Services Feted At Moore Park

Sunday afternoon at Moore park, servicemen stationed in and near Klamath Falls were guests of the Junior Hostesses and the American Legion at a picnic from 2 to 7 p. m.

Arranging the affair were Mildred Williams and Verda Heidland of the Junior Hostesses, Lt. Gerald Anderson of the Marine Barracks, and Doug Vaden of the American Legion. Lynn Roycroft was master of ceremonies.

The Junior Hostesses supplied food for the 100 guests, the American Legion supplied soft drinks, and the Marine Barracks furnished transportation. The group played baseball, football, and various games including a sack race, a three-legged race, and 100-yard dash. Winners of the games were Marie Dorlaque, Blanche King, PFC H. W. Oliver, PFC Robert Myers, and PFC Chris Plagman. Awards were donated by Hardy's, Sears, Town Shop, Penney's and Herman's. The next picnic will be on May 30, Memorial Day.

Softball Leaguers To Meet Tomorrow

It's My Business.. to Serve You Better
When you own your own business you have a bigger stake in its operation... you are mighty careful to give the kind of service and to sell the top-quality products that make customers come back. That's why I say—because it's my business—it's my business to serve you better.
I'm one of the thousands of business men who make up the greatest group of Independent Gasoline Dealers in the world. We sell top-quality products—Mobilgas, Mobiloil, Mobil batteries and Mobil specialties. We render a high-grade, conscientious service that will insure your steady patronage. We want your business.
Remember—when you patronize an Independent Mobilgas Dealer you are helping support a local, independently-owned business—the kind of small business that helps make America great.
