

Altrua Members Work On Project

Altrua class of the First Methodist church has been busy on projects for the isolation hospital for its last three meetings. The first of the series was held in April at the home of Mrs. J. R. McLellan, 719 Alameda, and at this meeting the name was changed from Junior Matrons to Altrua, a name suggested by Mrs. Paul Deller, meaning "unselfish and thoughtful of others." Following the business meeting the evening was spent in making cartoon and joke books for older children.

The meeting of May 7 was at the home of Mrs. Carol Poole of 5459 Walton drive and there was a large attendance. Clothes were made for dolls, and later in the evening Mrs. Poole served a decorated birthday cake in honor of those members whose birthdays fall during May. They were Norma Uerlings, Marian Barker, Mae Herndon, Esther Deller and the hostess, Margaret Poole. The guest of honor was Mrs. J. E. Bartruss of Salem, the mother of Mrs. Poole.

The third meeting was held in June at the home of Mrs. Eldred Putnam, 2555 Wantland. Stuffed dolls were made for the enjoyment of tiny patients and the rest of the evening was spent in playing games, with awards going to Mrs. Wendall Smith, Mrs. M. H. Melcher, Mrs. P. Rozendal, Mrs. Victor Phillips, Mrs. M. Barker, Mrs. W. Herndon, Mrs. B. Patterson and Maude Witherspoon.

It was planned to hold a potluck dinner at the church July 1 and after that the group will not meet again until September.

Women's Club

LANGELL VALLEY — The Langell Valley Women's club met with Violet Harris and Mae Gale on Saturday, June 27. The meeting was conducted by the president, Nettie Davis.
