

Evening Rites Read Saturday

MT. LAKE—The Presbyterian church in Klamath Falls was the scene of an impressive wedding ceremony, Saturday evening, June 22, at seven o'clock when Dorothy Ruth Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon of Henley, became the bride of Ernest Herbert Hills III of Burlingame, Calif.

The double ring ceremony was read in the presence of 70 relatives and friends by the Rev. Hugh Bronson of Tulelake, Calif., before the altar flanked on either side with bouquets of white gladioli and white stock, palms and white tapers. Pink roses, rhododendrons and greenery were arranged elsewhere.

Mrs. Veatch at the pipe organ played a number of old favorite love songs before the traditional wedding marches.

Proceeding the ceremony, Carl Hagel sang "Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Veatch at the pipe organ.

The tapers were lighted by the ushers, Harold Dixon, brother of the bride, and Arthur Benoit of Burlingame, Calif.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. Percy Dixon. She was dressed in an elegant embroidered floor-length dress with elbow length white jersey gloves and a veil held with a halo headress. She carried a white prayer book with a single white orchid and streamers of ribbon.

The flower girl, little Jeanie Hill, niece of the bride, was dressed in a floor length dress made of the same material as the bride's gown. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and blue delphiniums.

The bridesmaid, Marcille Reynolds, chose a green formal of marquisette with elbow length gloves and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and blue delphiniums.

Earl Schmidt Jr., of Burlingame, Calif., was the best man. For something old, the bride had the white prayer book; for something new, her dress; something borrowed, the wedding veil, and something blue, a garter.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Percy Dixon, chose a frock of blue and wore a corsage of a gardenia and American Beauty roses, while the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. E. H. Hills II, chose a black two-piece ensemble and wore a gardenia and American Beauty rose corsage.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the parents and sister of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hills II, and Miss Jeanie Hills of Burlingame, Calif.; Mrs. E. H. Hills I, grandmother of the groom, from San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bacon and sons, Starkey and William, also from San Francisco, and Arthur Benoit and Earl Schmidt from Burlingame, Calif.

A reception was held at the church parlor. The bride and groom cut the three-tiered cake, which was served by Mrs. Merrill Bond and Mrs. Ronald Whitlatch, sisters of the bride.

The wedding cake, which was made by the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. E. H. Hills I, from an old family recipe, was cut, wrapped and served by Jeanie Hills and Eris Fleming, cousin of the bride.

The punch bowl was in charge of Mrs. Ralph Hill, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Richard Fleming, aunt of the bride. The bride chose a royal blue suit with white accessories and white orchid for going-away.

The newlyweds left for Crater lake Saturday night and will go on to the coast for a two-week honeymoon. They will make their home at Burlingame, Calif.

The bride recently was graduated from the University of Oregon at Eugene.

The groom, who served four years with the navy, graduated from San Mateo junior college last week.

Entertained

MERRILL—Members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their families of Merrill enjoyed real western hospitality when Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevenson Sr. entertained at their beautiful Meiss ranch home at Macdoel, Sunday, June 23. Some of the guests enjoyed horseback riding, others played croquet, bridge and pinocle, and still others were taken on a tour of the ranch in a jeep.

A potluck picnic lunch was served at noon and dinner later in the evening.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hamilton and Wesley, M. E. Normile, F. N. Hedrick, Carl Lindburg, Mrs. Tommie Cole, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bubb and Janice, of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. George Hancock, Eugene Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bowman, Raymond Silver, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fotheringham, Mr. and Mrs. Eber Kilpatrick and Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis and Aiden, Mr. and Mrs. William Jinnette, Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. Florence Ogle, Karl Jinnette, Rev. Kenneth Brown, Donald Harris, Marion Carson, Gene Mitchell, Harold Porterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Goeckner, Mr. and Mrs. H. Noakes and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevenson Jr., and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevenson Sr.

