

Cards Punish Dodgers Again

By The Associated Press
Boston can have Ted Williams, its colorful thumping outfielder, St. Louis fans will find Stanley Frank Musial, the belting Pole from Donora, Pa., who is punishing National league hurling at a .367 clip and leading Eddie Dyer's Red Birds in their drive to overtake the league lead from the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The 25-year-old star, who leads his league in hits, runs scored, doubles and triples has enjoyed some of his biggest days at the plate against the Dodgers.

Before 26,476 fans at Sportsman's park last night, Musial sparked the red hot Cards to a 10-4 victory over the Brooks by smacking four hits in five trips to the plate, including a homer and triple.

The four blows increased Musial's average against Brooklyn hurling to .489 in 11 contests. The 175-pound cloutier now has batted out 23 hits in 47 times at bat, and driven in 11 runs and scored 12 markers against the Brooks.

The victory was the Cards' third in a row over Brooklyn and it narrowed the Dodgers' margin to one and one-half games. St. Louis hopped on Hugh Casey for two runs in the opening inning and iced the decision by scoring three more runs in the fourth and fifth frames.

In all, the Cards rapped five Dodger hurlers for 13 hits in the battle, marked by the banishment of Manager Leo Durocher and Outfielder Pete Reiser of Brooklyn in the third inning when they protested a decision by Umpire Al Barlick.

Brulls Advance
Chicago's third place Cubs advanced to within four and one-half games of Brooklyn as Hooks Wase pitched the defending National league champions to a 3-1 victory over the New York Giants.

Although defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2, the Boston Braves dropped into a fourth place deadlock with the Cincinnati Reds, who downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2.

Johnny Niggeling, veteran righthander, limited the Pirates to six safeties as Boston tallied all of its runs in the first inning. Dick Uller collected four of the Braves' eight hits, allowed by Ken Heintzelman and Preacher Roe.

Rookie Johnny Hetki scattered seven Philadelphia blows in the Reds' win. Grady Hatton, another recruit, slammed a three-run homer in the fifth inning to account for Cincinnati's margin of victory.

In the American league, the Detroit Tigers defeated the slumping New York Yankees 2-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Freddie Hutchinson before 39,893 night game fans at New York.

The crowd increased New York's home attendance to 1,480,775 in 44 games which is 4391 admissions short of the major league mark established by the pennant winning 1929 Chicago Cubs.

Pale Hose Blanketed
Phil Marchildon of the Philadelphia Athletics also turned in a two-hit triumph, whitewashing the Chicago White Sox 12-0. The Mackmen clinched the game in the second inning when they pounded five runs home.

The St. Louis Browns fell into a fifth place deadlock with the Cleveland Indians, who, along with the front-running Red Sox, were not scheduled. The Browns lost 4-2 their battle with Washington Senators.

Buddy Lewis drove in half of Washington's runs with a triple and a single and as little Mickey Haefner spaced seven St. Louis hits to gain his seventh conquest of the campaign.

'No Hooch' Order Given San Diego
SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 16 (AP)—Bill Starr, president of the San Diego Coast League Padres, said here today he had ordered his players "to stay out of all bars" in his efforts to smooth out troubles that have figured in the Padres' recent slump.

The order, Starr indicated, was intended to keep players from the influence of dissension-spreading fans, rather than because of any excessive drinking. Starr reiterated his support of "Pepper" Martin, declaring: "Pepper is going to get 100 per cent backing from me as long as he is manager of the Padres."

He asserted that Boots Poffenberger, pitcher suspended for failing to get into a uniform for the Sunday double-header at San Francisco, had been ordered back to San Diego. The Padres open a series at Sacramento today.

Deer Season Pared Down To 23 Days

Nimrods can look forward to a curtailed deer season for next fall if the tentative hunting regulations set up by the state game commission are adopted in their present form.

The general deer season will run from September 28 to October 20, inclusive, 23 days.

Last year the season was 30 days, from September 29 to October 28. Bag limit is the same, one deer, forked horns or better.

