

Bend Grabs '46 School Track Title

Ashland Nosed Out By Half-Point; Klamath County Boys Place

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 20 (AP)—Bend ranked as the 1946 state track and field champion today after a classic Saturday meet which shattered the pole vault and the 34-year-old mile record.

Bend, whose soaring George Rasmussen set a new vault record, edged out, 22 1/2 to 22, the Ashland squad paced by the new champion miler, George Fullerton. Hillsboro was third with 15.

Lanky Fullerton, hitting the tape an easy 40 yards ahead of his nearest competitor, ran an amazing 4:24 mile to outclass the 4:29 state record set in 1912 by Paul Wilson of Portland's Washington high.

Rasmussen broke last year's 12 foot 3-inch pole vault record with a 12 foot 9 jump—but it wasn't as high as onlookers had expected. In local meets, Rasmussen had several times topped the 13-foot mark.

Jack Doyle, Hillsboro, tied the 1938 high hurdle mark with 14.9 and won the low hurdles in 23.1—only 3 of a second over that record.

Scoring Honors Tied
Doyle and Fullerton tied for individual scoring honors with 10 points each, Rasmussen came third with 9.

Other team scores: Salem 10, Hood River 10, Tigard 9, Medford 9, Seaside 9, Klamath Falls 8, Washington 7, Springfield 7, Pendleton 6, Prineville 6, Grants Pass 6, Benson 5, Grant 5, Sabin 4, Beaverton 4, Nyssa 4, Henley 3, Marshfield 3, Mac Hill 3, Eugene 3, North Bend 3, Hermiston 3, Lincoln 2, Columbia Prep 2, Milwaukie 2, Molalla 2, Roseburg 2, University High 2, Woodburn 2, Bonanza 1, Chemawa 1.

Hess Wins Toss
The high jump ended in a four-way tie for first at 5 feet 9 1/2 inches, and in the toss for ribbons, Fred Hess of Henley won first place honors.

Klamath's scorers were Bill Sari, shot put second, 48 feet 11 inches; Tommy Edwards, second in broad jump, 20 feet 11 inches; Dick Smith of Bonanza placed fifth in the mile to gain one point for his school.

Gun Trophy

Jimmie Gleason, KUHS freshman, is shown with the "Bowers Handicap Trophy" which he won in a handicap trap shoot against 29 registered contestants at the Central Point Sportsmen's club. Jimmie broke 23 birds out of 25 to get the trophy, which must be won three straight years for ownership.

Full-Scale Trio Of Jousts Set

Rassle fans here have a treat in store for them next Thursday night.

Promoter Mack Lillard has signed six huskies, all of whom declare that they are of main event caliber and all of whom say that a six-rounder is just the thing for them.

Therefore all three bouts on the card are set for six frames, but the order on the card is to be decided by the grapplers themselves.

The rasslers who will appear Thursday night will be Tony Ross, Marino, Angelo, Gust Johnson, Georges Dusette, Al Szasz and Mad Mike Nazarian.

Angelo will tussle with Tough Tony Ross, Georges Dusette will match muscles with Al Szasz and Gust Johnson will tangle with Mad Mike Nazarian.

As another sidelight, Angelo and Dusette, who were in a terrific pet with each other a few weeks back because of the dumpy Italian's refusal to stake his coast junior heavy crown in a bout with the French Canadian, have patched up their beef and the title match will be held here May 30.

Midget Racer Cops All-Time High Purse

PORTLAND, May 20 (AP)—An all-time high northwest purse of $3000 for midget racing was won yesterday at the midget auto track here by Jud Fuller, Portland, in the 10-lap feature.

In the same race, Claude Walling, veteran Seattle auto race driver, was injured when his tiny speedster crashed into one driven by "Zek" Siegler, Oakland, Calif. The latter was not injured. Walling's injuries were not known immediately.

Ferriss Gets 5th Triumph

By The Associated Press

Dave (Boo) Ferriss, the Boston Red Sox' drawing righthander from Shaw, Miss., had a fine start today toward becoming the first pitcher to win 20 or more games in each of his first two years in the major leagues since Jake Weimer turned the trick for Chicago's Cubs in 1903-'04.

Ferriss boasts five wins without a setback this season following his 4-0 shutout victory over the Detroit Tigers yesterday. The 24-year-old sophomore's fine performance gave the American league leaders an even break in the twin bill, for Detroit's Hal Newhouser beat the Sox 3-1 on four hits in the nightcap.

The second place New York Yankees moved within four and a half games of the Red Sox by sweeping their doubleheader with the Indians, 2-0 and 7-1, before 53,310, Cleveland's largest crowd of the season.