Brides' Pageant Given Tuesday

A unique program, "Brides of Yesterday," a wedding gown pageant, was presented by the Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid in the church parlor, Tuesday evening, June 25 at 8 o'clock.

The chapel platform was decorated with palms, baskets of garden flowers, and tall white tapers.

Nancy Derrah, in a long, pale pink gown with bonnet to match carried a long white taper with which she lighted the candles. Rev. S. M. Topness read the scripture and offered a prayer.

Special music preceding the procession of brides consisted of two violin numbers, "Because" and "At Dawning" played by Mrs. Lewis C. Hornby, accompanied by Mrs. John O'Connor, a vocal solo, "I Love You Truly," by Mrs. F. W. Delvea, and a vocal duet, "O Perfect Love," by Mrs. Delyea and Mrs. J. R. Peebler, accompanied by Mrs. F. E. Wilkes on the piano.

Virginia Oberg and Goldie Olson, attired in pale blue, floor-length gowns and carrying bouquets of pink roses, acted as bridesmaids for the group. Patricia Iensee was the flower girl. She wore a pale pink gown and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Gerald Ongman, ring-bearer, was dressed in a white suit and carried a pillow of white satin.

The altar, with attendants grouped on either side, formed the background for the modeling of the wedding gowns. Each bride came down the center aisle to the Lohengrin wedding march played by Mrs. F. E. Wilkes, and paused on the stage while a brief story of the gown was read by Mrs. Arthur Breitenstein. The gowns of the following brides, 1913 to 1945, were modeled by the owner or by others.

Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, modeled by her daughter, Eleanor Thomas. This gown has also been worn by another daughter, Mary Thomas Smith. Mrs. Oscar L. Solle, modeled by Mrs. Palmer Solle; Mrs. S. M. Topness; Mrs. Elton Thompson, modeled by Mrs. Howard J. Nelson; Mrs. Dewey Braaten; Mrs. C. W. Murdoch; Mrs. Sverre Munson; Mrs. Kenneth Samson, modeled by Mrs. Ronald Olson; Mrs. Lawrence K. Ellison; Mrs. Clinton Meyer; Mrs. Clifton Ongman; Mrs. Joseph Russell; Mrs. L. Russell Hickey; Mrs. Russell Toyen; Mrs. Hoyt Jim Harell and Mrs. Albert Lammert, modeled by her sister, Mrs. Charles Mattox.

After the program refreshments were served from a tea table covered with a lace cloth, tall pink tapers, and a centerpiece of white carnations and pink roses.

MARTHA SHOPS & SHOPS

Playtime Togs ...

It isn't hard to achieve that cover girl prettiness in play togs this season ... not when you can pick and choose from the wide selection of sportswear featured at WHYTAL'S.

Let me describe a few of the "gems" I oh-ed and ah-ed about yesterday ... you'll see what I mean.

One fetching ... and timely, too ... midriff dress is of sailcloth handscreen printed with ruffled figure and with a ruffle of the same material running diagonally across the skirt.

Another midriff number is also handscreen printed with huge flying seagulls ... it has a gathered waistband ... and a ribbon around the middle. In several bewitching color combinations.

Another topsleeved midriff ... on the same order as those I've mentioned ... has a jabot ruffle on its top ... and ruffled pockets. The companion shorts are tailored ... pleated in front and back.

And pedal pushers! ... lots of 'em in fact. One three-piece suit of rayon shantung is topped with a classically designed shirt ... with a skirt which buttons down the front ... and pedal pushers which reach just about the kneecap. This suit comes in white ... lime ... or kelly green.

"Moh" and "moh" pedal pushers ... part wools in checks, plaids, and plain colors ... A gabardine pair complete with a rayon jersey print blouse ... the pockets of the pedal pushers each have a large design cut from the blouse material applied on them.

Notice those shorty dresses pictured in Life magazine not long ago? Well, WHYTAL'S has some ... with matching panties.

