

Great Victory Procession Packs Streets Of London

LONDON, June 8 (AP)—The normal life of London came to a virtual standstill for nearly five hours today while millions of persons cheered a nine-mile-long parade of war victors representing the British empire and most of its allies.

The Victory Day observance was organized primarily to pay tribute to the contributions of every dominion and colony and to honor the Battle Brotherhood of the United Nations. The parade reached the peak of its form along the famous Mall before Buckingham palace. There the royal family, cabinet and parliamentary statesmen and other dignitaries took the salute.

Men and women of some 30 lands marched or rode past in war vehicles. At the conclusion, 300 RAF planes swept low while the crowds yelled and waved.

Among all the wartime allies, only three nations were not represented: the Soviet Union, Yugoslavia and Poland. These had notified the British government earlier that they would not send contingents. A small group of Polish airmen who had flown with the RAF appeared with Britain's flag, however.

Although the flags of those countries were not borne in the procession, they were flown conspicuously from poles along the Mall and displayed prominently on public buildings and in the streets.

Prime Minister Attlee and former Prime Minister Winston Churchill, both wearing medals, rode together in an open carriage.

First aid was given in field stations set up in the parks to hundreds of men, women and children unable to stand the strain of hours of waiting in the jam.

Senators Flay New Price Bill

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—Four members of the senate banking committee asserted today that the amended price control extension bill now ready for senate action "writes the death sentence for effective price, wage and rent stabilization."

Chairman Wagner (D-NY) was joined by Senators Downey (D-Calif.), Taylor (D-Idaho) and Mitchell (D-Wash) in a minority report. They declared the measure "would be as dangerous to the economic safety of this country as the immediate expiration of the existing laws."

Price control expires the end of this month unless congress renews it. The banking committee has completely revised the bill approved by the house. Both versions have been condemned by stabilization officials as dooming effective price control.

The minority report declared: "The issue before the congress is clear: Should the government make a fight to the finish against inflation in the next 12 months or should it surrender unconditionally and entrust the nation now to the operation of untrammelled economic forces?"

The four signers represented less than one-fourth of the 19 members of the committee.

Their report said that some persons sincerely believe that economic controls should be junked, adding: "In our judgment they heed neither the lessons of experience nor the dictates of economic law; but, however unwise, their position is at least forthright."

"They would not charge a governmental agency with the grave responsibility of protecting this country from inflation and then hamstringing that very agency by amendments which could have no other effect than to compel it to allow prices to soar."

Churches Join In Bible Class

Klamath temple and the First Christian church are joining to present their daily vacation Bible school this year beginning Monday, June 10.

Beginning and primary students will have classes at the Klamath temple where Mrs. Palmer Tupper will be the superintendent. These classes are for children, four through eight years old.

At the First Christian church Mrs. Margaret Rich will be the superintendent and will have charge of the junior and intermediate departments, which include students from nine to 15 years old.

Classes will be held from 9 a. m. to noon. Some of the features will be lessons from the Bible, memory work, handwork, picture coloring and music.

Games will be played during the recreational period on a playground at the corner of 11th and Pine.

It is anticipated that moving pictures will be taken of the groups at work and at play.

To climax the school there will be a program at the Klamath temple Friday, June 21 at 7:45 p. m. when the students will demonstrate some of the things learned in their classes.

Fire Damages Logging Camp

SYCAN CAMP, June 8 (AP)—A fire of undetermined origin Monday afternoon destroyed 15 bunkhouses and a machine shop at the Pelican Bay Logging company's Sycan camp.

Prompt action by members of the crew saved the remainder of the camp. Buildings were moved out of the path of the flames by bulldozers and tractors, and the fire was held to a small area.

The amount of equipment lost in the machine shop is unknown. According to company officials the fire lasted for some three to four hours before being completely extinguished.

State Tourist Week Inaugurated Today

PORTLAND, June 8 (AP)—Newspapers, radio stations, independent theatre operators and chambers of commerce will take part in Oregon tourist week, which starts today.

Governor Snell will give a radio talk at 7 p. m. The campaign is designed to help Oregonians learn how to welcome visitors and point out the state's assets. Communities will be urged to sponsor tourist "host" schools.

Portland Theatre To Change Hands

PORTLAND, June 8 (AP)—The Helin Land company has sold the Mayfair theatre, often used for stage productions here, to the Taylor Street corporation.

Price of the 36-year-old theatre was reported at about $350,000.

The purchasers, including Evergreen and J. J. Parker Theatre interests, said extensive remodeling is planned.

Klan Charged With Flogging

ATLANTA, June 8 (AP)—Assistant State Attorney General Dan Duke said today investigation disclosed the revived Ku Klux Klan recently had flogged a 21-year-old negro navy veteran, employee of an Atlanta hotel.

