College Girls Arrive Home

June, the month of brides, is also the month of homecoming for college girls the country over.

Local girls have been arriving in large numbers from colleges and universities during the week.

Four graduates of Stephens college in Columbia, Mo., who returned last week are Joy Kent, Maxine Liske, Margie Clark, and Phyllis Snyder. Joy, Maxine, and Margie plan to attend Oregon State college next fall, and Phyllis will go to Stanford to work for her science degree.

Another early arrival was Nancy Bennet, a student at Mills college in Oakland, who came home May 25. Nancy will work on The Herald and News for the summer months.

Already home or expected to arrive this weekend are students from the University of Oregon at Eugene. They include Eleanor Thomas, Dorothy Riggs, Shirley Mason, Mary Landry, Ann Stevenson, Sharon Willis, Barbara Hood, Joan Campbell, Barbara Kvern, Jeanne Long, Mary Lou Sexton, and Marcelyn Wiggins.

Mary Corrigan is expected home following her graduation from the university on Sunday. Betty Lombard, who will return from Eugene, Monday, will leave soon after for the east.

Returning from her second year at Oregon State are Maryellen Wright, who will be a member of the news staff of The Herald and News this summer.

Spending the weekend in Portland is Wanda Shaw, who will begin summer session at Oregon Monday.

Madeline Adler, a high school student studying music at the university arrived this week.

Oregon State college students returning this weekend from Corvallis are Karen Hardin, Patricia Benoit, Helen Howry, Betty Rhea Martin, and Jean Ostendorf.

From Whitman college are Donna Morehouse and Barbara Osborn, and Juanita Shinn is home from Pacific university at Forest Grove.

Nadine and Margie Palmerton and Jean Underwood are expected next weekend from the University of California.

Stanford students coming early next week are Peggy Keating, Marianne Lion, and Merion Albrecht. Billie Lee McAdams and Helen Hasy will return soon from Armstrong's Business college in Berkeley.

Church Rites Of Interest Here

A recent wedding of interest here was that of Helen Reynolds Campbell of Tulsa, Okla., to Charles Woodrow Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Patterson of Midland.

Rites were solemnized in the Christ the King church in Tulsa on Saturday, June 8.

Lilies, gladioli, and other white flowers decorated the church with tall white tapers at the altar.

The bride wore a gown of white faille fashioned with a scalloped sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves, and a full-length train. Her full-length illusion veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of stephanotis and gardenias with white satin ribbon.

Maid of honor was Carolyn Dunbar, and Ellen Burnside was bridesmaid. Both wore gowns of shell pink taffeta. Their tulle hats were trimmed with flowers. Each carried bouquets of blue delphinium and corn flowers.

Harry A. Campbell Jr. was best man and ushers were Johnny Campbell and L. Karlton Mosteller of Oklahoma City.

The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Patterson, were present for the ceremony. Following an extended wedding trip through the southwest and Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson will make their home in Berkeley, Calif.

Rev. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church, with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Corydon Blodgett, will go to Portland this weekend to visit another daughter and son, Mrs. James Brodigan and Kenneth Phillips.

Kenneth Phillips was recently discharged from the navy and returned to join his wife and child in that city.

Mrs. Brodigan, the former Thelma Phillips, with her husband and three children, also make their home in Portland.

Mrs. Blodgett has been residing with her parents at the family home, 1005 High, for the past two months. Her husband, S/Sgt. Corydon Blodgett, is serving in the Philippines.

Before returning home the Phillips will attend the Oregon annual Methodist conference at Seaside. They expect to be back in about 10 days.

On Wednesday evening, June 12, Vivian Whiting, bride-elect of Wayne Chase, was honored with a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. William Owens on Lakeshore Drive.

Invited guests were Miss Whiting, Mrs. L. L. Schooler, Mrs. Wayne Chase, Mrs. Beth Chase, Mrs. Marjory Lyman, Mrs. Harve Hoselton, Mrs. Blair Malloy, Mrs. W. H. Roemhildt, Bernice Britt, Mrs. Clayton Sweeney, Mrs. Harold Kosen, Mrs. Lloyd Leithhead, Ona Mae Massey, Mrs. P. W. Koberg, Mary Bellotti and Mrs. Martha Cassidy.

Elizabeth Brandsness, chairman of the foreign adoption plan, spoke briefly, asking for donations for the three French orphans adopted by the court; for information call her, phone 7770.

Games followed the business meeting and Mrs. Carrier and Mrs. Meroney received awards. Refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Mildred Smith, Rose Igl, Nora Manning and Emilie Miller. There will be only one meeting each month in June, July and August.

Catholic Daughters of America held a business meeting in the parish hall Monday, June 10, with Ellen Ely, new grand regent, presiding.

