Exchange Vows

Exchanging vows on Monday evening, June 24, were Ethel Mae Spear and Alfred Lee Fisher, both of this city. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. E. E. Hambrick at his home, 845 Eldorado.

For her wedding the bride chose a suit of gray with black lace accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of pink rosebuds, and she carried a white Bible.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Bob Henry and Gerald Hyde. Mrs. Henry wore gray with a corsage of spring flowers.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fisher received at their new home, 412 High. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of pink roses, carnations and sweet peas with lighted white tapers on either side.

In addition to the bride and groom, guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rickbell, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ruge, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Patterson and Gerald Hyde.

Mr. Fisher was discharged last fall from the army after long overseas service.

Wed Sunday

Bertha Lloyd, daughter of Mrs. Alma Goffey, became the bride of Emerald Dubois, son of Mrs. Eva Dubois of 2168 Madison, Sunday, June 23.

The ceremony was held in the Dubois home. The bride wore a pastel dress with a gardenia and pink rose corsage.

A reception was held following the wedding at which the three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom.

The couple left for a month's wedding trip to visit Yellowstone park and relatives in Wyoming and Montana. They will be at home at 2168 Madison after the middle of July.

Meeting Features Pioneer Theme

In keeping with the coming Centennial celebration, the Business and Professional Women introduced a pioneer flavor into their Monday night dinner meeting.

Decorations, arranged by Annis Struthers and Gertrude Tolle, carried out the theme with gray sage and Indian paintbrush arranged in authentic Indian baskets loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Don Fisher. The sage was held in place by oddly-shaped red lava rocks. Pictures of the map of the emigrant road through southern Oregon, of Capt. Jack and many other historical characters of early settler days were arranged on the wall. These were loaned by Don Fisher, custodian of the Lava Beds national monument.

Mrs. Geneva Duncan, president of the Centennial association, a guest at the dinner, wore an authentic silk dress of the early days, belonging to one of Klamath's pioneer families. She told of the activities of the association in preparing the pageant and celebration set for August 22, 23 and 24.

Songs written by Stephen Foster during the last century were sung by George Willis, who was accompanied on the piano by Elaine Abbott. Willis and Miss Abbott were introduced by Mrs. Isabelle Brixner

Neighbors of Woodcraft held a regular meeting in the KC hall Monday, July 1 at 8 p. m. It was reported that cards of sympathy and flowers were sent to Sylvia Brannon.

It was also reported that neighbor Mustoe, now living in Seattle, was recently injured in a car accident, and that Effie Bedkey's mother is seriously ill. Stella Wells, whose birthday fell during the month of May, was escorted to the campfire by Mildred Smith, captain of the guards, and the group sang "Happy Birthday."

Bertha Kandy received the Sunshine March award at this meeting, at the previous meeting it was received by Viola Leaver.

Vera Reeves and Stella Dryden were members of the committee for the evening, July 1. The next time, July 15, there will be a short business meeting followed by entertainment furnished by the losing side in the recent membership and attendance contest, and Stella Dryden will be committee chairman.

The Juveniles of Neighbors of Woodcraft met Monday afternoon in the KC hall for business, games and no-host refreshments. There will be a picnic next time, but the date will be announced later.

Afternoon Meeting Held Saturday

The Thursday Contract club met with Stella Dryden of 610 North 11 on the afternoon of June 27, with the regular members attending, and awards given for high scores at contract. Lora Evans will be hostess to the club on July 11 at her home at the Sunset ranch.