Besides ... you'll find that Whytal's has ragis of other shorts, playuits, and midriff outfits ... All of which take to outdoor playing like the proverbial duck to water.

WHYTAL'S ... corner of Main and Ninth streets.

Shadow Boxes ...

wallshelves ... and wall brackets occupied my ART AND GIFT SHOP prowling time this week. And they're all guaranteed to add that certain "something" to a dull corner ... or a hard-to-please wall space.

I saw shadow boxes in all shapes, sizes and several different kinds of wood ... mahogany ... walnut ... maple ... and our own Ponderosa pine. Mrs. Kieruff showed me a light shadow box ... with shelves and background aflame with Chinese red lacquer. In it she had placed a dainty Oriental figurine holding a sprig of trailing ivy ... it was a striking arrangement!

The wall shelves also come in a variety of glossy woods ... some with novel lattice effects on the sides. All splendidly constructed.

As for the wall brackets ... they're well made of composition wood ... in several designs. Some are painted an attractive off-white and others are gilded.

Telling you about these makes Martha feel she's done her good deed for the day ... in suggesting a solution to that ever-perplexing problem of what to give the bride.

The ART AND GIFT SHOP ... 519 Main.

Any girl can let the actress in her hold sway and make the beach or back yard her stage in this summer's play clothes, which, after four years of breath-taking brevity, bow again to picturesque femininity.

There are crisp Ben Gee Chow Mein noodles (which by the way make an excellent basis for chicken or turkey dressing) ... Ben Gee Bean Sprouts ... Chun King Chop Suey or Chow Mein vegetables.

Less Chinese but still with a far eastern twang ... are cans of soy beans prepared with tomato sauce and Proteins, (strictly vegetarian stuff). Or, picnickers take note! ... Soy Mince sandwich spread.

P. S. ... Martha also noticed that the shelves at the PINE STREET MARKET also contained a stock of C & S pure orange jelly ... a stranger in our midst, indeed!

The PINE STREET MARKET is on the corner of Pine and Seventh streets ... Remember that customers now have the convenience of four deliveries daily.

Old Lawns

take on the appearance of new ... under the expert hands of ED GREENE ... who guarantees to kill out all perennial weeds ... like dandelions, plantain, ground ivy, creeping charley ... using 24D Plant Hormone.

So, if you're interested in a complete lawn renovation or tree spraying ... call MR. GREENE at Tulelake 2013 or write Tulelake Box 404 ... for work after the Fourth.

"Jigger" Coats!

for casual wear ... or as an ideal summer evening wrap ... can be seen at WHYTAL'S ... Martha believes that a "Jigger" coat would add zest to any gal's wardrobe.

Fully cut of rayon gabardine ... these "Jigger" coats belong to the three-quarter length coat family.

And they're a dashing addition to the ranks, too ... with their full push-up sleeves ... roomy pockets ... and gold nail head trim over the shoulders.

"Jigger" coats come in go-with-everything shades ... white and beige.

WHYTAL'S is located on the first floor of the Medical-Dental building ... Main at Ninth.

Because tea imports from China, Formosa and Japan, the principal sources of green and oolong teas, are slow in returning to pre-war volume, this summer will again be almost entirely a black tea season.

Glamour, That Is!

It's Martha's guess that the local lake resorts are going to be swimming with white-bath suits and playuits this summer ... if the selection of this type of garb now showing at LAPOINTE'S indicates anything!

The suits I saw are all designed to give a maximum of figure flattery ... For examples ... the outfits with matching beach coats ... Corded rayon shorts appliqued with a lively posy in one corner ... rayon jersey bra ... a suit of cotton slubbing ... one piece with an almost scalloped neckline ... The coat has push-up three-quarter length sleeves. Martha liked the pink and black combination.

Another one-piece lovely ... of printed material ... has a ruffle around its neckline and around the hem of its skirt. The coat is also be-ruflled. Very swimmable ... and comes in several color combinations ... I wish I could give you a thumbnail sketch of dozens of these suits ... but no can do. You'll find sarong suits (ooo, la, la!) wrap around ... suits made to look like boys' swim trunks in gay tropical prints ... sweet seersucker and chintz outfits ... cottons ... plouies ...