In addition to the general season, several special seasons are being set up for certain localities for which permits will be issued for controlled hunting, allowing shooting of antlerless deer in some sections and both deer and does in others.

These special seasons were listed as reasons for shortening the general season.

In the Devil's Garden lava beds area on the state line in Lake county, 500 permits will be issued for hunting antlerless deer from November 30 to December 4, in the Crooked creek district of Lake county, 500 permits for antlerless deer will be issued for the season from October 29 to November 2.

At Summer lake, including the area along the east slope of Summer lake rim, there will be 800 permits from October 22 to October 27 for deer of either sex.

Those are the deer hunting areas close by Klamath in which these controlled kills are being considered. Others include: Burnt river area, lower Baker county, 100 permits for deer of either sex, season September 22-27.

Cove area in Union county, 300 permits for antlerless deer, season November 9-17.
Canyon creek game reserve in Baker, bow and arrow hunting October 9-16 in that part of the refuge north and east of the creek, provided that additional area there is open to rifle hunting.

Archery season in the Deschutes refuge is open from September 28 to October 6, with a bag limit of one deer of either sex.

Up in Baker county where ranchers complained last spring of an overabundance of elk the commission has tentatively set a three-day open season on bull elk in the Muddy creek area from August 31 to September 2, a game biologist in the Baker area estimated that there are 650 elk in the region and that nearly half of them should be shot.

General elk season for eastern Oregon is set from October 26 to November 17, and from October 26 to November 10 in Klamath, Lane, Lincoln, Deschutes and portions of other counties. The bag limit is one bull elk with forked horns or better.

Baker county's open season for deer of either sex is from November 18 to December 22. Pheasant season will run from October 19-27 in Klamath county and to the west, limit three cocks a day but not over six in seven days, but in Lake and Deschutes the season is October 19-20, two cocks a day or four maximum for the season.

Klamath county has no valley quail season provided by the game commission.

These regulations are tentative and were worked out by the commission at a hearing in Portland last week. There will be another hearing July 27, when final regulations will be adopted.

Aging Negro Believed Oldest Fighter

By RUSS NEWLAND
SAN FRANCISCO, July 16 (AP)—The question has been put to us: "Who is the oldest active boxer in the country today?"

This would be a stumper except for the fact there is a negro neavyweight named Tiger Jack Fox in Spokane, Wash., who is going along with a fine disregard for the average age limitations.

Fox is exceedingly cagey about his age but Nat Friescher's record book lists him as having been born April 2, 1897, in Indianapolis. This would make him 39 years old and if he isn't the dean of fighters he can hold the title until somebody trots out an older candidate.

Slightly Confused
For a check at the source, we solicited the aid of a couple of Spokane newshawks, Clarence Moore and Bob Johnson, but the sum total of their efforts seems to add up to confusion.

Moore reports that Fox admits to the age of 38. Johnson is more liberal with figures, submitting a range of between 45 and 55. But it is just possible he was thinking of his last golf score for five or six holes.

In view of this disparity and the fact that Fox is disinclined to discuss his age, his record book listing of 39 will be considered official for the time being.

As noted, Fox is still going strong and he wins more decisions than he loses and his showing during 14 years as a professional is creditable. Before that he fought seven years as an amateur.

No Trick At All
Incidentally, this rather hardy perennial of the ring can compare notes with Champion Joe Louis, yes suth! In 1939, Louis kayoed Jack Roper in one round. Fox accomplished the same feat twice. He flattened Roper in a single round in 1934, and two years previously turned the trick in six heats.

However, we'd advise Fox to stay in his own bailiwick and not go hunting Louis to start an argument because Joe leaves sentiment behind when he climbs through the ropes.

Anyhow, until an older one comes along, Tiger Jack, at 39 or over, can lay claim to being the oldest fellow throwing leather in the country today.

Double Main Bill Slated

A double main event is on the rattle schedule for Thursday, the no time limit mixed match and a six-round orthodox bout between Georges Dusette and an old-timer returning from the east, Tex Hager.

The opener will be four rounds, with Billy McEuin, the Texas Terror, in the ring against Mexican Rubie Gracia.

