River Guides To Try Snake

EUGENE, June 20 (AP)— Three members of the McKenzie River Guides' association, considered the best white-water boatmen in the west, left here today for Eagle Bar, near Homestead and east of Baker, to navigate a party of U. S. coast and geodetic survey men through the turbulant waters of the Snake river.

Leading the party is Ed Thurston, veteran of many river runs, including the Snake, Salmon, Middle Fork of the Salmon, Deschutes, Crooked river, the Rogue and his own famed McKenzie. Other boatmen who will handle the lightweight plywood crafts on the 125-mile jaunt through the deep Snake canyon will be Carroll Adams and Everett Spaulding.

The toughest part of the trip is expected to be Hell's canyon, believed to be deeper than Grand Canyon, and sprinkled with adventurous waters. Thurston last navigated the Snake four years ago with a party that included Ken Taylor and Fred Mountain of Eugene, he said he had lost a boat on that trip, but only because the empty craft broke loose.

Flashes Of Life

NEIGHBORS

HILLSIDE, Pa., June 20 (AP)— The housing shortage is pretty serious here, asserts F. W. Gordon; even the birds are doubling up.

Gordon said a robin, apparently pressed for a building site, constructed her nest on top of a wren box, laid her eggs and is now engaged in hatching them. The mother wren, with a brood of babies on the first floor, seems undisturbed.

Poe Valley

Chet Barton, Melvin Feigiard, and Mr. Freat returned from Portland last week where they attended th Rose Festival.

Warren Roberts, Albee Roberts and John Nork attended a movie in Klamath Falls Saturday.

Among those who attended the grange meeting at Henley were the High, Sullivan, Reiling and Breighthaupt families.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breighthaupt and children returned home from Fort Lewis Friday after Mr. Breighthaupt was discharged from the army.

Zella High was a caller at the home of her sister Zetta Sullivan Thursday.

George Davis and Leslie Pruitt visited with relatives and friends while transacting business here.

Mrs. Victor Nork and children left for Klamath Falls Wednesday after spending a few days in the valley.

Mrs. Joe Nork returned Wednesday from Glendale, where she visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Meglauon. On her way home she also visited with friends in Talent and Ashland.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, June 20 (AP)—A few transactions were made in oats at the ceiling level today as the grain trade awaited outcome of the controversy surrounding the OPA. Activity in the cash market also was at a reduced level, with only 15,000 bushels of corn and 20,000 bushels of oats purchased for future delivery in morning trade.

Movement of wheat was expanding, although not much was available to trade interests. Reports to dealers said that in southwestern Kansas and Oklahoma many storage houses were glutted and cannot accept more wheat until improvement in the box car shortage permits outward movement of present stocks.

Final prices were $1.46⅛ for corn, $1.35⅛ for barley and 88 cents for oats. There were trades in September, November and December oats contracts.
