

Basin Potato Shipments Soar To Startling Total

Rolling beyond all estimates, Klamath basin's potato shipments for the 1945-46 season have reached the startling total of 12,002 carloads, while value has risen to $10,250,000 for the year's crop.

State-Federal Inspector Ross Aubrey reported today that May shipments hit an aggregate of 82 carloads, moving the season total over the 12,000 mark. Previous estimates had been for about 11,600 carloads for the season, and the previous value estimate had been $9,929, 672.

State Grange Chooses Bend

BAKER, June 6 (AP)—The State Grange convention resumed meetings today after setting Bend as the 1947 convention site and electing Morton Tompkins of Dayton to another two-year term as master.

The convention yesterday voted to support the proposed congressional act forming a Columbia River valley authority after scattered opposition to the resolution.

The organization refused, however, to pass a resolution proposing more federal aid to veterans seeking farms or to enter business, explaining the revised GI bill of rights had accomplished the purpose sought by the resolution.

Other officers elected yesterday were: Elmer McClure, Milwaukie, overseer; Ray Gill, Portland, and Peter Zimmerman, Yamhill, executive committee men.

high prices, plus a late season price boost, put the value up to ten and a quarter millions. Carlot shipments are now practically finished, and Aubrey was able to provide the following re-cap of the season:

| Month | Carloads |
|-----------|----------|
| August | 26 |
| September | 1347 |
| October | 2077 |
| November | 1917 |
| December | 1408 |
| January | 1785 |
| February | 1515 |
| March | 1207 |
| April | 537 |
| May | 182 |

Here are season totals for the past 10 years:

New Dairy Charges Not Effective Yet

PORTLAND, June 6 (AP)—Dairy producers and retailers were warned today new dairy products prices have not yet become effective and it is unlawful to charge the higher prices approved by the office of economic stabilization.

Andrew Trice, Oregon OPA price executive, said the OPA has only received the announcement but not the directive necessary to put the price orders in effect.

Government Makes Governors Unhappy

SALEM, June 6 (AP)—Governor Earl Snell returned to his office today after attending the national conference of state governors in Oklahoma City, asserting the governors are unhappy over federal handling of reconversion and veterans' housing.

He said the governors favored more uniform highway laws as a means of reducing accidents, and endorsed a military training program that calls for national guard training, college military training, reserve officers training, or a year in the regular army.

Park May Get New Flowers

The planting of flowers to brighten the summer landscape of Moore park was discussed at the regular meeting of the city park board Tuesday. The plan was referred to Mrs. G. A. Krause for investigation.

Also discussed and turned over to a committee for investigation was a suggestion for cleaning out rubbish around the edge of Klamath lake in front of the park. The water would be cleared of sticks, logs and other debris, according to the proposal.

Bills for the care and feeding of park animals and other incidental business terminated the meeting. The park board meets the first Tuesday of each month.

Tulelake Men Plant Celery

TULELAKE, June 6—A new venture in the commercial raising of celery has been launched by three local men and a resident of the San Francisco area. Interested in the crop are William Kandra on whose ranch it is being grown, Earl Ager, owner of Earl's market, and Bernard C. Schultz, owner of the Tulelake Boat club and Ed Roeller of the Arden Farms of San Francisco and Oakland.

Half a million plants, three inches high, will go into the 22-acre plot. Friday and Saturday 60 persons were employed placing the plants in the deep black loam. The variety is Utah green which needs no bleaching and which is largely used by markets of the west coast. Several inquiries have already been received from eastern points. Normal yield of the field should be 20 freightcar loads.

Four acres were planted Friday in 5 1/2 hours. Soil of this area was analyzed after Earl Ager became interested several months ago in the culture of celery and the analysis determined that the ground was a "natural combination" for successful growing of the crop.

The plants will be irrigated and cultivated in the same way that a potato crop is grown, irrigators using plastic tubes from the ditch to the rows. Four persons can handle the work until weeding and the expense of growing will equal that of a crop of onions.

Harvest will begin about Aug.
