

SOCIETY

By Edna Killmeyer

Mary Landry Weds In Church Rites

In a setting of tall, lighted tapers, white stock, gladioli and palms, Mary Louise Landry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Landry of 331 Pacific Terrace, became the bride of William Louis Wasmann of Honesdale, Pa., at 12:30, Sunday afternoon, June 30.

Rites were solemnized by the Rev. Father Timothy P. Casey in Sacred Heart church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white marquisette fashioned with a high round neck, long full sleeves, tight at the wrist, and inserts of lace. Her illusion net finger tip veil was held in place by a starched cap of white lace.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white daisies. For something old and something borrowed she wore a gold figured ring which belonged to Mr. Wasmann's grandmother. Tiny blue bows on her slippers were the something blue, and her gown was something new. Following tradition she had in her slipper a New Zealand six pence for good fortune.

Her only attendant was her sister, Ruth Landry, who wore a floor-length gown of pink taffeta and net with a matching net halo in her hair. She carried an arm bouquet of white daisies and blue delphinium. Best man was Marvin Lucas Jr., and ushers were George Proctor, Paul Fairclough, Richard Beane and Keith Wairath. Carl Hagel sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus."

A reception at the Pelican party room followed the ceremony. After Mr. and Mrs. Wasmann cut their decorated wedding cake, the confection was served by Mrs. Robert Riggs and Mrs. Carl Hagel. At the punch bowl were Nancy Bennet, Jean Ostendorf, Jean Goerling of Monterey and Virginia Bratfish of Medford. Presiding at the coffee urn were Wanda Monian of Santa Barbara and Mrs. Ed Ostendorf. Dorothy Riggs, who assisted the bride in preparation for the ceremony also took charge of the guest book. Assisting about the rooms were Virginia Turnbow, Mrs. Warren Bennet and Mrs. A. R. Wilson.

Out of town guests were Wanda Monian of Santa Barbara, aunt of the bride, Jean Goerling of Monterey, cousin of the bride, Virginia Bratfish of Medford, one of the bride's sorority sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hallin of Eugene with whom the groom made his home while attending college, and their son, Charles, and Lynn Thompson of Eugene, a college friend of the groom.

Soon after the reception, the young couple left on a wedding trip which will take them to Pennsylvania where they will visit the bridegroom's parents, who were unable to attend the wedding. They will be gone from four to six weeks. For traveling Mrs. Wasmann chose a gray dress of light wool with matching accessories and a single orchid at her shoulder.

They will make their home in Klamath Falls upon their return from the east until fall when they will go to Eugene to continue studies at the University of Oregon.

The bride, the daughter of a prominent Klamath Falls family, is a graduate of Klamath Union high school, and will be a senior student at the University of Oregon this fall. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

Mr. Wasmann was discharged from the marine corps last fall after being stationed at the Marine Barracks, following long overseas service. He entered the university last fall.

Flight Camp

Maxine Liskey of Klamath Falls was one of 26 aviation students attending the first summer flight camp for women at Stephens college in Columbia, Mo.

Miss Liskey was graduated from Stephens in May. She is working for her commercial pilot's license during the six-week session which started June 2 and will end July 13. The camp is being conducted at the aviation campus adjacent to the municipal airport and is making use of the Stephens college hangars and facilities.

Miss Liskey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Liskey of 1945 Auburn.

Mrs. John Takacs and daughters, Margaret Ann and Jonelle, Mr. Richard Moore and two children, Carol and Richard, all of Tulelake, and Mrs. Howard Dixon and two children, Michael and Mary Lacey, were guests of Joy E. Rolph and daughter Loralee, at a lawn picnic at their home on High street, following the Fourth of July parade on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Orrell Sr. entertained their four sons and families at dinner Saturday evening before their son Jack left with his family for La Grande where he has purchased a business.

Sloats Plan For Trip To Manila

July is a big month this year for Mrs. James Sloat and her two sons, James Jr., six years old, and Gordon, 15 months. Sometime this month they expect to sail for the Philippine Islands to join Lt. Col. James Sloat who is stationed there with the army engineers. The last time Mrs. Sloat and young James saw him was in December of 1944, and Col. Sloat has yet to see his younger son for the first time.

