

Truman May Take Stump; Anxious To 'Slaughter' Slaughter Of Home State

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)—President Truman said today he will take the political stump for democratic congressional candidates this year if he can be of service.

He told his news conference, however, that no specific plans for a speaking tour had been made. He said he did not know whether he would speak in New York.

Mr. Truman expressed outright opposition to the renomination of one democratic house member—Rep. Roger C. Slaughter of the Fifth Missouri district.

He has asked James Pendergast, Kansas City political leader, to support Enos Axtell, Slaughter's opponent. Mr. Truman said, adding that Pendergast would do so.

No Comment On Wheeler
The president had no comment to make on the defeat of Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) in his race for renomination. Mr. Truman intervened in the Wheeler campaign with a letter defending Wheeler against charges by his opponent that he was an enemy of railway labor.

The political talk began with a question as to what the president planned to do about the Missouri primary.

He replied that he was going home to vote August 8.

Then he was asked what about Slaughter, who represents the district adjoining the one in which Mr. Truman lives.

Without hesitation, he said he was against Slaughter, that if Slaughter was right, he, the president, was wrong.

Had he conferred with Pendergast about Slaughter?

Mr. Truman replied that he had, and added that he didn't think Pendergast will be for Slaughter. He said he certainly did ask Pendergast to endorse Axtell.

Quizzed On Plans
A reporter took the questioning away from Missouri briefly to ask if he would speak in behalf of democratic nominees in the fall campaign.

He said if it becomes necessary to do so, he would do all that he could during the campaign to help the democratic party.

Mr. Truman took occasion to reaffirm his strong support of Chairman Robert E. Hannegan