Duke, assigned by Governor Arnall to investigate the hooded order in Georgia and to seek revocation of its state charter, said the youth told him he was given 52 lashes at gun's point at a desolate spot near here the night of February 13.

CIO Woodworkers Discuss Pay Raise

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8 (AP)—CIO International Woodworkers of America representatives met here today to discuss the 5-cent-an-hour wage boost offered by Timber Products Manufacturers' association.

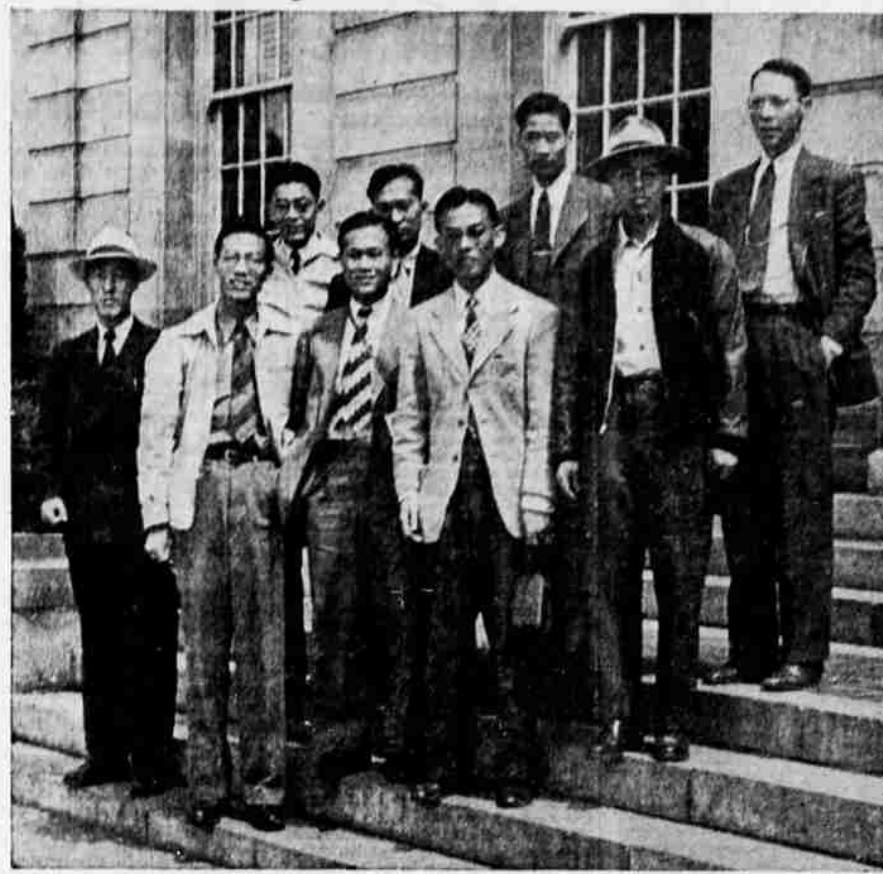

Union workers in 65 pine operations of the inland empire area would be affected. Klamath basin pine operators and fir industrialists already have agreed to the increase.

Medford Adventists To Build High School

MEDFORD, June 8 (AP)—A high school will be built here by the Seventh Day Adventist church, Mrs. C. E. Westphal, church leader, reported today.

She said the church academy near here for grade and high school pupils was overcrowded. Leonard Carpenter, Reginald Parsons, Walter Leverette and O. H. Bengtson, all of Medford, have offered to help finance the new building, she reported.

Chinese Agriculturists Tour Klamath Basin

Klamath Falls hosts this week to the above group of Chinese agricultural technicians, who spent several days inspecting reclamation projects in this area. They have been studying agricultural methods in the United States since July, 1945, and will return to their homeland next month.

Chinese Farm Technicians Inspect Basin Activities

Visiting the bureau of reclamation in the Klamath basin today is a party of ten Chinese agricultural technicians representing their country's ministry of agriculture.

The men are part of a group of 116 young Chinese who have been in the United States since July, 1945, studying agricultural and industrial methods employed in this country. They first took brush-up courses in technical methods at various institutions of higher learning. Since completion of these courses they have been observing field procedures directly. On their return to China next month they will seek to adapt United States methods to Chinese agriculture and industry.

The group touring this region is especially concerned with the different aspects of livestock production as well as irrigation and hydroelectric developments. They are accompanied by R. G. Johnson, head of the department of animal husbandry at Oregon State college, and Dr. P. S. Shearer, animal husbandry department of Iowa State college, Ames, Ia. Johnson was a member of a group of three sent by the U. S. state department which spent two years during the war at the request of the Chinese government advising in the reconstruction of China's agriculture and industry.

