First Federal Models Homes

The first of 12 model homes, part of a complete building service featuring the "best home design of the month," went on display in the windows of the First Federal Savings and Loan association at Sixth and Main street today.

The model homes, which are exact model size replicas of modern homes, are complete with all blueprints and specifications. This service, to feature a new home each month for the next year, is brought to prospective home builders by Big Basin Lumber company, Swan Lake Moulding company and Home Lumber and Supply company. It is a Weyerhaeuser 4-Square Home Building service.

Arriving Tonight—Wanda Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw of 805 Pacific Terrace, is expected to arrive home tonight to spend the Fourth of July holidays. She is a student at the University of Oregon, attending summer session at Eugene. She will return early next week.

Expected Home—Marcelyn Wiggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wiggins of 820 Eldorado, is expected home for the Fourth of July. She is attending the University of Oregon summer session at Eugene.

Return—Mrs. W. D. Miller and son Dee and Mrs. Ruth Cashion returned Monday night from Bend, where they spent several days visiting with Mrs. Miller's relatives and seeing the Klamath Falls group off to Cove in eastern Oregon.

Returns—David F. Barnett, minister of the First Presbyterian church, will be back next Sunday after a month-long vacation to southern California where he visited relatives. Barnett left the latter part of May on his vacation.

Leaves—Hugh Morgan of New Orleans, La., left Klamath Falls for San Francisco Tuesday evening. He has been visiting for the past week with his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Killmeyer of 1937 Oregon.

Manager

Alvin E. Oines, recently named manager of Montgomery Ward's Klamath Falls store, arrived here Monday to take over his new duties. This is Oines' first permanent assignment since release from the service. He served four years with the army air corps.

Visiting—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hornby and son Dickie are visiting with friends and relatives in northern Idaho this week. They left Sunday, June 31, and will return July 7.

Bellanca Plane To Be On View

A new four-place Bellanca airplane will visit the Klamath airport today and tomorrow for demonstration purposes.

The ship, flown by ex-Klamathite Chet Stinson, is being brought to the airfield by Allan Moccabee of the Oregon Aircraft Service, agent for Bellanca in Klamath Falls.

The new ship is powered with a 150 horsepower engine, has a cruising speed of about 150 miles per hour and is equipped with flaps and a retractable landing gear. The ship will leave Portland at 10 o'clock this morning, reaching the field at noon.

Camp Fire Girls—All Camp Fire Girls who wish to march in the Fourth of July parade will meet in service uniforms Thursday at 8:45 a. m. at 415 Walnut.

Eagles Auxiliary—The Eagles auxiliary drum corps and drill team are asked to meet at 9 a. m. Thursday at FOE hall. Uniforms will be worn.

Discharged—George Long, son of Mrs. E. M. Long of 615 N. 8th, has been discharged from the navy after a year in service.

Shopping—Mrs. David Bridge of Tulelake was a recent shopper in Klamath Falls.