Top of the card will be the mixed style rasmle between Walt Sneeze Acheu, the educated Chinaman and ex-football player, and Bob Keneston, Gold Hill's rasmiling war contribution.

Acheu is this circuit's foremost judo specialist and the match Thursday will be split between judo and ordinary grappling, as exemplified by Keneston. The first two falls will be fought in those styles, one each, and the last fall in the style of the wrestler who accomplishes his tumble in the shortest time.

Pros Put Amateur On Golfing Spot
CHICAGO, July 16 (AP)—The golfing boys who play for keeps will be gunning for a slick lad who plays for fun, Amateur Frank Stranahan, when a select 70-player field starts the $10,000 Victory National Open tournament at Medinah country club tomorrow.

Foremost among the top-drawer professionals who will be trying to smack down Stranahan for the embarrassment he caused them by winning the $20,000 Kansas City Invitational last weekend, will be defending Champion Byron Nelson.

Nelson, who rapped a 13-under-par 275 in copping the 72-hole victory at Calumet country club last year, finished two strokes off Stranahan's 274 pace at Kansas City, sharing third spot with Jimmy Hines and Harold (Jug) McSpaden.

Nelson hopes to take apart the rugged No. 3 course at Medinah—a hazard-pocked, par 71, layout that rambles 6929 yards—for reason more than humbling Stranahan, a fellow townsman from Toledo, O.

Klamath To Play Medford Craters

Scheduling a kings-X game with the Medford Craters, the Klamath Sons will come in for a nocturnal experience over in the valley tomorrow night.

The night game with the Craters, at Medford's lighted park, will be the first all-right duty for the Sons and their second meeting with the Craters.

In the first the Medford team took the measure of the locals by an 8-3 score at Medford before either the Northern California or Southern Oregon leagues started rolling. Medford is currently disputing with the Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs and the Ashland Elks for leadership of the Southern Oregon loop.

The game will start at 8:30. The moon has no soil.

Players Nicked For Squabbling

LOS ANGELES, July 16 (AP) Both managers and a Seattle player were fined yesterday for a series of altercations with umpires during the Oakland-Seattle series last week.

President Clarence Rowland of the Pacific Coast baseball league announced Outfielder Edo Vanni of Seattle was fined $25 for a run-in with Umpire Phil Mazzeo last Wednesday.

Manager Jo Jo White of Seattle was fined $50 for a squabble with Mazzeo last Friday, and Manager Casey Stengel of Oakland was fined $25 for an altercation with Umpire Bill Engel on Saturday.

Politics Seen In Fish Lack

Tod Powell, the San Francisco Chronicle's widely-read wildlife columnist, said in a radio interview yesterday afternoon that what was wrong with fishing up and down the Pacific coast was "too much politics."

Powell's very blunt answer was in reply to an equally blunt question asked him by Matt Finnigan over KFLW. The writer said that California's fish and game setup was nothing more than a football and was the poorest in the 48 states.

Right now the state is getting an ever increasing number of hunters and fishermen, and the wildlife officials had done nothing constructive about providing and maintaining the hunting and fishing opportunities for them, the newspaperman declared.

Concerning the duck season, which will be set by the U. S. fish and wildlife service, Powell expressed an opinion that the season will be cut sharply this year, probably down to 30 of 45 days.

He said that he had no advance information, but the rules would probably be released within the next two weeks.

He said that the part of the duck laws which should be changed is the possession limit which is set at two days' bag limit, which invites shooters to exceed the day limit.

Powell was passing through Klamath Falls yesterday en route back to San Francisco from the Hart mountain Antelope meeting.

Prep Grid Title Set Turkey Day

PORTLAND, July 16 (AP)—The 1946 state high school football championship game will be played in Portland, but the date has been advanced to Thanksgiving Day, the Oregon High School Activities association decided yesterday.

The semi-final playoff must be held on or before November 22, the group ruled.

The title game at Multnomah stadium here last year was held December 1.

The first New York newspaper was William Bradford's New York Gazette, published in 1725.
