WASHINGTON AND OREGON—Mostly cloudy today and tonight, becoming partly cloudy Friday. Occasional light rain in west portion today and scattered showers Friday. Cooler in west portion today and in east portion tomorrow. Moderate southwest winds off coast today, becoming northwesterly tomorrow.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA—Generally clear today and Friday but with coastal fog. Partly cloudy with a few scattered showers in mountains of extreme northern portion. Light rain along north coast tonight or early Friday morning. Cooler central interior today and over northern portion on Friday. Moderate northwesterly wind off coast.

Talk About Tourists—Matt Finnigan, chairman of the chamber of commerce tourist committee, and C. R. Stark, chamber manager, discussed the tourist business at a meeting of the Kiwanis club Thursday noon at the Willard. Finnigan said that the state expects $90,000,000 from tourist business this year, and Klamath's share should be $10,000,000. Sam Ritchey made a short talk on the "food for famine" program and a film on this subject was shown.

To Visit—Reid David, former resident of Chiloquin, will arrive in Chiloquin Sunday, June 16, to spend a week visiting his parents and friends. David was recently hired as an extra by Universal Pictures for the filming of the technicolor picture, "Canyon Passage." He will return south to attend the premier of the picture at Hollywood, where he is living at the present time.

BPW Picnic—Final meeting of the Klamath BPW club for the fiscal year will be a 6:30 o'clock picnic at Moore park on Monday evening, June 17. Those attending are asked to bring their own eating equipment, and anyone who does not have transportation is asked to contact Annis Struthers.

Building Drift Fence—Fred Reeves and Jack Nicol of Klamath Falls are working on a fence-building crew in the south Warner country near the Nevada line. They are building a drift fence for the MC ranch. In July, the Klamath youths will return to the MC headquarters place near Adel to start baying. Fred's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reeves, visited him in the high desert country last weekend.

At Funeral—Attending the funeral of James Dickson, who passed away in this city June 9, were his daughter, Mrs. D. W. Pease, and her two sons, Ronald and David, of Tacoma, Wash., and his brother, Matthew Dickson, of San Bruno, Calif. The funeral was held June 12, at 2 p. m.
