Wedding Bells In Berkeley Church

A wedding of interest took place at Northbrae Community church in North Berkeley, California, in an 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony the evening of May 5, when Richard S. Shuck of Merrill, took as his bride the former Alverda E. Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren W. Wolfe of Albany, California.

The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Shuck, Merrill pioneers.

The Rev. Fowler read the double ring service in the presence of many friends and relatives of the young couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, walked down the aisle in a white slipper satin gown fashioned with a form fitting bodice, sweetheart neckline, and a full, sweeping skirt which had a bouffant net over skirt tied with satin bow-knots. The veil of matching net was held by a Juliet cap and fell into a full train. She carried white orchids, stephanotis and lilies-of-the-valley with bouvardia for her bridal bouquet. Vows were exchanged before an altar decked with yellow, white and orchid butterfly iris.

Mrs. Robert Dehlinger of Klamath Falls, youngest sister of the groom, was the matron of honor and she wore a white lace frock of old fashioned design and carried a quaint nosegay of pastel sweet peas with a matching tiara for her hair. The bridesmaids, gowned in similar fashion as the matron of honor, carried pastel nosegays. Attendants were Wilma White of San Lorenzo, Helen Simon, East Oakland, and Mrs. Dorothy Young of Oakland.

The best man was James Hammond of Merrill, and ushers were Gordon E. Blair of Albany, cousin of the bride, and Victor and Claude Shuck, Merrill, brothers of the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony there was a reception at the church and the young couple greeted 125 friends and cut their three tiered wedding cake. Receiving with the wedding party was Mrs. Wolfe, the bride's mother, who wore a navy crepe gown with a draped skirt, a rose feather hat and an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Shuck left on a honeymoon which took them to Yosemite national park and they will soon be at home at Merrill. For traveling Mrs. Shuck wore a beige gabardine suit with aqua hat and bag and an orchid corsage.

The bride is a former University of Nevada student and a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She was also a member of Order of Rainbow for girls. Mr. Shuck attended Oregon State college, Corvallis, where he is affiliated with Theta Chi fraternity. He has resumed ranching following his discharge from the army in January of this year. He spent four years in service and the last year in the European theater.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dehlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Shuck and daughter Claudette, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Shuck and son Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Shuck and sons, Jimmie and Mervyn, and Mrs. Dave Liskey, all of Klamath.
