Court To Hear GI Bride Case

SEATTLE, July 6 (AP) — The case of a German-Japanese bride of an ex-soldier from Portland, threatened with deportation to Japan, has been taken to federal court here by the husband, John A. Bouiss.

Bouiss obtained a show cause order from Judge Lloyd L. Black yesterday, citing the Seattle immigration director to show cause Monday why the bride should not be freed from detention.

She has been held for two months under an immigration board of appeals ruling that she is ineligible for citizenship because she is half Japanese.

Bouiss, who met her in Japan and married her aboard ship on the way to the United States, contends that she is entitled to free entry as the wife of an American citizen.

The former Mrs. Helene Emilie Wilson, she worked as an interpreter for the American army in Japan.

She was divorced from a Swedish husband and has a 16-year-old daughter by that marriage in Japan.

Price Of Fish At New High

SEATTLE, July 6 (AP)—Halibut prices to fishermen reached a new post-OPA high here yesterday. Salmon prices, which jumped sharply with end of price controls, continued well above the old ceilings.

Four halibut schooners brought a total of 188,000 pounds of fish here yesterday. Opening bids were 21 cents a pound for medium halibut and 19 cents for large and small, but prices advanced to 28 3/8 and 23 cents. The OPA ceilings were 17½ and 16 cents.

Fishermen got 38 to 38¾ cents a pound for red salmon and 31 cents for white and silver, compared with OPA ceilings averaging 18 cents. The top salmon price has held around 38 cents since soon after ceilings were removed.
