Police Arrest Sign Violators

A new stop sign has been erected at the intersection of Portland and Eldorado and already city police are doing a big business of citing motorists who ignore the traffic device into court.

The sign is on Eldorado, making Portland the through street, and placed as a protection for children of the neighborhood.

Arrested yesterday at the corner and told to appear in traffic court for running the new sign were Donald P. Smith, 931 Prospect; Anna Marie Funk, 434 N. 5th; Theodore H. Housh, 1842 Esplanade; and Mrs. George Filcraft, 1212 Eldorado.

GI Killed In Fight Over Boxing Results

SPOKANE, Wash., July 18 (AP)—One soldier spectator was fatally injured last night during the semi-finals of a Golden Glove boxing tournament and four others were injured in fights which followed the bouts, Geiger Field officials announced this morning.

The dead soldier's name was not released immediately. Officers said he died of a fractured skull but they added that they did not know how he received the injury.

A decision in the last fight was said by officers to have precipitated other battles which led to the injury of the four soldiers.

New Apparel Shop To Open

The Anita Shop, newest addition to Klamath Falls ladies ready-to-wear stores, will open Saturday morning at 707 Main street. A non-selling, preview opening is set for Friday night from 7 to 10 p. m.