War Stressed Needs

While in Chungking this group saw the necessity of making available to the war suffering Chinese any modern technical methods which might be of use to them. Eighty-five per cent of China's 430 millions are directly engaged in the production of food. New lands must be put into cultivation and production increased. The group conferred with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and his advisors and devised a plan whereby promising young Chinese would be sent to the United States to study American industry and agriculture first hand. The bill for this venture was taken care of in part by lend-lease agreements and in part by direct payment from the Chinese government.

The group is making a circle trip around Oregon. From here they will go to Ontario to observe reclamation projects in the sagebrush country, particularly the water storage reservoirs and drainage developments at the Owyhee project. One of the greatest problems these men

Flashes Of Life

MADE IT

TROY, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—Joseph Villa, anxious to enter the armed forces during the war, was rejected seven times. He was called for induction four times and tried to volunteer on three occasions.

Came peace—and "greetings."

Joe left this week for service as an army draftsman.

LET THAT BE A LESSON

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 8 (AP)—Lt. B. D. Farris, head of the police department's bicycle recovery detail, is eating his own words.

It's Officer Farris who never misses an opportunity to caution his young clients about the importance of locking their bicycles. Then Farris' car was stolen.

He had left the keys in it.

Russ Relief Office Closes At Portland

PORTLAND, June 8 (AP)—After four years' operation Russian relief headquarters in Portland will close July 1, Chairman Robert H. Strong reported today.

There are 76 slaughtering and meat packing plants in Canada.

Miller Gets Big Returns From Tithes

TECUMSEH, Mich., June 8 (AP)—Perry Hayden, Quaker miller, who six years ago planted a cubic inch of his "dynamic kernels" of wheat, said today this year's final harvest will total more than 113,000,000 cubic inches.

The cumulative product of the original inch of "Biblical tithing wheat" will have a market value of more than $10,000, he predicted.

Hayden pledged a tenth of each year's crop to the church in what he called "a demonstration of the principle of tithing as taught in the Bible."

The final public harvesting ceremony is planned for Aug. 1, Hayden said, at nearby Adrian, where a ten-acre plot of wheat, descended from the original inch, has been planted in the center of the county fairgrounds racetrack here.

Because the final sowing could not be contained in any single tract of and in Michigan, the seed was distributed to 287 farmers in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and Tennessee.

Each farmer has pledged to give a tenth of the return to a church or related organization.

Hayden said that the Biblical promise of increased returns under a system of tithes is borne out in his experiment with the project.

"The normal increase of wheat in Michigan averages under 15-fold," he declared. "The first year, the increase from the original inch of 'dynamic kernels' was 50-fold; the second year, 55; the third, 16; the fourth, 27; and the fifth, 19."

MARTHA SHOPS & SHOPS

who guarantees to make your "old lawn like new" . . . ED GREENE . . . told Martha this week that he's been so busy spraying grain and onion fields on a commercial scale . . . in the south end of the county . . . that he hasn't had time for any lawn work.

But, by the end of June, he expects to have most of the field spraying finished . . . and will then again be available for complete lawn renovating . . . which includes the killing of all perennial weeds . . . using the miraculous 24D Plant Hormone.

Therefore, you can make arrangements any time now for having this work done later . . . by writing ED GREENE at Box 404, Tullake, Calif. . . . by phoning 5063 . . . or leaving word at J. W. Kerns Implement Co. . . .

Fur Storage

at RICHARDS FUR CO. . . . (formerly Cumming's Fur Shop) . . . now in the firm's new location at 129 So. 9th . . . offers completely modern facilities for prolonging the life of your furs . . . including a roomy cold storage vault that's kept constantly at the correct 40-degree temperature . . . and "gassed" at regular intervals.

This vault has been constructed on the same principle as those in the larger cities . . . and adequate insurance coverage is provided for your valuable cost.

RICHARDS is also equipped for cleaning, glazing and repairing of furs . . . so that when you're ready to take out your coat for winter wear . . . it's practically as good as new . . . instead of having collected dust and moths all summer.

Water Heaters

. . . a whole carload of them . . . has reached the CASCADE HOME FURNISHINGS CO. . . . 124 No. Fourth . . . the manager, Vern Owens, has informed Martha.

These new electric water heaters are mostly the 32-gallon size . . . but for anyone now with an inadequate supply of hot water . . . there are a few of the large family size, 66-gallon tanks . . . ready for installation . . . at CASCADE HOME FURNISHINGS.

Father's Day

gifts . . . to be presented on June the 16th . . . are being featured now by THE CAMEO SHOP . . . 737 Main . . . especially in the leather goods line that consists of such useful and appreciated items as desk sets . . . fitted or unfitted cases . . . leather-covered flasks . . . cigarette cases and tobacco pouches . . . key holders and snap-shot coin purses . . . the zipper brush set kits that come in handy for traveling . . . and a choice variety of leather wallets.