Col. Sloat has been overseas for nearly four years serving during that time in the China-Burma-India theater, Europe and now the Philippine Islands. He was stationed in Texas for six months in 1944, and his family joined him at that time.

Mrs. Sloat has made her home with her father, H. S. Cunningham of 520 N. 8th, while her husband has been overseas.

The Sloats will sail for Manila from San Francisco on the first ship for service families. They will sail via regular passage and not the limited passage of those who have gone before.

Mrs. Sloat expects to be in Manila only a short time before going to Japan. Her husband's unit is slated to leave for Japan before long.

As far as she knows Mrs. Sloat is the only service wife in the northwest to leave on the first boat for Manila. All her household furnishings have been shipped, and she will be permitted to take the family car with her when she leaves. Each person is allowed two suitcases with 700 pounds to be stored in the hold, which will be made available upon their arrival.

Vows Exchanged In Evening Nuptials

Exchanging vows at Sacred Heart church on Saturday evening, June 22, were Patricia Mae McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne S. McClellan of 919 High, and George G. Demetras, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Demetras, also of this city.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Father John Phalen of Sacred Heart. Forming a setting for the rites were arrangements of white gladioli, double stock and tall tapers.

The bride was attired in a white georgette skirt and satin and a full train. Her veil was of finger tip length caught in ruffled sweetheart cap at her hair.

Her bouquet was of white shattered carnations centered with a single orchid. For jewelry she wore a diamond necklace which her mother wore at her wedding. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Helen Lesmeister, attired in a long gown of yellow net with a matching half hat. Anita Carnini and Mrs. Cornelius Olivera, sister of the groom, were maids of honor, wearing gowns of blue lace with matching half hats. The bride's attendants carried identical bouquets of white carnations and blue delphinium.

De Robin was best man, and ushers were Bob Burke and James Demetras, brother of the groom.

Before the ceremony Mary Mahoney sang "Ave Maria."

The nuptials were followed by a reception at the Pelican party room, Mr. and Mrs. Demetras cut the first piece of their four-tiered wedding cake, which was served by Mrs. James Robinson and Mrs. S. A. Valentine. In charge of the guest book were Mrs. Otis Gray, sister of the bride. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Victor Bark and S. A. Valentine.

Out of town guests present for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, Arthur Valentine, aunt and uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Sage all of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Dotson of Eugene, uncle and aunt of the bride, Mrs. Orville Newton, Mrs. Cease McCurdy, and Mrs. Cince Finley of Coquille, Mrs. John Mather and Doris Lewis of Vallejo, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Frink, sister and brother-in-law of the groom, from Ohio.

The young couple left on a three-week wedding trip to Lake Tahoe. For traveling, the bride wore a suit of dove gray with white accessories and an orchid at her lapel.

They will make their home in Klamath Falls.

NEWS OF THE ENGAGEMENT of Barbara King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks, was told at a party Friday evening, June 28. Barbara will wed Bill Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wilson. The date has not yet been set.

Engagement Told At Friday Party

One of the nicest summer affairs was a party on Friday evening, June 28, when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Bill Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wilson, also of this city. The wedding date has not yet been set.

The party was held at the Marks home, 2105 Auburn. Guests were presented with miniature menus, telling of the engagement. The refreshment table was centered with a white cake, decorated with pink rosebuds and the names of the young couple. Bowls of pink carnations and tall white tapers carried out the color scheme of pink and white.

Present were Miss King, Mrs. A. F. Petersteiner, Mrs. William Baustien, Helen Hasy, Billie Lee McAdams, Marge Wheeler of Portland, Lucille Pura of Berkeley, Beverly Zamsky, Sharon Willits, Donna Burke, Mrs. Perry Wilson and Mrs. Frank Marks.

Miss King is a graduate of Klamath Union high school, and is home for the summer from Oregon State college at Corvallis. She will enter her sophomore year this fall. She is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority at OSC.

Mr. Wilson is also a graduate of Klamath Union high school, and is serving in the army air corps, stationed at Lowry field, Colo. He has been home on furlough and will report back on July 12.

