

Church Ceremony Read In Merrill

Before an altar banked with pink and white gladioli and white double stock, palms and lighted white tapers, Iva Jane Haskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Haskins of Merrill, became the bride of Mr. Leonard Will of Dayton in an eight o'clock ceremony Sunday, June 30, in the Merrill Presbyterian church. The service was read by Rev. Hugh Bronson, pastor of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of traditional white satin and lace with finger-tip illusion veil caught with a sweetheart ruffled cap centered with orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a necklace, gift of the groom. She carried a hoop arrangement of shattered white carnations centered with a corsage to be worn for traveling.

Virginia Thoens of Portland was maid of honor and her frock of ice blue nylon, made with bouffant skirt and tight bodice, was complemented with a hoop arrangement of yellow daisies with which she wore a matching head band.

Bridesmaids were Margaret Niskanen of Bend, in a frock of yellow lace, and Coral Morton of Medford, cousin of the bride, in blue taffeta. Miss Niskanen carried a hoop of deep blue delphinium and wore a matching headband of the same flower, and Miss Morton carried a similar arrangement of blue and white delphinium with matching floral arrangement in her hair.

Cecil Will, cousin of the groom, of Dayton, was best man and ushers were LaVerne Haskins of Bonanza, brother of the bride, and Wilbur Haskins, of Merrill, a cousin.

Proceeding the ceremony Mel Erickson of Malin sang three numbers, "Because," "Through the Years" and "Beloved, 'Tis Morn." He sang also "The Lord's Prayer" at the conclusion of the ceremony. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Lillian Thomason who also played the wedding marches.

Mrs. Haskins chose for her daughter's wedding a shell pink cable net suit with white accessories. The groom's parents were unable to be present.

The wedding party received at a reception at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony where Mr. and Mrs. Will cut their lovely tiered white wedding cake, later served by Mrs. Miles Moore, aunt of the bride. Mrs. LaVerne Haskins, sister-in-law of the bride, poured with Mrs. Velton Haskins, an aunt, Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick and Ardena and Glorienne Roufs assisting with the refreshments.

Mrs. Kilpatrick and Olive Mace were in charge of the appointments for the bride's table centered with the wedding cake which was surrounded with four crystal swans in which floated pink and white rose petals and trailing syringas. The central motif was complemented by tall pink tapers in crystal candelabra.

An arrangement of pink and white peonies was used on the buffet and blue delphinium and syringas were used in a white Madonna vase on the mantle.

Mrs. Marie Hansen of Medford was in charge in the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Will, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Will, Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Morton, Robert, Raymond, Coral and Linda, Mrs. Olive Mace, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hansen, all of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Roufs and daughters, Ardena, Glorienne and Marabelle, Bieber, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. M. Erickson, Malin; Mr. and Mrs. William Holbrook, Malin; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rueck and son, and Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Haskins, Bonanza; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Robinette and son James; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pierce and son Gary, Mrs. William Roufs, Mrs. Tolle and Gertrude Tolle, all of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Will left immediately following the reception for points north which will include Canada and following their return they will be at home on Grand Island, near Dayton, where Mr. Will is engaged with his father in the fruit business.

The new Mrs. Will prior to her marriage was in training as a nurse at Multnomah General hospital, Portland.
