Announcement

CHILOQUIN — Chiloquin friends have received the announcement of the marriage of Joyce to Leslie Franklin which was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 19, in the Methodist church of Reedsport. Joyce is a graduate of the Chiloquin schools and several of her former classmates attended the wedding. The groom is the son of a prominent physician of Reedsport.

Mrs. Lang Giles and Violet Morande were among those from Chiloquin attending the wedding.

In 1929, there were 551 bank failures in the United States; in 1930, there were 1345.

Stella, June 16, was a big day for Gerry Scarbrough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hale Scarbrough of this city. Gerry was just one year old on that day.

Recent Wedding

Of interest here was a recent ceremony read in Anchorage, Alaska, when Mary Barger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Daniels of Klamath Falls became the bride of Marvin Kupers of Anchorage.

Rites were solemnized on Monday, June 3. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Justine Bridgers, formerly of Klamath Falls.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Kupers will make their home in Anchorage.

Mrs. F. W. Hickey of Ohio was visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lombard, on 1693 Del Moro. Betty Lombard, her sister, has returned with her to Ohio for a short visit.

Lodge

A regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge was held in the IOOF hall Thursday evening, June 20, with Ada Willits, noble grand, presiding. A feature of the entertainment which followed the business meeting was a pageant, "Friendship's Trail," presented by the officers and members of the degree staff. Harriet Estes, degree captain, as "The Stranger" was escorted through the trail by Berenice McCracken and at the conclusion of the floral ceremony a gift from the group. Ora Sweet presented a gift from the group to Ada Willits, noble grand.

After the meeting Elizabeth Ramsby, chairman of the refreshment committee, invited the members into the banquet room where refreshments were served. The table was lighted by white candles surrounding mirror pools, and red roses formed the three links, symbol of the IOOF and the Rebekahs. There will be no meeting on July 4.

Business Meeting Held Monday

A regular business meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft was held in the KC hall Monday, June 17, at 8 p. m. The application of Betty Patterson for transfer from Dunsuir to Ewauna 647 was approved, and Aurelia and Paul Patterson were transferred to the Juveniles. After the business meeting bingo was played, with awards going to Rosalie Kuykendall and Effie Redkey. The next business meeting will be followed by a hard-times party.

Lt. and Mrs. James Barlow are spending a two-week vacation visiting Mrs. Barlow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pierce. They came here from Langley field, Va., where Lt. Barlow was stationed. He will report for duty with the army air corps at Sacramento when they leave Klamath Falls.

The new residents are invited to visit the library every Monday night between the hours of 7 and 8. The library will be closed the week of July 4th.

Homemakers Slate Restful Vacation

Any homemaker in Klamath county who is interested in a vacation away from house duties and children should plan to attend the Jackson-Klamath county homemakers' vacation camp at the Lake O' the Woods July 17 to 21. This camp stresses rest and interesting activities for anyone who is 18 years of age or older and should prove a real vacation for mothers.

Days will be filled with sleep, music, nature lore, hand crafts, swimming, hiking and dramatic work. Women planning to attend the camp should contact Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen, county home demonstration agent, in the post office.
