Court Of Honor

At its final meeting of the year, Girl Scout intermediate troop 10 of Fremont school held a court of honor, conducted by Florence-McConahay, executive Scout director.

Given special mention were Beverly Delmer and Phyllis Kaup who have completed work for 14 badges in four years. Beverly has been a Scout for seven years and Phyllis for six years.

Eighteen troop dramatics, eight prints, badges, and six drawing and painting badges were given.

On Saturday, May 18, Mrs. Harris took the sketching group on a bicycle hike to Moore park where they made landscape sketches of lake and mountains.

Blouse Fantasies

... and that's no exaggeration when it comes to describing the new blouses that had just been unpacked at LONG'S ... when Martha dropped in there this week.

All Tailor Maids ... the shipment is composed mostly of dainty white blouses ... but also includes a few of Tailor Maid's handsome, stitched shirts.

The artful blouses ... of soft white silks and crepes ... give you the choice of the jewelry neckline ... or a button-front style that has a perky bow at the throat ... cleverly designed with lacy insets, lace trimming and the faintest of pin tucking.

The shirts ... which come in maize, white or chocolate brown ... are made of a jersey-like fabric ... and the front stitching gives an extremely smart touch.

Sizes run from 32 through 38 ... in this new blouse selection at LONG'S APPAREL ... 719 Main.

The sunglasses that you perch on your nose this summer will have plenty of specs-appeal, thanks to the capers cut by postwar plastics that harmonize with your duds.

Summer Days

are nearly here again ... when we have to start laying in a supply of sunshine cosmetics ... and with this in mind, Martha looked over the selection at MILLER'S ... which is very complete.

For a protective, soothing lotion to be applied before and during exposure to sun and wind ... there's Primrose House Sun Screen Lotion ... and to acquire an even, slow tan, Martha recommends Sun Screen Oil by Primrose House. Both come in two and six-ounce sizes ... priced at 50 cents and $1.00, plus tax ... and are exclusive with MILLER'S, formerly Moe's.

To counteract the hoarse dryness of the summer ... three excellent lines of bareleg cosmetics are available at MILLER'S, 512 Main ... Primrose House Chiffon Liquid Hosiery ... in Bandana and Primrose Tan ... for $1.00 a bottle; Elizabeth Arden's Velva Leg Film ... in two sizes and three shades ... which sells for $1.00 and $2.00 a bottle ... and Charles of the Ritz Leg Make-up ... in Gosamer and Mirage ... for $1.00 ... all plus tax.

Sea Glamour

originals ... for beach wear ... in several intriguing styles ... are among the outstanding swim suit selection found in the sports togs department of LA-POINTE'S.

An acetate rayon number carries out the two-piece idea with lacing up each side for a new effect ... but Martha fell for the simple white tulle suits ... with matching robes ... on which a seagull design gives a novel touch.

Another effective white suit plus robe is fashioned of a pebble rayon ... with a touch of embroidery and printed jersey bra for color. Both of these can double for play suits if the water isn't handy.

Nylon is certainly taking its place in the vacation wardrobe this year ... and LaPOINTE'S is showing clever skirt-style nylon suits ... with jersey pants ... in shades of white, yellow and melon.

Draped and gathered jerseys that glamour up the figure ... floral print midrifts that tie up the sides in demure little bows ... and vivid two-piecers designed with a middle drape that's different are a few more of the many types being shown by LA-POINTE'S ... 507 Main ... where you'll find other distinguished swim suit names.

Whole canned tomatoes are in short supply, although other tomato products are plentiful. Where's the joker? A shortage of labor to hand-peel the tomatoes in canneries last year is the reason. However, there's still plenty of catsup, tomato sauce and juice, because these products are processed mechanically.

Boxed Letterettes

... greeting notes that feature beautiful Oregon scenes ... Draper Hall writing paper, a new line and considered among the finest ... folders of "quick notes" that are convenient to take along while traveling ... and many types of boxed stationery of quality and distinction comprise the large assortment at THE ART AND GIFT SHOP ... 519 Main.

There's a wonderful selection of those individual flowered notes that are appropriate for gift or greeting cards ... and Martha thought the boxed "letterette" sets would be wonderful for a little girl.

For men ... THE ART AND GIFT has very masculine looking boxed stationery ... in case you're looking forward to Father's Day already ... and, of course, you'll find here a choice of dainty pastel writing paper that any woman likes.

THE ART AND GIFT SHOP also has new floral bridge sets, consisting of score pads and tallies ... seasonably appropriate ... and now has a printing machine ... so that the stationery you select can be individualized with your name.

Able to take the teen-agers to town or country, to school or into a jitter-bug's dance at the drop of a nickel in a slot are new California-styled wedge shoe fashions which can put every color she can name in leather and two in "fur" on her feet.
