

Huge Program Scheduled For Red Cross Auction

Final plans have been completed to make the Red Cross auction sale on Sunday one of the greatest benefit shows to be staged in Klamath county.

All proceeds from the event will go to the Red Cross and no admission charge will be made. The show will start at 1 p. m. at the county fairgrounds.

Highlight of the day will be the sale of Smokey, the spirited black horse who was donated to the Red Cross for the sale by Mrs. Frank Hurd. Since her initial donation scores of other Klamath county people have contributed articles for sale.

The line-up of the day's festivities will be headed by the grand entry of the men's and women's drum corps of the Eagles, then Smokey, Mrs. Frank Hurd and Jesse Totten on horseback, the contestants in the princess contest and the Sheriff's Posse.

Musical Program
The program to follow will include a drum corps demonstration, singing of the Red Cross song by Dorothy Ackerman, the national anthem, played by Shepherd's orchestra with a Red Cross ambulance and nurses in the background, Otto Smith, chairman of the county Red Cross, introduced by Bob McCarl, KFLW, master of ceremonies, Frank Hurd, introduced by Smith, the auction sale headed by Colonel Stewart, the auctioning of Smokey by Hurd, the "Horse's Prayer," read by Mrs. Frank Hurd, the selection and coronation of the princess, a double wedding, and presentation of the Klamath Saddle club.

The princess contest, which has attracted wide attention, is open to all unmarried girls in the county and entry may still be made until noon, Sunday.

Contestants ranging in age from 11 to 15, include Dolores Hunt, JoAnn Butler, Patsy Summers, Marilyn Miller, Frances Stearns, Janet Dreidors, Beverly Eels, Charlotte Heup, Gloria Vanderhoff, Betty Pinniger, Marjorie Hampel and Jeanie Carnes.

Saddle Club Judges
They will be judged both on horsemanship and personality by members of the Klamath Saddle club. The princess who will reign over the show will receive a complete riding outfit from The Town Shop.

One of the most recent contributions received for the auction is a four-piece antique silver tea set donated by Slater brothers of Malin. The Hartford quadruple plate set has been in the Slater family for at least 90 years. It is being displayed in the window of Rickys Jewelry store until time for auction.

One of the biggest drawing cards for the show is the double wedding in which Bonnie Ruth Ellis will wed Dale Hankins and Billee Joice Shelly will become the bride of Joe Ernest DellaBona. The former couple will be married in a traditional white wedding, and the latter in a novel horseback ceremony.

The Rev. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church has offered his services, and wedding rings have been donated by Rickys and Renie's Jewelry stores. Bridal bouquets will be supplied by radio station KFLW.

Trains May Run Again Tonight

depends on whether any more of the tunnel roof comes down as cars are being moved, but workers say that is unlikely.

Train number 19, from Portland southbound, is due in Klamath Falls at 8:30 tonight and will probably be the first train through the tunnel. It may be held over here two hours while clearance work is completed.

Number 16, northbound, is due here at 9:30 and it will be held at Dorris for a while if necessary. During the time the tunnel is out and no trains are coming into Klamath Falls, incoming and outgoing mail has been handled by the Southern Pacific by trucks to rail connections.

H. C. Bonney, conductor of the freight who was slightly injured during the accident, is still in the Grey hospital in Dorris but will be moved to his home at 427 Alameda this weekend. He is suffering from bruises, shock and a gash in his forehead.

Government Returns Property To Aliens

SEATTLE, July 13 (AP)—Aliens, from whom the government confiscated weapons, cameras and shortwave radios at the outbreak of the war, should take these articles back, the U. S. marshal's office said today.

About 14,000 items were on hand at the start of the war and most have been returned to their owners. There are still "a lot" to be disposed of.

When laundering rag rugs wash them in rich suds and warm water. Rinse carefully, then dip them in a light starch solution. Press out water by hand or put them through a loosely adjusted wringer. Lay flat on paper to dry. The starch gives more body and helps keep them flat.
