Five Klamath Students To Graduate From OSC

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, June 7—Five students will represent Klamath Falls and Klamath county among 420 members of the class of 1946 who will receive their degrees at the seventy-seventh annual commencement at Oregon State college Sunday, June 9.

Those in the graduating class from Klamath Falls are George Marion Epperson, science; Patricia Sexton and Jean Wiesendanger, business and industry; Frederick Samuel Eyerly Jr., forestry; Nancy Ellen Gaylord, nursing education.

Both the baccalaureate service and the graduation exercises will be the same day, the former starting at 11 o'clock and the latter at 8. Both will be broadcast over the state station KOAC.

Women outnumber men 244 to 176 in this first postwar graduating class, which accounts for the fact that the home economics school has the largest number of graduates with 100. Other schools and degrees granting divisions have the following number of graduates receiving bachelor degrees: Business and industry, 60; science, 53; engineering, 48; education, 41; agriculture, 41; forestry, 22; nursing education, 16; pharmacy, 7.

The first doctor of philosophy degree in home economics to be granted here will go to Mrs. Suen-i Wu Chang, who will return to China to help organize extension work in homemaking. Other graduate degrees include 19 masters of science, five masters of education, one each master of arts and master of forestry, and three professional degrees in engineering.

One honorary degree of doctor of laws will be conferred on E. C. Sammons, Portland, former member of the state board of higher education and head of government bond campaigns throughout the war. He will also deliver a tribute on the commencement program to Oregon Staters who served in World War II.

Crops' Growth Called Good

PORTLAND, June 7 (AP) — Growing crops made substantial improvement in all parts of Oregon in the week ended June 4, the weather bureau's crop report said today.

Although heavy rains of more than a week ago were followed by scattered showers, the drouth in some areas was so prolonged that full recovery is not expectable, the report said.

A summary of crops:

The quality of strawberries was improved and the picking season lengthened by favorable weather.

Prospects are good for a normal crop of tree and cane fruit.

Cherry fly dusting is under way in the Salem area.

Sugar beet thinning is under way in Malheur county.

Potato planting has been completed in Deschutes and Klamath counties.

Flashes Of Life

AIR MINDED

BALTIMORE, June 7 (AP) — Joseph Zamoiski of Baltimore says he was driving his car—and fast—when a Virginia state trooper waved him down, and said sarcastically:

"Let me see your pilot's license." Zamoiski, a pilot, pulled out his airplane papers. The officer laughed, and let him go with a warning to slow down on the ground.

TIPS HIMSELF

SOUTH BEND, Ind. June 7 (AP)—One anonymous finder of a lost purse has set a charge of slightly less than one per cent on honesty.

William S. Stevens reported to police that he lost his wallet containing $230 while watching a ball game.

A little later he reported that his wallet, containing $228, was stuffed in the letter slot of his door when he arrived home.

LINEUP, PARDNER

GALLUP, N. M., June 7 (AP) Nylon has invaded the wild west and cowboy and dudes alike are forming "nylon lines" these days in this western cattle country.

Stockings don't interest them, but they're anxious to pay $12 up for a 30-foot nylon lariat, purportedly "strong enough to hang an elephant."

EXPERT HELP

SALAMANCA, N. Y., June 7 (AP) — Some passing motorists stopped to help a farmer put out a fire in his barn. They did their work so well the barn was saved as well as an adjoining house. Their efficiency was explained when the farmer found out his helpers were: Assistant Fire Chief Bernard Swanson and former Fire Chief C. J. Beatty of Jamestown, Fire Chief Donald Sales of Lakewood, and George Blackstone of Lakewood, chief of the fire department at Bard college, who were returning from a fire chief's convention.

No Bulging Biceps Mar Her Lithe Beauty

Lithe, lovely Antoinette Concello, star of the world-famous Flying Concellos, is what might be termed an aerial custom job; that is, she was built to order for flying and somersaulting in the high riggings of the big top.