Mrs. E. K. Loosley, guest speaker, came as a representative of the Oregon Centennial association, and gave an interesting talk, asking the court to take part in the coming pageant, and the court approved this move. Clara Hoop was appointed as chairman of a committee to assist in the pageant plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton R. Ramsay announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Lou, to Mr. Ismal Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mitchell of Sutter, Calif. The wedding will take place at the St. Paul's Episcopal church in Ashland, Ore., July 17.

Miss Ramsay is a graduate of Klamath Union high school with the class of 1943.

Mrs. Malcolm Epley left this week on a trip that will take her to the east coast.

Mrs. Epley will attend a meeting of her national sorority, Alpha Omicron Pi, at Port Huron, Mich., in late June. She will be joined at Port Huron by her husband and son, John, and they will drive to New York where Mr. Epley will attend the grand lodge convention of the Elks. They will return to Klamath Falls by car.

Phillip Quisenberry, in cooperation with the famine relief committee, presented for the group a sound film titled "Famine and Famines."

Winnifred Gillen, home demonstration agent and member of the food for famine relief committee, told the club about the low calorie menus being served in countries in Europe. Mrs. Gillen mentioned that in Czechoslovakia a lunch might consist of cabbage soup and a stale crust of bread.

A motion was made and carried that the Soroptimist luncheon be served without bread during the campaign of food for famine relief.

President Kathleen Thompson presided at the meeting.

Visiting at the S. G. Clark home, 2012 Main, this week will be Ila Carlstrom of Piedmont, Calif. Miss Carlstrom was a roommate of Margie Clark's while both were attending Stephens college, Columbia, Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Liskey who attended the Rose Festival in Portland last week, were accompanied on their return to the Liskey ranch at Poe Valley by their niece and nephew, Joan and Larry Anderson.

Marjorie Ongman of this city left last week for a vacation trip by plane to Juneau, Alaska. She was joined in Portland by a friend who will accompany her. They will return from Alaska by boat.

Entertaining at the Benson hotel for a group of local people who were present for the Portland Rose Festival were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz.

Group Attends Ashland Banquet

Twenty-one guests from Klamath Falls attended the installation banquet of the Soroptimist club at the Women's Civic center, Ashland, Ore., on Wednesday, June 12. Eighteen were members of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist club, and two were members of the Venture club.

The Soroptimists present were Doris Peyton, Olive Cornett, Pauline Gilmore, Clara Shaw, Coral Sabo, Rose Poole, Olive Mason, Margaret Wherland, Lorraine Johnson, Blanche Lundy, Lillian Hillis, Beulah Ray, Ida Odell, Catherine Brumbaugh, Gertrude Moore, Kathleen Thompson, Izola Parker, and Alice Howard.

Mary Trulove, president, with Frances Balen, president elect, represented the Venture club. A former resident of Klamath Falls, Laura Bertram, now of Oakland, Calif., also attended the installation. Mrs. Bertram was the first president of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist club.

Eta Cuning, director of the northwest region of Soroptimist clubs, was present to personally greet the Ashland members and present the charter. Mrs. Cuning congratulated the Klamath Falls members for their efforts in bringing about the organization of this new club. Much credit is due Coral Sabo, extension chairman.

The banquet was held at 7 o'clock. Roses and other seasonal flowers were used to attractively decorate the club room and dinner tables. President Kathleen Thompson presided. The program opened with group singing of the national anthem, and pledge to the flag. The invocation was offered by The Rev. E. P. Borden. Mayor T. S. Wiley offered greetings, and Ida Odell, of the Klamath Falls club, gave the response. Suzanne LaMarre and Donn Huffman, students of Catherine Huffman, a member of the Ashland club, presented vocal solos.

Rose Poole, of the Klamath Falls club was in charge of the installation of officers. She was assisted by Gertrude Moore, Doris Peyton, Mildred Wherland, Alice Howard, and Catherine Brumbaugh. The installed officers of the Ashland club were president, Verna Weitzel; vice president, Margaret Ramsey; recording secretary, Phoebe Green; corresponding secretary, Jeanette Smith; treasurer, Blanche Huffman.

Dr. Elmo N. Stevenson, president of the Southern Oregon college, gave the address. Dr. Stevenson suggested several projects to the club for consideration when choosing a community project.

A beautiful silk American flag with a standard was given to the Ashland club by the Klamath Falls club. The presentation was made by Alice Howard.

Greetings to the club were summarized by Izola Parker. They included six telegrams, two cards, and twenty-six letters. Among the greetings was a clever card from a newly organized club in Quakertown, Pa., with the message, "From one infant to another." The greetings came from clubs in eleven states, two cities in Canada, and Fairbanks, Alaska.

Each member presented a gift to Mrs. Thomas Roberts who plans to leave soon for Redwood City.