At THE CAMEO SHOP . . . where picture framing is a specialty . . . you'll find an appropriate selection of cards for father . . . to accompany his gift.

Cool Comfort

is certainly to be considered when one has to spend an hour or so under a hot dryer in the beauty shop during the summer months . . . and that's why Fern Short of the STUDIO OF BEAUTY is glad she can offer an air conditioned atmosphere for her patrons . . . making even the drying process quite comfortable.

While in the shop this week . . . Fern was telling me about a London fashion writer's report of the Paris postwar fashion showing . . . also to be held in this country . . . at which stodgy, heavy Edwardian and mid-Victorian hair styles were featured. We both agreed that the American women might gaze with interest upon these fancies . . . but that they'd never let such hairdos take the place of their own comfortable styles.

Eye-Catching . . .

to say the least . . . is the new assortment of costume jewelry that Martha saw on display while shopping at WHYTAL'S . . . such as whimsical sterling silver chatelaines . . . and unusually clever lapel pin and earring sets . . . really conversation pieces.

There's a host of new bracelets . . . from wide to narrow . . . in intriguing designs . . . with silver earrings to match, if you desire . . . as well as sparkling rhinestone bracelets . . . that look so perfect over dark gloves for evening wear.

Quaint designs are carried out on the sterling lapel pins . . . while the party earrings are . . . extremely smart.

This selection at WHYTAL'S . . . in the Medical-Dental building, Main at Ninth . . . has many bracelet charms . . . beautiful rhinestones and gold colored pins . . . and lovely pearls.

Dressmaking . . .

and alterations are now available in the new shop opened by Isabel Bono, a new resident from Beloit, Kansas . . . on the mezzanine of the Modernistic Beauty Shop . . . 915 Klamath avenue . . . to be known as THE MODERNISTIC MILLINERY AND DRESSMAKING. The telephone number is 3626.

Mrs. Jones is also operating a millinery department in connection with her new shop . . . and was fortunate in being able to obtain a fine line of summer strains . . . in dressy and casual types . . . despite her late opening. Remember the location . . . 915 Klamath.

Sun-Back Frocks

. . . like the tempters Martha saw in LaPOINTE'S . . . are assets to the summer wardrobe . . . as they double so nicely for the relaxing hours . . . or as the little jacket or the overskirt.

There's a colorful selection to choose from in the ready-to-wear department . . . linens, seersuckers, waffle weaves, sharkskins, shantung . . . but most striking, Martha thought, were the vivid jerseys with candy-striped skirts.

As for styles . . . there's practically anything you desire . . . from tailored shorts and skirts . . . halter tops . . . midriff cottons riac-trimmed . . . and the popular bolero dresses. Colors range from crisp whites and cool pastels . . . to checks, prints, stripes and bright solids . . . among these playtime frocks . . . at LaPOINTE'S . . . 507 Main.

Much Value . . .

for little money . . . is contained in the linen-crash and cotton casuals just received at LONG'S . . . making them especially desirable for this time of year. In fact, they're so inexpensive you'll probably want two.

All are designed in the easy-to-slip-on coat style . . . with fly front . . . and have either leather or basket woven belts . . . matching or contrasting.

Martha was particularly taken with the shades . . . petal pink, deep aqua, melon, vivid red, navy and black in the linen-crash dresses . . . while the neat striped cottons come in luggage, rose or gray on white . . . and they look as though they'd laundered beautifully.

Sizes run from 12 through 20 . . . in this new dress selection at LONG'S APPAREL . . . 719 Main.

Bronze Pieces

cast for western and sportsmen appeal . . . which are among the many new arrivals at YOUR STORE, Inc. . . . 721 Main . . . make an ideal Father's Day gift they're so completely manly.

This collection includes heavy bookends . . . handsome ash trays . . . bronze horses and dogs in several sizes . . . for the desk, mantle or den . . . and each subject is a veritable work of art.

SOFTOL . . . that wonderful cuticle lubricant . . . is once more obtainable at CURRIN'S . . . Martha is pleased to tell you . . . especially inasmuch as so many have asked where these new Softol sets could be found.

Each set contains a bottle of cuticle liquid and a fountain-pen-like shaper that feeds out the oily fluid onto the nail . . . "writing off" the cuticle cleanly, softly and smoothly . . . shaping and removing it without bothersome cutting.

I've found that children are eager to use the Softol shaper on their nails . . . because it's easy and fun . . . and even the menfolk like it. Of course, it's hardly necessary to mention what a convenience it is to the home manicurist.

These sets are priced at only $1.00 per, plus tax . . . at CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS . . . corner of Ninth and Main.
