Hot Pitchers Give AL Odds In Dream Fray

By The Associated Press

National league partisans, already fully aware that their favorites will enter tomorrow's all-star contest in Boston against the American league's best on the short end of the worst mismatch in the classic's 13-year history, must have experienced that sinking sensation today. For scanning the latest box scores of major league baseball games gave them no encouragement whatsoever.

If any National leaguer nursed a hope that the junior circuit's pitching twins, Cleveland's Bobby Feller and Detroit's Hal Newhouser, would not be "right" for the "dream game," that must be dispelled by now.

Feller, already named by American League All-Star Manager Steve O'Neill as his starting pitcher, began poorly yesterday, allowing two runs in the first frame, but picked up steam as he went along and whipped the Chicago White Sox 3-2 for his 15th victory of the season. The Sox, behind Eddie Lopat's two-hit twirling, copped the nightcap 5-0.

Newhouser, expected to hurl the middle three frames for the Harridge clan, turned in a brilliant five-hit performance in blanking the St. Louis Browns, 3-0, in a single fray.

Chandler Shelled

Spud Chandler, the choice to twirl the final three frames for the American leaguers, did not fare as well. He yielded five hits and three runs in six innings to the Athletics as the New York Yankees and Philadelphia divided a doubleheader. A five-run rally in the seventh enabled the Yanks to win the opener, 7-3, but the A's won the second 4-1 as young Bob Savage outhurled Chandler for his first victory of the season.

With each of the Boston Red Sox' all-star clubbers contributing in large doses, the Red Sox increased their first-place lead over the runner-up Yankees to seven and a half games by taking the measure of Washington's Senators twice, 11-1 and 9-4.

The loyal-hearted National leaguers can point with pride at the splendid pitching performance turned in by the St. Louis Cardinals' Howie Pollet. The youthful southpaw yielded only three hits as he shut out the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-0 in the nightcap of a doubleheader for his ninth win of the year and his fifth in his last six starts.

Cards Win Pair

The Cards also won the opener 4-3 to gain a full game on the front-runnng Brooklyn Dodgers, who now lead by five games as a result of their split with the Boston Braves. A ninth inning two-run rally gave the Hubmen a 3-2 victory in the opener but the Brooks came back to win the nightcap 4-2.

Helped by All-Stars Johnny Mize and Walker Cooper, the New York Giants downed the Philadelphia Phillies twice to wrest sixth place from their opponents. Mize drove out two hits and Cooper three as the Giants clubbed out a 10-2 second game win after Micky Witek's two-run homer won the opener 2-1.

In a single encounter, Cincinnati defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-2, with Rookie Outfielder Eddie Lukon clouting two homers to drive in five runs.

Oaks Keep Loop Lead

By The Associated Press

With the Fourth of July week come and gone, the Oakland Oaks were still leading the Pacific Coast league today. The San Francisco Seals were close behind their cross-bay rivals, only one game separating them from Oakland.

Aided by the homers of Les Scarsella, Brooks Holder and Wally Westlake, the Oaks stopped Portland twice yesterday, 7 to 1 and 3 to 1, taking the series five to three with one game tied. Glen Crawford homered for the Beavers' only score in the second game.

San Francisio was pressed hard to win its first game from Los Angeles in 11 innings, 5 to 4, and then coasted along on the one-hit pitching of Frank Rosso to win the nightcap 6-0 and keep step with the league leaders.

At Seattle, Sacramento took a doubleheader from the Rainiers, 4 to 3 and 7 to 5. Gene Corbett and Gene Lillard homered to help win the first game, and Alex Kampouris hit a home run in the second game with two men on.

San Diego and Hollywood divided their doubleheader, the Padres winning the first game 6 to 4, and the Stars the second, 2 to 0. The series edge went to Hollywood, 5 to 3.

In Saturday's games, Hollywood beat San Diego 4-3, Portland beat Oakland 3-2 and San Francisco shut out Los Angeles 8 to 0. Seattle and Sacramento went 13 innings before the Rainiers won, 2 to 1.

