

Shriners To Gather For Fete

Space promises to be scarce in corners and sidewalks Saturday when Klamath residents will witness a parade opening the Hillah temple's 1946 springtime Shrine ceremony. The parade, scheduled to begin at the armory at 5:30 p. m., will be headed by illustrious Potentate Marshall Cornett. Completing the parade will be Hillah's drum and bugle corps, band and patrol, novices and nobility.

Registration of candidates and a short business session will officially open the ceremonial Saturday afternoon. The evening program will include the traditional Hillah banquets at the Elks club and Willard hotel to be followed by a band concert and drill at the armory at 7:30. At this time Potentate Cornett will be introduced by Past Potentate E. C. Jerome, supervisor of the Klamath Falls festivities.

Exemplifications of ritualistic work will feature the initial and third sections at 8:30 p. m. and novices will be received as nobles of Hillah temple. As a climax to the day's program a get-together and Dutch lunch will be given at the armory.

Mayor Ed Ostendorf is the general chairman for the ceremonial with Past Potentate Jerome supervising the activities. Immediate Past Potentate Sam Stinebaugh heads the membership committee.

"Little Rodeo" Big Success

LAKEVIEW, June 14 — A large crowd turned out Sunday afternoon for the 20-40 Farmers rodeo celebration at the fair grounds, and those in attendance were treated to a good show—in fact, a miniature of the annual round-up event.

Riders came from Klamath, Modoc and Lake counties to participate in the events, and there were the usual number of excellent rides, painful upsets, and the variety of thrills that are synonymous with rodeo events.

In the cowboy bronc riding event first place went to Pete Longfellow of Lakeview; Carl Morgan of Alturas won second place and third place in this event went to Bill McMillan of New Pine Creek.

Other winners were as follows: Bareback riding—Walt Leehmann Jr., Lakeview, first; Ben Vernon, Lakeview, second; Bud Travis, Lakeview, third.

Calif roping—Jack Hope, Klamath county, first; George Anderson, Klamath county, second; Bill McFarland, Klamath county, third.

Wild cow milking—Bob Fowler, Paisley, first; Bud Travis, Lakeview, second; Jack Conlan, Cedarville, third.

The all-around cowboy title was won by Bud Travis of Lakeview.

Service Club Gives Dinner

MERRILL, June 14 — At a meeting of the Merrill Service club, June 7, at the Palm cafe, representatives of the Odd Fellows, the Merrill fire department, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Loyal Order of Moose, Lost River garden club and Library club were guests of the Service club at dinner.

The purpose of the meeting was to try to formulate some satisfactory recreational program for children of all ages. The general agreement seemed to be to remodel the basement of the community hall for a teenage recreational center. Also some sort of a supervised park program will try to be worked out for the younger children.

Representatives of the different organizations were to give a report to their parent lodge or organization and try to ascertain how much in the way of funds they could donate to the project. They are invited to another meeting of the Service club June 28 at the Palm cafe at 6:30. At that time representatives from the Rebekahs, Women of the Moose and Ladies Aid are invited to attend.