Be careful! ... You'll succumb, too ... when you see these playuits at LAPOINTE'S ... 307 Main Street.

Tussy Colognes

are on sale at CURRIN'S this week at half price! And Connie Baert was telling me that this is the first time since before the war that Tussy has offered its colognes at a special price.

And it's a well-timed sale, I think ... it's no trade secret that one of the fastest ways to cool off during a blistering day is to splash yourself with a light cologne!

The "flavors" affected by this sale include the delicate, airy "Mountain Laurel" ... the ever popular "Ginger Spice" ... reminiscent of the aroma which accompanies the impish removal of the lid from Grandma's cookie jar ... and "Early Iris" (Martha's favorite, incidentally) ... which somehow captures the feel of the mountain country hereabouts.

All of these are lovely scents ... and such refreshers! The dollar size is selling at 50 cents, and the two-dollar size for $1.00. (Plus federal tax). Right now you can afford to take a bath in them ... literally!

CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS ... the friendly drug store ... is located on the corner of Main and Ninth streets.

Eggs are plentiful, wasteless, excellent food. Use them often to help save food needed by famine-threatened areas.

For Menu Variety!

why not try serving some of the Chinese foods Martha noticed at the PINE STREET MARKET the other day? 'Twould certainly be a quick way to liven up your family's bill of fare! Chop, Chop. You'll find ingredients for many an epicurean delight ... including the well-known chop suey and chow mein.

There are crisp Ben Gee Chow Mein noodles (which by the way make an excellent basis for chicken or turkey dressing) ... Ben Gee Bean Sprouts ... Chun King Chop Suey or Chow Mein vegetables.

Less Chinese but still with a far eastern twang ... are cans of soy beans prepared with tomato sauce and Proteins, (strictly vegetarian stuff). Or, picnickers take note! ... Soy Mince sandwich spread.

P. S. ... Martha also noticed that the shelves at the PINE STREET MARKET also contained a stock of C & S pure orange jelly ... a stranger in our midst, indeed!

Problem Nails ...

A good manicurist ... Fern Short of the STUDIO OF BEAUTY says ... must know the hands of her customer in order to give a successful manicure. She must know what type of work those hands have engaged in ... what kind of material they've met.

For instance paper, dye customer handles paper, dye, chalk, does a lot of sewing, or has her hands in water a great deal ... a deteriorative effect on the condition of her cuticle can easily result. (At this point, Martha cagily, I hope, slid her typewriter-abused paws into her pockets).

To recondition the hands to look beautiful and healthy ... individualized care is required. Home care is important, of course ... but a series of professional manicures will do wonders!

Fern added that ... in general ... nails and hands will behave well ... if treated well. Don't forget that the STUDIO OF BEAUTY will be closed over the holidays ... July 4th, 5th and 6th. It's on the mezzanine floor of the Medical-Dental building ... you know.

Indian Jewelry ... hand-fashioned of sterling silver by Indians in Mexico caught my eye at YOUR STORE ... There are bracelets ... rings ... earrings galore ... most of them skillfully set with turquoise.

You eager-for-charm-uns will find lots of intriguing charms ... all of them imbued with the spirit of the Old West. Many of these are intricately and minutely set with turquoise, too. Look for the gun totin' buckaroos on the bronzes ... elaborate saddles ... skulls ... arrowheads ... and other "yip-pen" items.

This silver jewelry also comes sized to fit and please the small fry ... at YOUR STORE, Inc. ... 721 Main.

Fourth Holiday Remember, pub-leeze, that the MODERNISTIC BEAUTY SALON, 915 Klamath avenue, will be closed July 4th, 5th and 6th ... so that the gals there can enter into the Fourth of July fun making, too.