AT THE RECEPTION following their wedding, are Mr. and Mrs. George Demetras. Mrs. Demetras, before her marriage, was Patricia Mae McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne S. McClellan of this city. The ceremony was read at Sacred Heart church on Saturday, June 22.

Tuesday Wedding

Julia Reginato, formerly of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Robert Smick of Castroville, Calif., Tuesday, June 23 in an afternoon ceremony read at Our Lady of Refuge church in Castroville. Julia is the daughter of Mrs. Emma Robero, also of Castroville.

The bride, given in the marriage by her father, wore a white marquisette gown trimmed with lace. A finger-tip veil was held in place by a Lady Margaret tiara. She carried a white prayer book with pink roses and streamers.

Josephine Reginato of Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue marquisette with matching veil and a blue Juliet cap. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and blue delphinium.

Lt. John Smick, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held at the community hall, after which the young couple left for a wedding trip to Clear Lake, Calif. They will make their home in Castroville.

Friday Shower

Mrs. James Sloat was honored with a handkerchief shower given by Mrs. Carl Hagel of 210 Cook on Friday, June 28.

Mrs. Sloat expects to leave in the near future for Manila to join her husband, Lt. Col. James Sloat of the army engineers.

The guests were served refreshments and spent the afternoon sewing and visiting. Invited were Mrs. Sloat, guest of honor, Mrs. J. A. Kincaid, Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, May Phinney, Betty Jones, Mrs. Ross Ragland, Mrs. Don Miller, Mrs. James Crawford, Mrs. Pauline Thomas, Mrs. Sheldon Russell, Mrs. Philip Hitchcock, Mrs. Charles Floyd and Mrs. Warren Poole.

Party

Mrs. Cleone Stamper was honored with a party by a group of co-workers Monday, June 24, at the Pelican party room. Mrs. Stamper was presented with a pin commemorating her completion of 30 years work with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. The pin, containing six stars, one star for every five years, was given her by Mrs. J. H. Brodie.

The refreshment table was decorated with white snapdragons which were also used about the rooms. There were fifteen guests present.

Luncheon

Mrs. W. R. Hibbs entertained at a luncheon Friday, July 5, at the Pelican cafe honoring Dorothy, Ruth and Beth Anderson, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson of 443 Laguna.

Those present were Mrs. Donald Anderson, Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. Melvin Miller, Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Mrs. Frank Bogaty, Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck, honor guests Dorothy, Ruth and Beth Anderson, and the hostess, Mrs. Hibbs.

Dorothy, Beth and Ruth have been spending part of the week at the Anderson cabin at Lake of the Woods. They will leave Monday for their home in Boulder, Colo.

Garden Tour

A tour of gardens was enjoyed by members of the Klamath Falls Garden club on Monday, July 1.

The group went to the homes of Mrs. Rose Poole, 400 Conger, George Ulrich, 638 Conger, Mrs. Guy Hancock, 701 Pacific Terrace, Mrs. Frank Shimmin, 315 Pacific Terrace, and then to the home of Mrs. Will Wood where luncheon was served. The tour ended with a visit to Emil Abraham's garden at his home, 255 Pacific Terrace.

In the way of business, the group went on record to support any movements to beautify local parks. The next meeting will be the first Monday in August.

Book Review

The Orions entertained Tuesday, June 25, in the Methodist church with a tea and book review.

Members of the board were hostesses with Mrs. Cleo Dunlap and Mrs. William Stolk in charge. Mrs. Arthur Wiggins and Mrs. M. H. Melchert poured.

Musical numbers were presented by Mrs. John Weber, June Marie Murphy, Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger, Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck and Mrs. L. E. Juniper. Mrs. M. H. Melchert read a poem, "The Menagerie." Devotions were led by Mrs. Grace Hulse. The book review, "The Consultation Room" was given by Mrs. Gilbert Walters.

