Today's Newsie

KENNETH SMITH

Kenneth Smith, who carries Route 30 in the 6th and 7th street district, will end one and one-half years' service with The Herald and News on July 1. Kenneth thinks he needs a vacation and the circulation department is releasing him with regret. Mrs. Elder may now have visitors for a brief time. Bob Elder, now Jackson county juvenile officer and a former member of the Klamath Falls police department, has returned to his home in Medford.

State Encampment—All members of Pelican post 1383, Veterans of Foreign Wars, who are planning to spend some time in Corvallis for the state encampment, June 29, 30, July 1, 2 and 3, are reminded to have their credentials. If members do not have them as yet, they should contact E. V. Zell, post commander at telephone 6984. If some members arrange to go unexpectedly, arrangements may be made by contacting Zell there.

Good Deed—Sidney G. Budden, Wonder Valley ranch, and Michael D. Corcoran, Marine Barracks, helped a couple of damsels in distress last Sunday. The car of the young ladies became mired in the mud on the Old Fort road Sunday morning and all their efforts were of no avail until Budden and Corcoran came to their assistance with a Cietrac caterpillar and pulled the heavy car back up the road to firmer ground.

Returned—Walter F. Bethune Jr., apprentice seaman, returned this week from Miami university, Oxford, O., and is visiting his parents at their home, 923 Washington, until the end of July when he will go as a civilian to Oregon State college for the second semester of summer session there under the V-5 program.

Visiting Here—Mrs. Vina Leaf of Syracuse, N. Y., is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Laura Overeem of 714 Uerlings. Mrs. Leaf may spend the summer here.

Visit Home—Mrs. O. L. Daniels, Pine street, plans to leave this Saturday for a visit to her former home in Grand Rapids, Minn. She will be gone about a month.

Marriage License—Application for a marriage license was made in Spokane today, Thursday, by Adrian LaRue Strader of Klamath Falls and Edna Oveda Helseth of Spokane.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, the messages of sympathy and the beautiful floral offerings during the illness and death of our dearly beloved mother and grandmother, Theodocia Earnest Shattuck. Mr. and Mrs. Obil Shattuck, Clara M. Collman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Collman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collman, Mr. and Mrs. Obil Collman, Cpl. Robert L. Collman, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby W. James, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Shattuck, Darrell Shattuck.

Leaving Tuesday—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr., 2036 LeRoy, with their daughter, Mary, will leave next Tuesday by motor for Pennsylvania where they plan to spend the remainder of the summer months. Mary was recently discharged after several years service with the WAVES, her last duty at Seattle. Loney is director of music education in the city schools.

Visitors—Mrs. Robert Elder of Medford, formerly of this city, is showing improvement at Hillside hospital where she recently underwent major surgery. Mrs. Elder may now have visitors for a brief time. Bob Elder, now Jackson county juvenile officer and a former member of the Klamath Falls police department, has returned to his home in Medford.

In Hospital—Bert Rohu of Hal's sport shop underwent a major operation at the Hillside hospital yesterday.

New Inspector—Walter Salisbury began work as the new city building inspector at the city hall, replacing Gus Johnson who resigned some weeks ago. Johnson plans to go to Harrison lodge on Upper Klamath lake, which he and Mrs. Johnson operate.

To Reunion—Mrs. Frank E. Peyton and sons, Dale and Gene, are leaving Saturday for a family reunion in Yakima, Wash. They will return to their home on Pacific Terrace in a week.

Improving—Nathan Wright, Klamath Indian who had severe knife injuries in a stabbing which occurred at Chiloquin late last week, is reported improving at Hillside hospital.

Meet Slated—Members of the Democratic club are urged to meet Friday at 8 p. m. in the justice court, Veterans Memorial building.

Job—The Centennial committee is looking for an office manager for the next two months who will be able to meet the public and handle centennial business. It will be a paid position and will provide full-time work for July and August. Applicants should see Charles Stark of the chamber of commerce.
