

Bible Baptists Will Show 'God Of Creation' Movie

Vivid full-color scenes from astronomy and natural science are featured in "The God of Creation," sound motion picture to be shown at 8 p. m., Sunday, June 30, in the Bible Baptist church, 2244 Ward.

Produced in the west coast laboratory of Moody Bible institute by Irwin A. Moon, S.C.D., "The God of Creation" is the second in a series of evangelistic films. The first film by Dr. Moon was "They Live Forever."

In the opening section of the movie the audience takes a trip to the stars by means of solar photographs taken through the giant 100-inch telescope of Mt. Wilson observatory in southern California, and views complex gyrations of our own solar system.

Lapse-time photography is utilized to demonstrate the beauties of natural science. The illusion of flower buds developing into full-blown blossoms in a few seconds is created through this time-compressing photo technique. The development of a caterpillar through the various stages from worm to butterfly and pollination of flowers are seen on the screen in full color.

Believed to be the first of their kind are the natural color pictures of photosynthesis, the mysterious food manufacturing process resulting from the action of sunlight on green leaves.

Through photomicrography the audience peers into the microscopic world of a drop of water and observes the complexity of tiny organisms, enlarged more than a million times.

Lutherans Will Hear Topness

"God Calling Yet," will be the subject of the sermon at the morning worship at Klamath Lutheran church, with the Rev. S. M. Topness, pastor. The senior choir, under the direction of O. K. Warcup, will sing the anthem "How Excellent is Thy Name," by Uggem. The entire service will be broadcast over station KFLW.

The Young Peoples' Luther league will meet at the church at 2:30 p. m. and from there will go to Moore park for an outing. Each should bring his own lunch.

A two weeks' term of Vacation Bible school will begin at the church Monday, July 1. Sessions will be held from 9 to 11:30 a. m., with no school on July 4. Volunteer teachers will be in charge. There will be Bible and catechism study, hymn singing, handwork, junior choir, and visual education by means of colored slides and filmstrips. Children five years and older are invited to come.

Vets Swarm To Colleges

PORTLAND, June 28 (AP)—Oregon's higher educational institutions, bombarded with more applications than they have seats, will have to turn down hundreds of prospective fall-term students.

The competition, which used to be among colleges, has shifted to students—afraid they won't get into any school at all. Many are veterans.

Although requirements for out-of-state students were raised at both the University of Oregon and Oregon State college, the registrar at Eugene said some within-state applicants may be disappointed this fall.

A capacity enrollment of 5000—1200 over the previous high—is expected at the University of Oregon. Oregon State officials lamented the school is short of classroom space as well as housing. They predicted 6000 students, compared with the record 4227.

Willamette Filled

Applications for 1947 are being taken at Willamette university, where fall rolls already are full. The registrar at Portland university said it is filled, too, and 500 men probably will be turned away before the term starts.

Reed college boosted its admission requirements—like many others—but nevertheless has too many applications. An entrance examination will help weed out applicants at Lewis and Clark college, Linfield and Pacific colleges are reserving a few places for superior students; otherwise they're full.

Those who are really determined to go to college next fall, however, may still have a chance at the Oregon colleges of education or at the new Vanport extension college in Portland, educators said.

Monday night until September 1. All children are invited to participate in the games which are under the supervision of Sheldon Russell. Approximately 40 children were in attendance last Monday night.

Hymn Service Due On Sunday

A short hymn service instead of the regular worship service will be held in the Community Congregational church Sunday, June 30, at 10 a. m. This change was necessary as the scheduled speaker finds it impossible to give the address on that day. Mrs. George W. Hillis is in charge of the music.

Members and adherents are reminded that the service begins at 10 a. m. during the absence of the Rev. Godfrey Matthews, who is on a vacation.

Services the next two Sundays, July 7 and 15, will be conducted by the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., of the Presbyterian church.

Russians Quiz U. S. Writers

WARSAW, June 27 (delayed) (AP)—Russian secret police questioned and delayed two American correspondents for five hours this week at Poznan, suspicious that one was a Russian deserter because of his command of the language.

The reporters were John Scott of Time and Life magazines and Elie Abel of the North American Newspaper Alliance. They were traveling from Berlin to Warsaw in a jeep when accosted by a policeman armed with a tommygun, and taken back to Poznan.

Scott, fluent in Russian after four years' assignment in Moscow, said two Russian secret police accused them of failing to complete formalities of crossing the border.

The reporters were released after the officers had conferred with superiors in Warsaw and after two attaches of the U. S. embassy intervened. Scott said the Russians were "very polite" and that both were his dinner guests last night.

Feed Promise Called Empty

CORVALLIS, June 28 (AP)—P. M. Brandt of Oregon State college told the Oregon Baby Chick association at its annual meeting here that most of the relief feed slated for Oregon is still "paper promises."

The state had received only 40 cars of grain, with 30 more on the way, by June 25, he reported. Feed dealers had ordered 494 carloads, 194 for up-state points.

Fred Cockerell, Milwaukie poultryman, accused the government of hoarding grain in terminal warehouses and elevators. Terminals in Portland, Vancouver and Longview were bursting with 1,668,127 bushels of wheat on June 25, he said, and foreign exports of wheat from the ports totaled 23,718,966 bushels during the present crop year. But while Oregon needed a million bushels for feed, it got only 50,000 bushels, he declared.

The association named F. E. Fox, Corvallis, president; G. W. Avery, Tualatin, vice president; George Gray, Corvallis, secretary-treasurer; Howard Hughes, Hillsboro, Kelly Comstock, Portland, and Gordon Boyington, Hood River, directors. P. A. Gent, Eugene, and Don Anchors, Grants Pass, are hold-over directors.

State Passes Big Road Plan

PORTLAND, June 28 (AP)—A $6,000,000 state highway program for the next three years—part of a $58,000,000 state-and-federal plan—had the approval of the state highway commission today.

Only exceptions in the commission's action yesterday were a few projects awaiting agreements with other agencies before fund allocation.

Projects included in the program: widening the Oregon City-Canby section of the Pacific highway at $413,000; bridging the Willamette river at Independence, $300,000; resurfacing 12 miles of the Willamette highway, $200,000; improving the Klamath Falls highway entrance, $350,000.

A contract to move a section of the Willamette highway for construction of the Meridian dam was signed by the commission. The army engineers will bear the cost.

After service in the Antioch Baptist church in Portland, he returned to Klamath Falls in 1935 to become pastor of this church.
