

American Legion Elects Dave Hoss As Commander

At the annual election of officers for American Legion Post No. 8, held Tuesday night, Dave Hoss, production manager of KFLW, and veteran of World War II, was elected commander for the fiscal year 1946-47. Other officers included Don Everitt, first vice-commander; James Ellis, second vice-commander; Tom Young, finance officer and adjutant. Members of the executive committee elected were

Fred Heilbronner, Paul Otterbein, retiring commander, Dr. M. E. Cooper, Ed McClehey, Robert Ocell and Douglas Pence. At the conclusion of election for officers, delegates for the 1946 state convention, to be held in Portland, July 15, 16, 17, were elected as follows: Dr. M. E. Cooper, Tom Young, Fred Heilbronner, Carl Schubert, Paul Otterbein, Cal Ellis, and O. D. Matthews. These men, along with Commander Hoss, will represent Klamath Falls at Portland.

Eagles Install New Officers

New officers of the Fraternal Order of Eagles were installed in a joint meeting of both officers of the aerie and the ladies' auxiliary Tuesday night, in the Waagles hall. M. L. Shephard, state vice president, and Jack Henry, chairman of the state organization board, were installing officers of the aerie, and Phyllis Stelzenmuller installed the auxiliary. This installation is held once a year on the first Tuesday in June.

The new officers for next year are Alfred Dooley, worthy president; Sid Herbert, worthy vice president; A. V. Melton, worthy chaplain; A. D. Meek, secretary; Lin Skillington, inside guard; outside guard, J. E. Shuster; Larry Blackman, conductor; Frank Olsen, treasurer; and Henry Ketsdover, I. A. Baker and C. D. Groves, trustees. Ed Burkhalter is junior past worthy president.

Officers for the ladies auxiliary are Lola Truax as madam president; Frances Herbert, madam vice president; Mary Melton, madam chaplain; Phyllis Stelzenmuller, conductor; Clara Balm, treasurer; Helen Hawthorne, inside guard; Ruby Rummelhart, outside guard; musician, Stella Perrell; and trustees, Louise Fett and Crystal Cochran. Mildred Mosby is junior past madam president.

Henry will travel to the Bend chapter of the Eagles tomorrow to help in the installation of their officers.

Rose Festival Opens Tonight

PORTLAND, June 5 (AP)—Coronation tonight of Loyde Hough, Lincoln high school senior, as Queen Loyde I, will mark official opening of the annual Portland Rose Festival.

The 58th annual rose show will open tomorrow after ceremonies in which the festival queen will confer knighthood in the realm of Rosaria on distinguished visitors. The American Rose society, with delegates from all parts of the country, opened its annual convention today.

The featured parade of floral pieces keyed to the centennial of the settlement of the American-Canadian boundary dispute, will leave the civic stadium at 10:30 a. m. Friday for a trek through downtown streets. Saturday morning the Junior Rose Festival parade will be held.

Night programs, following today's coronation, include: Thursday, horsemanship exhibition by 10 Oregon Sheriffs Poses; Friday, symphony concert with Lauritz Melchior and Ferde Grofe; Saturday, Pioneer Frolic and parade followed by street dancing.

The Golden Rose ski race Sunday shifts the final day's activities to Mount Hood where the queen's banquet will follow the race.

Fishing Boat Master In FBI Custody

PORT ANGELES, June 5 (AP)—Pending further action in a case instituted by the Portland, Ore., federal bureau of investigation office, U. S. Marshal S. Baskin took into custody the master of the fishing boat Gloria West yesterday and removed him to Seattle.

Earlier yesterday the FBI said the vessel left Portland May 23 in violation of arrest papers and Clifford McCroskey, 46, the master, would be returned to Portland to face a charge of taking the vessel to Victoria, B. C., and attempting to change its registry.

The arrest papers had been served in connection with federal court lawsuits.

Rogue River Grange Favors Sales Tax

GRANTS PASS, June 5 (AP)—A resolution favoring a three per cent sales tax for Oregon was passed unanimously last Saturday night by the Rogue River Valley grange here, largest organization of its kind in Oregon.

Exempting only a tax on foodstuffs, the grange adopted the resolution which pointed out that increasing costs of education, old age assistance, and other county and state governmental functions are borne almost entirely by a tax on property which "bears heavily and unfairly upon the owners of property."
