

Marine Takes Bride On Sunday

A lovely bride of Sunday, May 26, was Mary Ellen Wilson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Louisville, Kentucky, who exchanged vows with Sgt. Lloyd Edward Crumpacker at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crumpacker, 2169 Madison.

The ceremony was read at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Hugh T. Mitchelmore of Peace Memorial Presbyterian church in the presence of about 40 friends and relatives. The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Crumpacker, wore a beautiful white satin gown with a full skirt of white chiffon which ended in a long train. Her full length veil of illusion net was held by a crown of fresh flowers. She carried an arm sheath of pink roses.

For something old and something borrowed, the bride wore Mrs. R. E. Morrison's veil, and something blue was a blue handkerchief loaned by an aunt of the groom, Mrs. M. R. Houser. Her something new was her gown.

Laura Crumrine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Crumrine, was the bride's attendant and she wore a gown of ice blue jersey and carried a nosegay of sweet peas. The best man was B. D. Morrison and the flower girl was pretty little Judith Ann Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Morrison.

Ushers were Stanley Elmore and Bob Morrison. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple cut their elaborately decorated wedding cake and serving were Mrs. S. T. Morrison, Mrs. George Conroy and Mrs. Stanley Elmore who also presided at the punch bowl. Receiving with the couple was Mrs. Ivan Crumpacker who wore a fuchsia crepe afternoon dress.

Mr. and Mrs. Crumpacker will remain here during the month of June, and early in July they plan a trip which will take them to Seattle and other northern points. Sgt. Crumpacker reports July 27, to McAllister, Oklahoma, navy ammunition depot, and his bride will accompany him. The two met shortly after Sgt. Crumpacker returned from service in the Pacific, and this included three years and six months in Japanese prison camps following the fall of Bataan. He will remain in the marine corps.

The bride attended school in Louisville, including Presentation academy and lived in San Diego for several years.

Degree Conferred

Members of Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, met at the home of Mrs. Lorn Dalcour, 715 N. 3rd St., on Thursday evening, May 23, for their last regular meeting until September.

During the evening, the exemplar degree, highest degree of the sorority, was conferred on Mrs. Howard Parnell, Mrs. Norman Moty, Mrs. Everett Ballard, Mrs. Eldon Phair, Mrs. Arthur Moore, and Mrs. Lorn Dalcour. Mrs. Arthur Moore officiated during the beautiful ceremony, which was read from a ritual table centered with a bowl of yellow roses, the sorority flower, and tall white tapers.

Mrs. William Milne presided during the business meeting at which time plans for the formal dance to be held in June were discussed. Plans for a picnic this summer were also told. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening to Lillian Redkey, Barbara Nyhart, Mrs. William Milne, Mrs. Lloyd Drew, Mrs. Norman Moty, Phyllis White, Elenora Weatherford, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Everett Ballard, Mrs. Ed Charon, Mrs. Eldon Phair, Lois Coady.

Class Holds Dinner Party

The Pelican party room on Tuesday evening, May 21, was the scene of the final meeting of the adult Spanish classes, culminating in a dinner party attended by students and interested persons.

After dinner, Eve Benson presented a group of young students from her studio in two dance numbers, "Jack in the Box," and "Mexican Sombbrero."

In the "Jack in the Box" number were Darlene Price and Diane Oldenburg. In the second number were Corliss Mayfield, Linda Franklin, Ingrid Norland, and Arla Collins.

Ernest Armstrong, a newcomer to Klamath Falls, presented three piano numbers, one of particular interest to the Spanish students, "Malaguena" by Lecuona.

The remainder of the evening was spent in hearing of travels to Mexico of Mrs. Dan Cashman of Merrill, who was a member of this year's Spanish class.

Mrs. Mike Petroff, also a member of the class, recently returned from Mexico. She returned through the interior rather than following the highway route, and had many interesting encounters with the Mexican people.

At the end of the program, William B. Yates, representing the Spanish class, presented the teacher, Lucile Tweed, with a pen as a token of the class' appreciation.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Amoureux, Mrs. E. S. Casey, Mrs. Dan Cashman, Lucio Montes de Oca, Dr. and Mrs. E. Dietsche, Mrs. H. H. Hadley, Mrs. Vesta Hannon, Mrs. Charles Knock, Mrs. Keith Lindsay, Mrs. Richard Maxwell, Mrs. Helen Mueller, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Ogle, Mrs. Theresa Patton, Betty O'Leary, Mrs. Mike Petroff, Mrs. W. Lakeview Scene Of Installation

Eight members of the Klamath Falls Sorority club motored to Lakeview this week to meet with the Lakeview club for installation of officers of the Lakeview club. Visiting Sororists were President Kathleen Thompson, Lillian Hillis, Clara Shaw, Ruth Adams, Gertrude Moore, Lorraine Johnson and Izola Parker.

Anne Sprague, retiring president, and her committee, were at the hotel early to meet the guests. Dinner was served at the Lakeview hotel at 6:30 o'clock. A beautiful corsage was given to each of the guests and members. The tables were attractively decorated with iris and chrome figurines. A delightful program was arranged and Clara Shaw won the high point score prize for a game of wits, and Izola Parker won the house prize. The outgoing officers were
