

42 Scholars End Summer Class Term

Summer school came to a close today as 42 students ended the six weeks' course offered by the high school to reach their respective grade levels. The school, starting May 27, was originally scheduled to end July 5, but students voted to attend school on Memorial Day in order not to have to come back after the July 4 holiday.

A maximum of two subjects was offered during the summer course, with students being from 9 to 10:30 and from 10:30 to 12 noon in the morning only. Students late for school were required to make up the work they had missed.

Eight seniors finished the summer school, and those graduating met in the principal's office at 11:30 today to receive their diplomas. These students were given blank diplomas during commencement exercises May 23 at the high school. A few graduates, still lacking credits, are taking correspondence courses.

Those seniors who finished the school are Ben DeVore, Marilyn Bruce, Pat Wilkins, Marion Baker, Geraldine Knodel, Malcolm VanMeter, Jack Larson and Orville James.

Troops Oust Trieste Reds

TRIESTE, July 3 (AP)—American and British troops and Yugoslav Civilian Guard ousted the possession of communist party headquarters in the strongly leftist San Giacomo workers' district of Trieste today.

The building was thoroughly searched for weapons, but only stones were found. Allied troops mounted on armored cars and Bren gun carriers maintained a ring of steel around both the San Giacomo district and Garibaldi square, scenes of mob violence earlier this week.

Col. J. C. Smuts, Trieste area commander, announced the occupation of communist headquarters. After the initial search, only British troops were stationed there.

The situation in Trieste and surrounding area continued tense, partly aggravated by reports from Paris that Venezia Giulia would be severed from Italy. The general strike of 200,000 workers, called at noon today because of rioting, had eased somewhat today. A few street cars were in use, but port operations remained at a standstill. Two persons were killed and 60 injured in the riots.

Col. Alfred C. Bowman, of Los Angeles, head of the allied military government here, denied reports abroad that Yugoslav trucks were running recklessly through the streets. He said that almost all attacks which have occurred thus far were by Italians against Yugoslavs or their property.

Individual entries in the juvenile, stunt and mounted sections of the parade. The parade will get under way at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, starting from Spring, near the armory, and proceed down Main to 2nd, then over to Klamath and back to the disbanding grounds.

Pat Ivory, parade director, has requested that all entrants in the best dressed cowboy and cowboy contest report to Lou Serruya at the marshalling ground prior to the parade. There will be four prizes awarded in this section, two for the best dressed fancy man and woman and two for the best working outfit.

The rodeo will start promptly at 1:30 daily with the grand entry of the queen and her escorts and all contestants in the show. A special feature of July 4 and 7, is the centennial presentation at 1:15 p. m. in the arena.

Highways Draw Holiday Throng

Officers urged careful driving over the holiday and especially warned against traffic hazards coming home Sunday night.

"Tired drivers should be more than careful as they hit the highway on the homeward trek," state police warned. "Let's keep the record clear in Klamath county as we did over Memorial Day weekend."

Hopeful Klamath residents started lining up at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday in front of the Oregon state liquor store in an attempt to get bottled holiday cheer for the Fourth of July. The lineup started from the store on 5th and stretched around the corner to Main by the time the store opened at noon. Men and women, lined two and three deep, made this one of the largest crowds which had flocked to the local store during the past few weeks. Liquor went a little further than usual as a double supply was placed on the shelves.

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 3 (AP)—Willard H. Boyd, 22 of Riddle was killed at that place Tuesday when struck by a rolling log while working in a piling plant. A world-war veteran, he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Boyd of Riddle, four brothers and five sisters.

Cordon Wants To Quiz Goats

ABOARD USS APPALACHIAN, July 3 (AP)—Senator Guy Cordon (R-Ore.) said today he would have a far better idea of the test "if only I could talk to one of those goats I saw on the decks of the bombed ships. I was impressed that much wood on the target ships was scarcely charred while nearby metals were burned and twisted."

Service Club Holds Meeting

MERRILL, July 3—Members of the Merrill Service club held their second dinner meeting at the Palm cafe on Friday, June 28, with representatives present from the organizations in Merrill. The purpose of the meeting was to decide definitely on a program of recreation and a suitable recreation building, for the Merrill community.

Bob Drago reported that after consulting with Sheldon Brumbaugh, Klamath Falls architect and Mr. Alexander, engineer, they found it inadvisable to undertake any plan for remodeling of the Merrill community hall. It was then decided to build a new building at the Merrill city park.

