Oregon University Picks New Registrar

EUGENE, June 14 (AP)—Appointment of Curtis Edmund Avery of the University of Minnesota as University of Oregon registrar was reported today by President Harry K. Newburn.

He succeeds Dr. Earl M. Pallett, named assistant to the president. The state board of higher education has yet to confirm the appointments, which include advancement of Clifford L. Constance, assistant registrar, to associate registrar.

Avery served the past year as director of the bureau of veterans' affairs at Minnesota.
