Please wait for "Dial Tone" before you dial your number

Sometimes, these days, you may not hear the steady "hum-m-m" of the Dial Tone the moment you lift the receiver.

This usually means the equipment is temporarily overloaded. In that case, wait a few seconds until you do hear the Dial Tone and then dial your number.

If you try to dial before the humming "go-ahead" signal, you will get a wrong number or no number at all... and it will be necessary to dial the number over again.

These occasional delays occur because more people are making more calls than ever before, which sometimes overloads our facilities. We are working full speed on the equipment needed to take care of all waiting applicants, and to provide better service than ever before for all users.

Until then, if there should be a slight delay, please wait for the Dial Tone. Thank you.