W. H. Homes, president of the Service club named Bob Drago general chairman of the building committee. Representatives of the various organizations expressed their enthusiasm over this plan, and it was agreed to proceed immediately to formulate plans for a temporary program in the community hall. Women of the Moose, as well as other organizations and individuals indicated their willingness to furnish volunteer supervision for afternoon play of the smaller children and evening entertainment for teen-agers.

Soviets Stake 'Curzon' Line

BIALYSTOK, Poland, July 2 (Delayed) (AP)—Russian soldiers drove stakes along the eastern Polish frontier today, indicating permanent establishment of the Curzon line as the frontier. Russian and Polish commissioners have made minor rectifications of the line in a five-kilometer area.

A tally of ballots in the Sunday referendum indicated that some voters of Bialystok province had expressed resentment over cession of Lwow and Wilno to Russia under the territorial change.

An authoritative informant who cannot be quoted by name said 90 per cent of those who voted in Bialystok balloted against the government-sponsored proposal for a one-house parliament and that 73 to 80 per cent voted non-approval of the provisional regime's acts nationalizing basic industries and establishing agrarian changes.

Realty Men To Organize Rent Board

None reported in Klamath Falls yet—are just asking for a return of OPA, the realtors agreed.

Ralph Howard, manager of Big Basin Lumber company, today is sending a telegram signed by the majority of retail lumber and building materials dealers in this area to senate and house leaders pledging that they will hold prices at present levels, and saying that "unfettered production will do more to bring prices down than all the edicts of a confused bureaucracy and will lead at the same time give us the materials to build America's homes."

The telegram urges continued fight against OPA.

Meeting yesterday afternoon, local retailers went on record as determined to hold price lines. After a general discussion of announcements made by realtors in larger cities, the group, representing a broad cross-section of Klamath Falls business men, adopted a motion stating that "it is the purpose and object of the Klamath Merchants association to continue on the same price basis as in the past."

A survey of downtown stores yesterday and today demonstrated that merchants are holding to June 30 OPA ceiling prices.

Mysterious Landing Made By Red Plane

FRANKFURT, Germany, July 1 (AP)—American officers said today a Russian-type liaison plane made a mysterious landing deep in the U. S. occupation zone, Monday and that its two occupants fled into nearby woods. A search for the two was reported under way.

Local Woman Enters Hospital At Yreka

Mrs. W. Crandall, 215 Eldorado, was taken to Yreka Tuesday by the merchant's police ambulance where she will enter the hospital for treatment. Mrs. Crandall received a spinal injury several months ago when a chair collapsed with her at a BPW banquet at the Willard hotel. Her condition still remains very critical.

Her son, Russell Crandall, is with the California Power company in Yreka.

Hogue Accepts Airport Terms

Cliff Hogue, air transportation agent at the municipal airfield, has paid a six month fee of $75 to operate one plane at the field for charter work, and has agreed to pay the city five per cent of his gross income.

Hogue paid the fee and agreed to the terms under protest, he says, and states that he is taking under the license because he has no other recourse at the moment.

If the operators at the field should decide to move, says Hogue, he will go with them as he feels it impossible to operate under present conditions, or he will sell his equipment.

Hogue has ceased his sales of Cessna planes, and will refer any pending business to the Portland dealers. The ship he has licensed is a five-place Waco, and will be used for charter flights.

Republic Born In Philippines

MANILA, Thursday, July 4 (AP)—War-torn but free, the Philippine islands became a republic this Fourth of July.

A dependency of the United States since the Spanish-American war, the islands gain their independence through the Tydings-McDuffie act after a 10-year interim period as a commonwealth.

Today was a day of ceremonies and wild rejoicing.

General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, who led the liberation of the islands from the Japanese, was the honor guest. Representatives of more than 50 countries were on hand.

Manuel Roxas was to be sworn in as the first president. The United States, which has guided the economic and political life of the Filipinos for almost 50 years, will shepherd the islands through the first years as a republic. American funds and trade bills will guarantee economic stability for a quarter of a century, and help the Filipinos overcome her great war damage.

Under the Bell bill the islands are given free trade with the United States for eight years, and preferential treatment for 20 years thereafter. Then, year by year, tariffs are to be increased gradually until a full levy is reached.

Some $620,000,000 is earmarked for Philippine rehabilitation.