Ruffing's 267th Win
In the opening game Spud Chandler outpitched Allie Reynolds in a brilliant duel to gain his sixth triumph against one defeat. Red Ruffing, aided by Joe DiMaggio's two-run homer, had an easy time in the nightcap as he chalked up his 267th big league triumph.

St. Louis Cards' Manager Eddie Dyer led with his southpaw ace, Max Lanier and Harry Breechen, and they rewarded him with 9-5 and 4-0 wins before a Philadelphia record crowd of 35,048.

The Brooklyn Dodgers dropped a full game behind the Cards when they succumbed to the righthanded wizardry of veteran Ed Heusser, who permitted seven hits in pitching the Cincinnati Reds to a 4-0 victory.

Sox Bow Ties
The up-and-coming Washington Senators licked the Chicago White Sox twice, 4-3 and 7-1, coming from behind to win the opener from 45-year-old Ted Lyons with two runs in the ninth.

After blowing a 6-0 lead and losing 8-5 to Chicago's Cubs in the opener, the Boston Braves came back to win the afterpiece 5-3 on a three-run seventh inning rally.

In a parade of lefthanders, Pittsburgh and the New York Giants divided a doubleheader, the Pirates winning the opener, 3-1, and the Giants the second half, 5-1.

Following up a 4-3 opening game decision over the St. Louis Browns, the Philadelphia Athletics unleashed an 18-hit attack, including eight doubles, a triple and homers by Hal Peck and George McQuinn to swamp the Sewellmen, 13-2, in the nightcap.

Hostak Will Resume Disrupted Fighting

SEATTLE, May 20 (AP)—Al Hostak, the Pacific northwest's pride and joy in the fistie world and twice world's middleweight champion, soon will resume his fight career, his manager, Eddie Marino, said Saturday.

Hostak, recently discharged from the army, currently is concentrating on a gradual weight reduction before undertaking more serious training for fight offers from many Pacific coast points.

Craters Wallop Centrals, 24-0

MEDFORD, May 20 (AP)—The Medford Craters shut out Central Point 24-0 here yesterday as they hammered four Central Point pitchers off the mound with 14 hits in the opening game of the Southern Oregon Baseball league.

Coast Eyes Oaks' Jump Into First

Series With Portland Gives Acorns Chance To Consolidate Lead

By The Associated Press

Pacific Coast league baseball fans looked with increased interest at Manager Casey Stengel's Oakland Acorns today. The comet-like rise of the club from third to a tie for first place during the past week gave the early season race all the fervor of a crucial down-the-stretch finale.

The rise of the Acorns was accomplished at the expense of the Hollywood Stars, who dropped seven straight yet retained fifth place in the standings.

Meanwhile San Francisco's Seals and Los Angeles were cutting each other's throats at Wrigley field in a 4-3 series, the Seals managing to cling to a tie for the league lead by taking the odd game. The Angels slipped from second to the third rung.

Bevos vs. Acorns
This week's games will give the Acorns a chance to improve their position. They take on the lowly Portlanders at Portland while the Seals battle fourth on Pisan's sacrifice.

Miller walked and Hatfield poked a long triple into left center, scoring Brooks and Miller.

Wheeler singled, scoring Hatfield and giving the Seals a lead never threatened by Dunsmuir.

The Railroaders tallied both their runs in the eighth inning when Maurice Beck was hit by a pitched ball, Bob Reid singled to left and Beck raced to third. On the play Reid took second. Chuck Carliquist singled past third, scoring Beck and Reid.

Elsewhere around the league Weed topped Redding 11-6 at Redding and Mt. Shasta beat McCloud 9-3 at McCloud.

Hi Hatfield of Chiloquin was the big gun in Klamath's win, hitting a triple and two singles, chasing in three runs. Earl Brooks hit three singles, Mario Pisan had a double and a single.

Fran Miller got a triple and a single, Roy Wheeler collected a double and a single, as did Johnny Pastega.

For Dunsmuir Pop Fidler boomed a triple and a single and Miles Richmond got two singles. Jim Olsen allowed only seven hits and scattered them over the nine frames.

Klamath scored one run in the second inning when Wheeler doubled to left, moved up on a long fly and came home on Pastega's single. In the third heat Brooks singled, moved to second on Pisan's sacrifice.

Sons Pound 16-Hit Win Over Dunsmuir

By HALE SCARBROUGH

The Klamath Sons found the range in Dunsmuir city park yesterday, pounding out 16 base hits for seven runs to defeat the Dunsmuir Railroaders 7 to 2 in their second Northern California league game. It was opening day at Dunsmuir and a battery consisting of Acting Mayor Tom Wheeler, pitching, and Police Chief Barney Crawford, catching, delivered the opening pitch.

Elsewhere around the league Weed topped Redding 11-6 at Redding and Mt. Shasta beat McCloud 9-3 at McCloud.