Antoinette, who is Tony to the hundreds of people with the big Clyde Beatty Railroad circus coming to Klamath Falls next Wednesday, June 12th at the South Sixth and Division street grounds, has broad shoulders and strong arms, although no bulging biceps mar their beauty. From her perfect torso she tapers to her toes, and there is not an ounce of surplus flesh on her frame. She is like an arrow, so ready for flight is this charming, daring and graceful girl, and it is no wonder aerial stars the world over concede she is the greatest girl flier of them all.

The two Flying Concello troupes with the Clyde Beatty show are featured along with the world-famous Clyde Beatty himself in the gigantic performances which commence at 2:30 and 8 p. m., with the doors opening at 1:30 and 7.

Reserved seat tickets on sale Wednesday, 10 a. m. till 5 p. m. at Walgreen's, 7th and Main.

Heart Attack Kills Seattle Journalist

SEATTLE, June 7 (AP)—Carlton Fitchett, widely read and widely known veteran Post-Intelligencer reporter, died yesterday afternoon of a heart attack.

Fitchett, 60 years old, had just returned from a weekend of rest after doing a series of articles on Washington state. He had been on the newspaper's staff nearly 29 years and had worked on papers in Bremerton, Everett and Anacortes before coming here.

G.O.P. Women Meet Tonight

Klamath will be host tonight to the quarterly state board meeting of the Council of Oregon Republican Women at 8 p. m. in the Veteran's Memorial building.

These meetings are rotated among the four congressional districts of Oregon and this time it is the second district, which comprises all of Oregon east of the Cascades.

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, republican national committeewoman for Oregon and president of the Oregon Council of Republican Women, will conduct tonight's meeting.

Phil Hitchcock of Klamath Falls was speaker at a luncheon meeting in the Willard hotel today, and at a tea this afternoon in the Pelican cafe Sigfred Unander of Portland is to speak.

Unander's topic at the meeting tonight will be "The Role of Young Republicans in Present Day Affairs." All men and women interested are invited to attend tonight's session.

Seattle Murderer Convicted By Jury

SEATTLE, June 7 (AP) — In connection with the shooting of a Seattle shoe store manager last December, Richard C. Britton, 28, was found guilty of first degree murder by a superior court jury here yesterday.

The state held that Britton was guilty as a party to an attempted robbery. The man who wielded the gun which killed Clayton W. Stockberger still is at large, Prosecutor Floyd Shorett said.

Britton's younger brother, Homer, 21, was arrested with Richard in Texas and returned here. The case against him was dismissed.

Lad Drowned In Fall Off Portland Bridge

PORTLAND, June 7 (AP) — Russell Collier, 12, fell into the Willamette river while fishing from a narrow girder under the Burnside bridge and drowned late yesterday.

His brother, 14, ran for help, but efforts by a harbor patrol crew to revive the boy failed.

Interior Secretary To Visit Portland

PORTLAND, June 7 (AP)—His first trip west since appointment to the cabinet will bring Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug to Portland June 13-14.

He will confer with Bonneville officials, industrial leaders and interior department employes.

Portland Bakeries Halt State Sales

PORTLAND, June 7 (AP) — Some big bakeries are stopping upstate shipments and selling their entire output to retailers here, the department of agriculture's food distribution advisory committee reported.

Upstate communities, receiving only half the normal supply, are therefore feeling the bread shortage more sharply than Portland, which gets 75 per cent of the usual supply, the committee said.

The group, comprised of wholesale and retail dealers, went on record opposing any return to food rationing.

Injunction Saves Home For Woman

PORTLAND, June 7 (AP)—A temporary injunction has been issued to keep Ralph Sowers, Portland, from again evicting Mrs. Revetta Crecelius from a cabin on his land near Sherwood.

Federal District Judge Claude McColloch, who signed the order, instructed Sowers to appear in court Monday at a hearing on making the injunction permanent.

Mrs. Crecelius slept outdoors in the rain with her evicted belongings Tuesday night. She has now moved back into it.
