

Hurling Brigade Hitting Rough Spot

By The Associated Press
With the exception of Hurricane Hal Newhouse and Dave (Boo) Ferriss, last year's select six of the big league hurling brigade—the 20-game winners—are finding it extremely difficult to regain their winning stride this year.

Four of the big six—the Chicago Cubs' Hank Wyse and Hank Borowy, St. Louis Cardinals' Charlie Barrett and Washington's Roger Wolff—strode to the hill in yesterday's Memorial Day doubleheaders, but only Wyse walked off with a victory under his belt. Not one of the other three succeeded in going the route.

Two other big winners of 1945, Cleveland's Steve Gromek (19-9) and the Cardinals' Ken Burkhardt (18-8) also continued to find the going rough. Gromek dropped his fourth decision in seven starts while Burkhardt failed to improve on his 2-1 record when he was shelled from the mound.

Even Wyse, a 22-game winner last year, has a so-so 3-3 record with only two creditable performances this season, including his four hit 6-2 win over the Cincinnati Reds in the opening game of yesterday's twin bill.

Borowy attempted to give the Bruins a clean sweep of the two games which would have moved the Cubs past the Reds into third place in the National league. For eight innings it appeared he would be successful as the Cubs led, 6-1, but the roof fell in on the former Fordham flinger in the ninth when the Reds banged across six runs to eke out a 7-6 triumph and an even split.

Catcher Ray Mueller's first home run of the year with a runner aboard supplied the tying and winning runs off reliever Charlie Adams before a standing room crowd of 45,120 paid fans.

Despite the poor pitching of Barrett and Burkhardt, the Cardinals managed to divide their doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates before 34,984, winning the second encounter, 12-11, after the Cubs had walked off with the opener, 9-3.

The pace-setting Boston Red Sox continued to roll up one of the best early season records in American league history when they captured both ends of a twin bill from Washington's Senators, 6-5 and 7-2, for their 32nd triumph in 41 games.

With 60,851 (59,889 paid) looking on at the mammoth Yankee stadium, the New York Yankees blasted out a double victory over the tallent Philadelphia Athletics, 6-1 and 6-3, to remain six and a half games behind the Red Sox. The twin setback extended the A's losing streak to eight games.

Feller Beats Sox
Cleveland and the Chicago White Sox exchanged shutouts as Bobby Feller snapped a White Sox winning streak at four with a 3-0 whitewash job in the opener. Feller allowed eight hits and struck out six in his seventh victory, to raise his season total to 104 whiffs. Bill Dietrich and Ralph Hammer collaborated to pitch the Sox to a 4-0 nightcap win.

The Brooklyn Dodgers held onto their two-game National league lead over the Cards when they halved their twin bill with the Boston Braves. After Kirby Higbe had blanked them, 5-0, in the opener for Brooklyn, the Braves snapped out of their hitting slump to outslug the Dodgers 10-8 in the finale.

Despite three home runs by Hank Greenberg which enabled the Detroit first baseman to tie Joe DiMaggio for the major league lead at 11, the Tigers had to be satisfied with a split of their two games with the St. Louis Browns. After Dizzy Trout had beaten the Browns 7-1 in the opener, the Browns copped the second, 2-1.

The Philadelphia Phillies won their first doubleheader of the season when they upset the New York Giants twice, 8-5 and 3-1. A four-run eighth inning rally won the setup while Oscar Judd stopped the Ottomans with six hits in the nightcap.

Shasta Next On Schedule For Locals

Continuing their northern California loop schedule after two weeks of inactivity, the Klamath Sons journey to Mt. Shasta, Calif., Sunday to take on the Mountaineers.

This will be the third league baseball game for the local boys who hold decisions over McCloud and Dunsuir. The Sons are one game behind schedule as the game here with Redding last Sunday was postponed because of inclement weather and rain.

That game was then tentatively set for yesterday afternoon but was again called off because some of the Redding players could not get away from work. It will be played later in the season.

The game Sunday with Mt. Shasta will be the last road engagement for the Sons for a while as the following four games on June 9, 16, 23 and 30 will be played on Recreation field.

It's Clyde Carlstrom's time to take the mound for the Sons Sunday. The curveballer is one-half of the Klamath pitching staff, which also includes Jim Olsen. The latter will be alongside for relief duty.

The team will travel to Mt. Shasta by chartered bus, leaving the Greyhound depot, 9th and Klamath, at 9 a. m. Round trip tickets for spectators who would like to make the trip on the team bus are available at the Klamath Billiards and Pastega's store in Pelican City.

Bobby Riggs Takes Pro Tennis Title

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 31 (AP)—Steady and cool, Bobby Riggs sewed up the world professional tennis championship again yesterday by turning back fiery Don Budge in the next to the last contest of their 46-match tour.
