

Rites Solemnized Sunday Afternoon

TULELAKE — Before an altar banked with white gladioli, white stock and palms complimented by lighted white tapers, Phyllis Mae Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Snyder became the bride of Aurel Keith Hanchett. The groom is the son of Mrs. Tom Newton of Brookings, Oregon.

The double ring ceremony was read at three o'clock, Sunday afternoon, June 16 in the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church by Rev. Hugh L. Bronson.

Preceding the ceremony, Conrad Schultz of Santa Ana, a former resident of Tulelake, sang "Through the Years" and immediately following the vows, "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. E. Webb Staunton, accompanist, also played the wedding marches.

Pews for members of the family and intimate friends were marked with clusters of white gladioli and white satin ribbon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long gown of white slipper satin made with tight bodice, long sleeves and full train. Her veil of illusion net was caught beneath a Juliet cap and she carried a white Rainbow Bible and a single orchid in recognition of her former office of worthy advisor in the Tulelake assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

Pat Kirksey, a cousin of the bride, in a floor length blue frock, wore a shoulder veil held by a halo of pink carnations.

Blanche Capurro, classmate of the bride from the University of Nevada, at Reno, Angeline Galloway of Tulelake, and Margie Larson of Sacramento were the bridesmaids. All wore similar frocks, Miss Capurro and Miss Galloway in pink and Miss Larson in blue. All wore halos of carnations and carried Rainbow Bibles with carnation trim.

Bonnie Jean Bell, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bell, Klamath Falls, and Lucy Ellen Blickestaff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, nieces of the groom, in pastel shaded frocks, were flower girls.

The best man was Cloyd Laughlin, and ushers were Herman Turnbaugh, French E. Johnson Jr., and Gregory Brooks all of Tulelake.

A reception in the church annex followed the ceremony with the bride and groom cutting the first piece of the four-tiered, pink rose-encircled wedding cake. Posing were Mrs. Harriet McGuire and Lavina Ramelli, both of Reno. As the guests assembled Alice Doyie, a Delta Delta Delta sister of the bride, sang "Bells of St. Mary's" and the Tri-Delta song, "Sail Away," with Mrs. Staunton at the piano. Wedding gifts were displayed during the reception.

For traveling the new Mrs. Hanchett wore a navy ensemble with white accessories and the orchid from her Bible at the shoulder.

Mrs. Snyder, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding, a maize dressmaker suit with light blue hat. Mrs. Newton wore a two-piece navy ensemble with pink trim and a blue hat. Both wore pink rosebud corsages.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanchett will make their home following their wedding trip south on the ranch owned by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Newton. The bride has been a student at the University of Nevada and the groom has been discharged after long service with the marine corps in the Pacific.

Out of town relatives and guests here for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burrows, Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Christenson and daughter Carolyn, Salem, Ore.; Mrs. E. E. Storkman, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Snyder and son Wallace, Sherwood, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Capurro and daughter Blanche, Reno; Gloria Haley, Merrie Jo Harp, Billie Kennedy, Susanville; Carl Regino, Reno; Mrs. Harriet McGuire, Lavina Ramelli and Alice Doyle, Reno.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Newton, Brookings; Mrs. Lucy McKay, grandmother of the groom, Oberlin, Kas., and Jack Love, cousin of the groom, Oberlin; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bell, Talent, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Almo Newton, Harbor, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cheyne, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. England, all of Klamath Falls.

Sunday Rites

On Sunday, June 23, Gilda Gay McLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Loomis of 2123 Darrow, and Pfc. Lewis Neldon Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Morris of Klamath Falls, were married in the parsonage of the First Baptist church with the Rev. C. C. Brown reading the service. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Slaughter.

The bride chose for her wedding a lime-green tailored suit with black hat and accessories, and her corsage was of rust-colored roses and gardenias. Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Morris left for a short trip by automobile, on Thursday he is to leave for Ft. Lawton, Wash., and then to his home station in Japan. He has been in the service for several months, most of this time in the Pacific zone.

On Saturday afternoon, June 15, Gurnelle McCullough of Rome, Ga., became the bride of Glen D. Jones of Klamath Falls.

The ceremony was read at five o'clock in the First Baptist church by the Rev. Cecil C. Brown.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of turquoise print jersey with a single white orchid at her shoulder. She was given in marriage by her brother, Hal L. McCullough of Richmond, Calif.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dorothea Hamilton who wore a black print dress with a shoulder corsage of baby yellow orchids.

Best man was Charles O'Conner. Mrs. E. E. Hambright played "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning," and Sheldon Russell sang, "Always."

A reception followed at the home of Mrs. Ted Shoop of 330 N. 2nd, where the bride and groom cut their wedding cake. Serving were Mrs. Shoop and Mrs. Hal McCullough.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones spent a brief wedding trip in San Francisco, and are now at home at 122 Hillside.

Senior Circle Meets Friday

Owing to the absence of the president and vice president, there was no business transacted at the meeting of the Senior Circle of the Community Congregational church, held in the social hall on Garden last Friday. The hostesses, Mrs. H. S. Stone and Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, served dessert and the afternoon was spent socially, with seven members present.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Social Evening

Members of the Townsend club met Tuesday evening, June 18, in the KC hall for a business meeting followed by a social evening and cards, with awards going to Alta Randall, Elizabeth Kellison and Howard Corbett.
