

Afternoon Rites Read Sunday

A double ring ceremony was read in Sacred Heart church when Louise Imhoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Imhoff of Klamath Falls, became the bride of C. S. Easton, son of Mrs. Hazel Easton of Moquoketh, Ia. The Rev. Timothy P. Casey read the service held Sunday, June 30 at 3 o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding gown of white china silk with lace inserts, a high neckline, and elbow length sleeves. Her full length veil was held in place by a crown of white net.

Her only jewelry was three strands of pearls, a gift of her parents. She carried a white prayer book with a single white orchid from which fell a cascade of white streamers.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Andy Gumpenberger, sister of the bride. She was attired in a light blue chiffon gown with a blue lace jacket. Her shoulder length veil of matching blue chiffon was held in place by blue net. Her colonial nosegay was of white carnations, sweet peas and pink roses, tied with which fell white and blue satin ribbons.

Mrs. J. C. Karsen, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She was attired in a blue chiffon gown with a fitted bodice and a full gathered skirt. Her shoulder length veil was of matching chiffon. She also carried a colonial nosegay.

Patty Karsen and Andrea Gumpenberger, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. They wore matching gowns of pink velvet with shoulder length veils in place. They carried baskets of rose petals which they scattered before the bride.

Best man was John Smith. Usher was J. C. Karsen, brother-in-law of the bride.

Wedding music was played by Warren Cronon, who also accompanied Marie Sexton who sang "Ave Maria."

The bride's mother wore a navy blue afternoon dress with blue and white accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The house was decorated throughout with American beauty and tallman roses.

The bride and groom cut their threether wedding cake, served by Mrs. John Smith.

The couple left after the reception for a short wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. Easton selected a light blue suit with white accessories and a single orchid at her shoulder.

Upon their return they will make their home in Klamath Falls.

Motorcycle Rider Dies In Accident

PENDLETON, July 6 (AP)—Alvin Everett Garvin, Pasco, Wash., a visitor here this summer, was fatally injured last night when his motorcycle collided with the end gate of a scavenger truck driven by Ed Lanning, police reported this morning.

Riding behind Garvin on the motorcycle was Jack Brown of Pendleton, who was seriously injured, city police reported.

Both young men were hurled from the motorcycle, which careened off the truck, tearing loose the end gate. Garvin's death brought Umatilla county's traffic toll this year to 11 and Pendleton's to two.

Four barrels of oil were consumed from 1940 to 1945 for every new barrel discovered, according to the American Petroleum Institute.
