

Dads' Dinner

Members of Intermediate Girl Scout troop 2 of Fremont school were hostesses to their fathers in a dads' dinner held Friday evening, May 24, at the home of their leader, Mrs. James Pinniger, 1152 Crescent.

The dinner was the culmination of work on the Girl Scout cook and hostess badges. Twenty-three fathers and girls attended the affair. After dinner each girl introduced her father or guest.

The annual business meeting followed. Marilyn Wheeler, troop president, opened the meeting. Anna Lou Backman led the flag salute. Priscilla McDonald gave the annual membership report. Betty Pinniger, the annual secretary report, and Molly Cahin gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. James Pinniger, troop leader, conducted a court of awards, presenting the girls with hostess, cook, and service badges, second class rank, the attendance and achievement pins. The meeting was closed with a friendly circle, followed by games.

Society

The general meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, held in the church parlors Thursday, May 23, opened with the study hour under the leadership of Miriam Smyth at 10:30 a. m. and was followed by a sack lunch at noon.

The executive board met at 2 p. m. and the prayer circle at 4:40. Mrs. Walter Herndon was in charge of the devotional service which was a part of the general meeting at 2 p. m., and her theme was "The Great Heritage." Mrs. Earl Redman, president of the society, conducted the short business meeting, and it was announced that the third annual summer school would be held at Forest Grove August 18 through 23; the delegates from here have not yet been appointed.

Mrs. T. P. Windham, program chairman, is leaving Klamath Falls soon, and as yet her successor has not been named.

Mrs. John Yaden was program chairman for the day. Tea was served by Ruth circle at the close of the program, with Mrs. Bruce Binkley, Mrs. Walter Phillips and Mrs. Walter Herndon, hostesses, and Mrs. L. K. Phelps pouring. The table was centered with an arrangement of iris and blue and yellow figurines.

Senior Circle

Mrs. W. O. Lohrey and Mrs. William Larson were hostesses to the Senior circle of the Community Congregational church at the Lohrey home, 2144 Eberlein, on Friday afternoon, May 24.

Dessert was served at 1 o'clock to Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. William Revell, Mrs. Charles Whitman, Mrs. A. A. Myers, Mrs. Godfrey Matthews, Mrs. J. J. Pex, Mrs. H. S. Stone, Mrs. John Martin and three guests, Mrs. M. L. Miller, Mrs. Thomas Higgins and Mrs. Clyde James.

Mrs. Matthews conducted the devotional service and following a short business meeting Mrs. James, guest speaker, in the costume of a Navajo Indian woman, gave a talk on life among the Navajos with whom she spent several years and among the Klamath Indians. Her costume consisted of a black velvet blouse and a very full skirt of contrasting material with deep flounce, and she also wore several beautiful examples of the Navajo silver and turquoise jewelry.

No place has been decided on for the June meeting as yet, but a member of the Garden club will be the guest speaker, and those attending may bring flowers and a suitable vase, which will be used to demonstrate different ways of flower arrangement.

Visitors Return To Pomona

Major and Mrs. W. Douglas Gardiner and son Jimmie visited Mrs. Gardiner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson of 352 N. 10th street, over the weekend.

They left Tuesday for Pomona, Calif., where Gardiner will report for assignment June 7 as post executive officer of the Pomona remount depot. Mrs. Gardiner made her home here with her parents during her husband's overseas service. They have returned in John Day.