Roseburg Downs GeePees, 5-2

ROSEBURG, July 8 (AP)—The Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs defeated the Grants Pass Merchants, 5 to 2, here Sunday to break the second place tie and edge ahead of the Merchants in the Southern Oregon baseball league.

The Chiefs reached Martindale for 12 hits, but good fielding by Gray in left field and Blacksmith at short kept the Roseburg team from making good on many opportunities.

Home Runs Paying Off

Jim Olsen and Dale Graham, who poled out home runs in Friday's 8-7 rout of the Roseburg Chiefs, made their blows pay something more tangible than the thrill of baseball's top offensive achievement.

Olsen's circuit clout for the Klamath Sons came in the fourth inning, went over the right field wall with one man aboard, and won for him $15 put up by Lombard Motors, $5 and a Ronson cigarette lighter offered by Rogers Jewelry, $5 from the Pelican Barber shop, $5 from New Method cleaners, $5 from Superior Troy laundry and $5 from Ed Boothby's service station.

Graham's blow, coming in the sixth inning and sailing over the fence in right center with one man on, the longest homer in Recreation field this year, won $10 from Lombard Motors. Both boys also received a dinner at Otto Sari's restaurant on S. 6th.

That very transient item, the Pacific coast junior heavyweight wrestling belt, goes on the block again Thursday night at the armory as the holder, Georges Dusette again takes on Martino Angelo in a championship bout.

This will be the third time in a month and a half that the belt has been at stake, setting something of a record as the Pacific coast wrestling commission provides that the belt will be defended at least every three months, and in the past the holders have squeezed their three month period down to almost the last day before putting up a title match.

Angelo held the crown some time ago and defended it successfully against Dusette May 30 and then two weeks later, on June 13, lost it to the French Canadian in a no-time-limit match which cost Dusette $500 to arrange.

The title bout this coming Thursday night is a culmination of the wrestling tournament held here last week, which was won by Angelo. It will be a no-time-limit, two falls out of three affair.

In addition to the title fight, a pair of prelims yet to be arranged will be on the card.

Coaches Invited To View Pro Game

BEND, July 8 (AP)—Oregon prep football coaches will be guests here August 2-3 when Coach Mal Stevens of the Brooklyn All-America league team will hold a gridiron clinic.

The prep school mentors will also witness one of the inter-squad games by the professional club.

Feller Will Take Slab In Star Tilt

Cleveland Fireballer Dominates Power-Heavy Junior League Squad

BOSTON, July 8 (AP)—Not since Babe Ruth has there been an individual who stood out so overwhelmingly in all-star baseball pre-game speculation as Clevelands Bob Feller.

This, notwithstanding the fact that Hal Newhouser, who pitched Detroit to the world championship last year, and Ted Williams, the Boston Red Sox's mighty hitter who clouted a three-run homer to win the 1941 inter-league game, will be among Feller's teammates in the 13th meeting between stars of the American and National leagues in Fenway park tomorrow.

The American league leads the series with eight victories, to four for the Nationals.

O'Neill's First Choice

The upwards of 33,000 fans expected to turn out for the game, starting at 9:30 a.m. PST, will be watching to see if Feller—Steve O'Neill's choice to start—can maintain his astonishing strikeout pace in the current American league campaign against National league batsmen.

In 20 league games to date, Feller has averaged 9.5 strikeouts per game, while winning 15 games and losing five.

O'Neill gave the starting nod to Feller in spite of pride in his own great pitcher, Hal Newhouser, the Tigers' only playing representative in the game. Dopesters had it figured that the Yankees' Spurgeon "(Spud) Chandler would combine with Feller and Newhouser to carry the Americans' pitching load.

Playing in his native Fenway park, Williams was calculated to lead the Americans' anticipated hitting barrage against Manager Charley Grimm's pitchers, who were expected to be led by the Cubs' Claude Passeau, the Cardinals' Howie Pollet and Brooklyn's Kirby Higbe.

Won 1941 Games

Currently the leading home run hitter in both leagues and runner up to the Washington's Mickey Vernon for batting honors in the American league, Williams delivered the most effective single blow in all-star records. With two on and two out in the ninth inning of the '41 game, Williams poled a homer to give the Americans a 7 to 5 victory.