Members and guests present were Mrs. C. W. Newton, Mrs. Charles Carlson, Mrs. Cleo Dunlap, Mrs. C. A. Baker, Mrs. Roy Lee, Mrs. John Larson Jr., Mrs. Christine Neubert, Mrs. Elda Crane, Mrs. Arthur Millard, Mrs. A. E. Gross, Mrs. Roy L. Garrison, Mrs. George Crakes, Mrs. Charles Cummings, Mrs. L. E. Juniper, Mrs. E. R. Coss, Mrs. Frank Gardner, Mrs. John W. Weber, Mrs. Gilbert Walters, Mrs. Wendell B. Smith, Mrs. Mathew Dorobis, Mrs. Arthur Wiggins, Mrs. Jack Murphy, Mrs. E. J. Schnebeck, June Marie Murphy, Mrs. M. H. Melchert, Mrs. William Stolk and Mrs. William Terwilliger.

Guests at the Joe Hicks cabin at Lake of the Woods for July 4th were Mr. and Mrs. Al O'Neill of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hicks were also at the lake after having recently returned from a honeymoon trip to California.

Tea Tells News Of Betrothal

CHILOQUIN—The Pelican party room in Klamath Falls was the setting last Thursday afternoon for a charming tea given by Mrs. Arthur F. Blocklinger of Chilochino to honor her house guest, Mrs. George E. Atiyeh of Portland.

At the end of the receiving line Sally Blocklinger handed each guest a pink carnation to which white ribbon fastened an engraved announcement of the engagement of her sister, Mary Alice, to Richard Alex Atiyeh, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Atiyeh.

Pink gladioli and white stock, together with candlelight and gleaming silver, combined to make an appropriate background for the affair, which was attended by more than a hundred guests. In the receiving line were Mrs. Blocklinger, Mrs. Atiyeh, Mary Alice and Sally Blocklinger. Presiding at the coffee and tea urns were Mrs. C. V. Hugh of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Fred Pope of Fort Klamath, Mrs. Harry Ravizza and Mrs. Kenneth A. Roberts of Chilochino. Assisting were friends of Mary Alice, Norma Lee and Bonnie Gienker, and Ann and Jean McKell, all of Chilochino.

Wedding plans for the young couple have not as yet been announced. Both are students at the University of Oregon, where Richard is a senior and Mary Alice a sophomore.

Library Club

Interested Klamath Falls women will have the opportunity to join the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club this summer. Mrs. Walter Brown, president, invites those interested on behalf of her organization.

An effort will be made to contact as many women as possible, however those who are not reached are urged to get in touch with Mrs. Jack Schulze, chairman of the membership committee, at telephone 3296.

A program of educational, entertainment and social activities is being arranged for the coming year which begins with a September meeting.

Mrs. Brown adds that the Woman's Library club is for all women of the city who are interested.

Hostess

Idoline Schupp of 530 N. 10th was hostess to the Friendship club on Wednesday evening, June 26. Three tables of auction bridge were in play following the business meeting, and awards given for high scores.

On Wednesday July 10th the club will meet at the home of Alma Cofer of 1017 High for a potluck picnic luncheon at 1 p. m., and those who plan to attend should bring their own table service.

The J. Royal Shaws held a Fourth of July family picnic on the terrace of their Pacific Terrace home. Their daughter, Wanda, is home for the July holidays from attending summer session at the University of Oregon. She will return to Eugene for classes next week.

Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Hill C. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Towsey of Louisa, Va., arrived in Klamath Falls Saturday, June 29, to visit Mrs. Long's sister, Mrs. Frank Summers of Stewart's addition. Sunday afternoon a family reunion was held at the Summers home. It was the first time in 25 years that all the members of the family were present.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dixon, Andrew Dixon, and Mrs. Uel Travis of Susanville, Calif., Mrs. Ernest Unruh of Coeur d'Alene, Ida, Mr. and Mrs. Hills C. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Towsey of Louisa, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sherwood and son, Jim, of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Summers and daughter, Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Waitt Jr., Mrs. Blanche Dixon and son, Evan, all of Klamath Falls.

Spending the Fourth of July at Lake of the Woods were Barbara Roskamp, Charlotte Carter, Ruth Merrill, Mary Lou Case and Jeanie Hamilton.

ENGAGED IS MARY ALICE BLOCKLINGER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Blocklinger of Chilochino. Her betrothal to Richard Alex Atiyeh of Portland was announced at a tea Thursday afternoon, June 27, in the Pelican party room.