

A LOVELY JUNE BRIDE was Letty Lenore Linman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Linman of Klamath Falls. She became the bride of Richard Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hicks, also of this city, on Sunday, June 16, in a ceremony read at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Rites Solemnized At St. Paul's

A lovely June wedding was that of Letty Lenore Linman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Linman of this city, who exchanged vows with Richard Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hicks, also of Klamath Falls, on Sunday afternoon, June 16.

The ceremony was read in St. Paul's Episcopal church at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach.

Palms, white gladioli, stock, and light blue delphiniums were used throughout the church which was lighted with tall white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and net with a trim of white satin leaves and seed pearls, with a full-length train. Her long veil fell from a crown of net and orange blossoms.

Her arm bouquet was of a single white orchid with gardenias and white satin streamers.

Her maid of honor was Josephine Thornton, attired in a gown of pink net. Her old-fashioned nosegay was of rosebuds, carnations and spring flowers.

Bridesmaids were Dorothy Riggs, Mrs. Douglas Ernst, and Mary Helen Morrison. The three wore gowns of light blue net and carried nosegays of rosebuds and delphiniums.

Best man was Jerry Hicks, brother of the bridegroom, who was home on leave from naval service in San Diego, Calif.

Ushers were George Proctor, William McMullen and John Linman, brother of the bride.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Samuel A. Mushet. Fred Ross sang "When Song is Sweet."

A reception in the parish house followed the ceremony. Pouring was Mrs. DeLos Mills and Mrs. Charles Van Doren.

Mrs. Carol Howe served, assisted by Betty Rhea Martin and Naomi Kinsley. Louise Linman, sister of the bride, was in charge of the bride's book.

Following a two-week wedding trip that will take them to the Oregon caves, Yosemite park, Carmel, and Los Angeles, they will return to this city where they will make their home until fall when they plan to return to Oregon State college at Corvallis.

Out of town guests present for the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Caster of Medford, Alice Day of Medford, and Mary Helen Morrison of Portland who was a college roommate of the bride's.

Mrs. Hicks was graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1944 and attended Oregon State college at Corvallis following her high school graduation.

Mr. Hicks was recently discharged from the navy. He also is a former student of Klamath Union high school and Oregon State college.

Joyce Pinelli Weds Saturday

The Klamath Lutheran church was the scene of the wedding of Joyce Pinelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Pinelli of this city, to Warner Fett, son of Mrs. Louise Fett also of Klamath Falls, and the late Hugo Fett, on Saturday, June 15.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white satin with a net insert. Her veil was of fingertip length. Gardenias and white carnations formed her arm bouquet.

Maid of honor was the twin sister of the bride, June Pinelli. The bridesmaid was a sister, Frances Cain. They wore gowns of pink lace with net, and carried colonial bouquets of mixed flowers. Nancy Derrah, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Best man was Frank Barnett Jr. Ushers were Freddie Battis, Herbert Fett, and H. Derrah.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the Pelican party room. Serving was Mrs. Arlene Derrah, and Mrs. William Burnett poured, assisted by Bette Champagne and Mrs. John Rizzo.

The couple left this week for a brief wedding trip to Portland. For going away the bride wore a brown plaid suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Upon their return they will reside at the White Pine apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Fett were honored with a dinner Sunday evening which was attended by 40 guests.

Attending were Cathryn Ann, guest of honor, Carol Ann Bienn, Charmion Bienn, Christina Anderson, Nancy Drew, Beverly and Tommy Lassett, Michael Dickson, and Betty Shaw.

Soroptimist Club Installs Officers

The Pelican party room was the setting for the installation luncheon of the Soroptimist club on Thursday. The incoming officers are president, Gertrude Moore; first vice president, Margaret Wherland; second vice president, Lillian Hillis; recording secretary, Izola Parker; corresponding secretary, Ruth Hattan; treasurer, Suzanne Hamilton; directors, Kathleen Thompson, Ruth Adams and Sylvia McClelland. The installation officer was Lillian Hillis, assisted by Clara Shaw, Gertrude Moore, Mildred Boukup and Coral Sabo.

The retiring president, Kathleen Thompson, installed the president, Gertrude Moore, and presented her with the beautiful Soroptimist emblem. After addressing the group she turned the gavel over to Mrs. Moore. Catherine Brumbaugh then presented the retiring president with the diamond gavel, insignia of the past president.

Mrs. Thompson is completing a very full and successful year in the history of the club, and she expressed her gratitude to committees and members who had worked and cooperated with her in a brief talk.

The remainder of the luncheon hour was taken up with the reading messages from Soroptimists in Holland who have been sent parcels by the local club. One particularly descriptive and interesting letter was read by Rita Whisenant. It was from a family who had received some clothing and food, and told how enthusiastic they all were over the articles sent and that they were distributed to those needing clothing and help, and mentioned how particularly happy they were to receive the friendly notes that went with the packages from American Soroptimists.