The National league will have nine players, including stout swatters like Dixie Walker, Johnny Hopp and Stan Musial, in the game just like the junior circuit, but the Americans' superior pitching and the explosive batting power made them pre-game choices with the fans and the bettors. They ruled 1 to 3 betting favorites.

Byron Nelson Back In Chips

COLUMBUS, O., July 8 (AP)—Byron Nelson, one of Texas' prize gifts to golf, is back on the winning trail.

Nelson, who now plays out of Toledo, O., headed today for the Kansas City Open with a check for $2500 in his pocket as the result of a two-strike victory yesterday in the $10,000 Columbus invitational open golf tournament.

The triumph was the first for Nelson since he won the Houston invitational in May.

His victory yesterday over the 6697-yard Columbus Country club course was a typical bit of workmanship. He was three strokes out of the lead at the end of the first round Friday. The 36-hole post found him two strokes off the pace but when the final 36 homes came up he peeled eight strokes off par to shoot 69-67 for a 72-hole total of 276. That was 12 under par and won top money.

Second money of $1400 went to Ed (Porky) Oliver of Wilmington, Del., who thrilled the 10,163 spectators with a brilliant six-under-par 66 on his last round. His terrific rally saw him pull within a stroke of Nelson when he had only two holes to go.

Jacobs Clinches Frisco Kegling

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8 (AP) Dick Jacobs of Bremerton, Wash., with a record-breaking score of 1734, won the Downtown bowl fifth annual singles tournament here last night. Play covered six days and attracted 512 bowlers from all parts of the U. S.

Jacobs won $1000 cash with a string of games of 172, 213, 233, 246, 202, 189, 212 and 267.

The old record of 1674 was set three years ago. It was bettered by two other contestants, Jack Bailey of Los Angeles, 1710, who won $750, and Tony Monteverde of Los Angeles, third with 1692.

Kahut Will Tangle With Fitzy Again

PORTLAND, July 8 (AP)—Joe Kahut, the Woodburn clouter, who has defeated Hilton (Fitzy) Fitzpatrick in two bouts and gained an even break with the Los Angeles heavyweight in a third; will meet him for a fourth test July 26 in Portland.

Kahut won once by a technical knockout and once by a decision.

Klamath Edges Out Weed, 5-4

By HALE SCARBROUGH

Grabbing a narrow lead at the outset and holding on through storm and battle, the Klamath Sons tied up the Northern California league top rung by defeating the Weed Sons 5 to 4 in the Ebbets field of northern California at Weed yesterday afternoon.

Until yesterday Weed had held undisputed possession of the loop leadership, winning eight in a row and losing none, while the Klamaths were in second place with seven and one, a lone defeat at the hands of the Weed combination.

Klamath got to Pitcher Jim Fruzza for three runs in the first stanza when Earl Brooks drew a pass, Mario Pisan advanced him with a bunt and Frankie Miller scored him with a double to left. Miller went to third on an infield out and then Ernie Bishop tripled against the left field wall, and went home on an overthrow in to the diamond.

Weed came right back in their portion of the first with two runs when Ray Brown singled to left, advanced on an infield out, took third on Dan Barbieri's single and scored on Elby Mazzoni's single into center. Barbieri scored from third on an infield out, and Clyde Carlstrom fanned Bob Bordino with what would have been the tying run on third.

Weed Ties Score

From then on it was goose eggs for both sides until Weed tied up the game in the fifth. Jim Fruzza walked, stole second and scored on Jack Simms' double to left.

The game rocked along with the score 3-3 until the Klamath half of the eighth. Hi Hatfield opened up with a single to left and Bishop drilled a single to right with the Weed infield pulled in expecting a bunt. Hatfield was off with the pitch and circled to third. Bishop took second on the next pitch and Jim Olsen pounded a single to center, driving in Hatfield and Bishop for the winning runs.

A few moments later Roy Wheeler forced Olsen at second, Bart Golbar singled Wheeler to second and Carlstrom hit a single into center. Wheeler, trying to score from second, was called out at home on a very close play and Plate Umpire Ken Del Busco was instantly embroiled in a mill of players and spectators for a good old baseball argument.

