

Visitors—Sgt. and Mrs. Swan B. Swanson were in town the past week visiting old friends. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swanson, former residents of Klamath Falls, now live in Alameda, Calif., and Sgt. Swanson, on a two months' furlough, has been visiting them. He has re-enlisted in the marines for a two-year term, and is marine recruiting officer in Portland.

Available—Souvenir copies of Wednesday's issue of The Herald and News, which carried a feature story and pictures of the famous old White Pelican hotel, are still available at this office and may be mailed out to former residents and those interested in the early day story from The Herald and News.
