next meeting of the club will be held June 7. Summer flowers were much in evidence at the party with many bowls of the blooms placed around the room.

Birthday

Ruby Schultz, KUHS student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schultz of Tulelake, celebrated her 16th birthday last weekend at her home.

June Freeman, Betty Lowman and Gloria Tockey, schoolmates, were houseguests over the weekend. Ed Roller, vice president of Arden Farms, Oakland, Calif., a guest at the boat club, cooked the birthday dinner, even to baking a three-layer birthday cake.

The girls went horseback riding, motor and row boating on the lake, and visited the Lava Beds.

Aloha Chapter Honors Guests

The past matrons and past patrons of Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, were the honored guests at the chapter meeting Tuesday evening, May 14, in the Masonic temple.

About 35 guests were presented with gifts and introduced by the conductress and associate conductress. Miss Koncho, president of the Past Matrons club, responded with thanks from her group, and Will Wood responded for Past Patrons.

Presenting the candlelight degree honoring past matrons and past patrons were Betty Hunter, Neva Snell, Blanche Metz, Beatrice Denison, Irma Miller, Florence West, Norma Uertlugs and Rhoda Harndon.

Faye Ambrose, past grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon, was a visitor. She was given a corsage by Alpha Theta, worthy matron.

After the business meeting, a musical program was presented. Mrs. Robert Craig sang two spring songs. She was accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Denison. Two flute numbers were given by Ingrid Norland. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Hans Norland. Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger and Mrs. Edwin Schenbeck sang two numbers accompanied by Mrs. Craig.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room. The tables were decorated with spring flowers and individual May baskets, made by the worthy matrons.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, May 21. Nine members of the Royal Neighbors of America met at the home of Ella Bortin Monday and Tuesday evening to make corsages for the national convention to be held at Rock Island, Ill., in June.

The corsages were made of English walnuts wrapped in colored cellophane.