Crowd Goes Wild

After several abortive fights and at least one over-excited spectator had been tossed out of the park, the game went on. In the Weed half of the eighth, Simms walked, went to second on an error, to third on an infield out and scored on Mazzoni's single. Aldo Rossetto put him on third with a single and again Carlstrom got a third strike by Bordino. Dan Rocchi ended the rally by flying to left.

In the last of the ninth Weed threatened again. Oscar Barbieri walked, Fruzza sacrificed him along, then Ray Brown fanned and Simms rolled out to third.

The game was high-pitched all the way and easily the best tilt of the Northern California league this season. Weed's ball park was jam-packed with spectators, including a large delegation from Klamath Falls.

Elsewhere around the league, Dunsmuir went 10 innings before topping Mt. Shasta, 12-11, and McCloud beat out Redding, 14-11.

Another Ball Team Formed

Another baseball team is being organized now in Klamath Falls and expects to be ready for a game by August 15. The team is being sponsored by the Klamath Packing company and will be known as the Klamath Packers.

This team will not be in competition with the Klamath Sons but may enter the Southern Oregon league or play any games that can be scheduled with teams in this area.

Most of the boys who have turned out for the new team are graduates of KUHS and many are ex-servicemen. Any players who have not yet come out are invited to come to Del Moro field tonight at 5:30 to try out for positions on the team.

Another practice will be held Tuesday afternoon at Roosevelt school.

Among the players who are tentatively slated to play for the Klamath Packers are Al Cline, H. L. Smith, Joe and Jim Derrah, Tommy Edwards, Al Bellotti, Ralph Foster, Byron Cody, Dick Cada, Frank Hall and Dick and Bernard Valencour.

Del Moro Takes Mills Into Camp

Del Moro scored another addition to their record of no losses and two wins Sunday, July 7, on Del Moro field when they roundly defeated the Mills team of the Junior Legion circuit 16 to 12. Each team made a score per hit, 16 for 16 by Del Moro, 12 for 12 by Mills.

Mills picked up the lead in the first, with one run, and Del Moro made five in the third. Del Moro was tied temporarily in the fourth inning, but otherwise led the entire game. Batteries for the game were Elliot and Denny for Del Moro, and Stone and Flora for Mills.

This game puts Del Moro undisputedly at the head of the circuit, with three wins and no defeats. Next Sunday, July 14, Del Moro will play a doubleheader with both Mills and Conger on Del Moro field.

2nd Softball Half Begins

The second half of the men's softball league will get under way tonight at 6:30 when the Four-Star Merchants meet the Elks on Recreation field, and Palmerton's Lumber company will play the Moose at Applegate. The Merchants landed in a last-place tie during the first half, and Palmerton made a tie for third, while Moose and Elks knotted over first and second positions during the first half.

A full double schedule has been worked out for the second half, with games both at Recreation and Applegate fields every Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights throughout the remainder of July. Each of the seven teams will have a schedule of six games.

The second half will end July 31, at which time there will be playoffs between the top two teams of each half.

Player's Wife Snares Raffles

SALEM, July 8 (AP)—Mrs. Buddy Ryan, wife of the manager of the Wenatchee baseball team, caught a jewel thief here Saturday afternoon, but she was scared afterward when she found he was armed with an ax.

Police said Quentin Nelson, 23, Salem, chopped a hole in the jewelry store window with an ax, and took two diamond rings with a combined value of $329. Mrs. Ryan, one of many shoppers on the crowded street, grabbed the man and held him for the police. She said she didn't know he had the ax.

Police sent the man to the state hospital, from which he was released a year ago.

Dodgers Contract Gridiron Trio

BROOKLYN, July 8 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers of the All-America football conference announced the signing of three more players today. They are Bill Pope, sprinter and halfback at Texas Christian; Johnny Colmer, fullback from Miramonte Junior college in California, and Jake Messina, Louisiana state guard.

All will report for training at Bend, Ore., a week from today.

Statistics show that New York traffic accidents resulted in the deaths of 1768 persons and injuring 80,673 in the year of 1945.
