MIDLAND EMPIRE NEWS

Midland

Fred Milani has returned home from Hillside hospital where he has been ill for a week. He will be confined to his bed for several days, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ayers spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Casebeer in California.

John W. Mistler and family and Edward Burke and family of Tulelake spent Tuesday evening in Midland visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Mistler and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hathorne and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Farrell and Earl R. (Buddy) Hathorne from Leavenworth, Kansas, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mrs. Hathorne's brother, John Mistler, and family.

They were accompanying Farrell to North Island from where he expects to sail May 18, after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell, in Long Beach, Calif. Farrell is an instructor with the navy air corps.

The Midland Victory club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Mistler, with 10 members present.

Red Cross sewing was done and plans were made to find addresses of needy persons in the famine countries and each member to adopt one family to whom food will be sent or other needs.

Mrs. Leon Andrieu was selected as playing the most interesting and entertaining game. After which lunch was served by the hostess, which consisted of a huge apple pan dowdy and whipped cream.

Those present were Mrs. Blanche Flowers and daughter Dona, Mrs. Minnie Andrieu and sons, Mrs. Marie Andrieu, Mrs. Gladys Buhrig and daughters, Mrs. Thelma Houck and son Leland, Mrs. Phillis Bolhman, Mrs. Vada Schmeck, Mrs. Lois Noel and daughter Doty, Mrs. B. M. Mistler, Mrs. Louise Milani.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Milani in June.

Clarence Casebeer arrived in Midland Friday morning after his release from the merchant marine.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mistler and son Jackie and Mrs. Edward Burke and sons Eddie and Gary had dinner with their parents Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Mistler and Ralph in Midland. Mistler and Burke are employed at the relocation center formerly Newell, Calif.

Ronald Kinkade is on leave from boot training at San Diego. He expects to sail Tuesday.

Malin

Anton Steyskal has been ill for the past week. He was hospitalized for several days, but has returned to his home where he is now convalescing.

Mervyn Wilde, William Rajnus and James Ottoman enjoyed the past week fishing at Wickiup dam. They reported catching their limit.

Mrs. Robert Kennan and two children, Robert and Jean, from Wailuku, Maui, Hawaii, were visiting friends in Malin last week. They are en route to Pasadena, Calif., where they will visit Kennan's parents and from there expect to return to Hawaii. Mrs. Kennan formerly taught in the Malin high school and will be remembered by her many friends as Violet Judy.

Malin was well represented last week at the Klamath County Public Health association dinner at the Willard hotel with Mrs. Teresa McComb, Mrs. Halbert Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ted A. De Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Morton, Mrs. Charles H. Johnson, Mrs. Perry Haley, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Henzel attending.

Vaclav Kalina, John Frietag and Elzie Roberts left this week for a short fishing trip at East lake.

William Saunders and family left this week for Kansas. Mrs. Saunders left several weeks ago for Kansas upon receiving word of her father's death. She expects to return to Malin with her family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spolek are having extensive remodeling done on their home in Malin.

Mayor A. Kalina has proclaimed May 25 as Poppy Day. The sale of poppies is sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary with Mrs. George Brothanek as chairman. She will be assisted by Mrs. Elzie Roberts, Mrs. Bonnie Stevens, Mrs. John McCulley, Mrs. John Frietag, Mrs. Vaclav Kalina, Mrs. Merle Loosley and Mrs. A. E. Street.

The American Legion auxiliary of Malin is sponsoring a trip to Girls' State at Silver Creek Falls, Ore., to be held from June 9 to 16. Mrs. Elzie Roberts, chairman, announced this week that the two girls chosen from Malin high school are Shirley Kay Johnson and Emily Elzner. These girls were chosen for their outstanding scholastic record and worthy citizenship. Girls' State was organized in 1940, but this is the first year the Malin auxiliary will send representatives.

Con Johnson, who has had his garage closed for some time while the building was being moved from the chosen Malin community park site, is again open for business in his new location. Johnson's garage is one of the most up-to-date places of business of its kind.

Grady Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Saunders, has been ill for the past week.

Mrs. S. G. Murphy from Bend, and Mrs. C. F. Jones of San Diego, Calif., have been recent weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Wilde.

FUNNY BUSINESS

"Looks as if Simpson's oversize mallet isn't working so well!"

New Pine Creek

The East Side grange members as a whole have accepted an invitation to attend the West Side grange meeting and social hour this Saturday evening. Many are planning on going over to enjoy the generous hospitality of our neighbors across the lake.

The East Side grange orchestra is playing for the firemen's ball at Cedarville this Saturday evening, so its members will not be able to enjoy the festivities on the West Side.

Mike Conner and Budge Mulkey, who have for the past six months been owners of the Shamrock bar and cafe, made a spectacular sale of their fixtures and stock to three men from Bonanza last week. Robert Colahan, Alvin Heffron and Joe Horsley are the new owners and plan to operate the establishment very much on the same lines as their predecessors have in the past. Possibly they may add to the building for more room if business warrants.

Conner and Mulkey were in no wise anxious to sell but when their reluctant but lucrative price was immediately met with a down payment, they had sold out. Conner, who was managing the business, has no definite plans for the future but he knows one thing for sure and that is he is going to catch up on his fishing.

The new owners took over last Friday. Ruben Anderson, who is chef, operating the cafe end of the business, will continue on as before. Jimmie Jay, bartender, will also continue under the employ of the new owners, according to information received.

Babe Blurton has his new service station now in operation although all phases of his plant have not as yet been completed. The painters are expected next week to give the place a shiny new coat of paint and he is expecting his hydraulic grease lift any day now. Babe is also operating a one-chair barber shop in connection with his service station.

Rev. Barrow is taking over the duties of cubmaster of the local troop. The pac meeting will be May 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barry returned last weekend from their trip to Reno and various points in Nevada and California. Since returning they have been looking for a new home and may locate here. Their friends hope they will find something suitable here in town.

WHEAT

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)— May rye ranged through the permissible limits in today's grain futures trading. The contract was up 5 cents at the opening after which light selling pushed the price down 10 cents by 10 minutes. Some short covering moved quotations to within small fractions of the day's high shortly after noon.

There was some action in new corn deliveries.

Today's business was largely evening up for the close of trading in May contracts at the end of tomorrow's session.

At the close wheat was unchanged at ceiling prices. Old corn contracts were bid at ceilings. New corn contracts were ⅛ to ¼ cents higher than yesterday's close. January $1.46. New oats contracts were unchanged to ⅛c higher, August 83¼c. Old oats contracts were unchanged to ⅛c higher, May 83c. New rye contracts were unchanged at ceilings; old rye was unchanged to 3⅛c higher, May $2.35½. New barley contracts were unchanged to ½c higher, November $1.33½. Old contracts were unchanged at ceilings.
