IT WAS HOMECOMING AT THE ANDREW COLLIER'S this week. Their daughter, Carolyn, returned Tuesday from southern California where she has been a Red Cross hospital worker. Joining his wife, the former Phyllis Collier, was Capt. Richard F. Igl, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl of Klamath Falls. He recently returned from duty in Japan and received his discharge in California. The three, Mr. and Mrs. Igl and Carolyn, are pictured at the Collier Pine Grove home.

Marlyce Erlandson Weds In Chicago

A lovely June bride was Marlyce Erlandson whose marriage is of interest to her many friends in Klamath Falls. On June 26, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the John Timothy Stone chapel of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Chicago, Illinois, Marlyce became Mrs. Robert Hadley Ervin.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Erlandson of this city, exchanged vows with her husband-to-be before the altar of the tiny chapel which was decked with white carnations and tall white tapers. The service was read by Dr. Harrison Ray Anderson. Barrett Spach played the nuptial music, the wedding processional and recessional.

Marlyce, given in marriage by her father, wore a charming gown of white bridal satin with a net yoke, fitted bodice and full skirt with a short train. Her fingertip veil, borrowed from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Gordon Erlandson, fell from a little satin cap. She carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis on a white Bible from which fell a cascade of narrow white satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift from the groom.

The matron of honor, the bride's only attendant, was Mrs. James Cross of St. Louis, Missouri, and she wore a floor-length frock of white net with a bouquet of white daisies. A Juliet cap, also fashioned of white daisies, was worn on her hair.

James Ervin, brother of the groom, was the best man, and one of the groom's close friends, James Cross, was the usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Erlandson wore a long afternoon gown of aqua jersey with a small, matching flower hat.

A reception and dinner was served guests at the Drake hotel following the ceremony. After a two weeks' honeymoon, the couple will spend the remainder of the summer at Clear

Lake, Iowa, at the Ervin summer home.

Bob and Marlyce met in Seattle about a year and a half ago while he was attending the University of Washington and Marlyce was taking her cadet training at the naval hospital. In the fall, Bob will continue his studies at the University of Iowa, school of dentistry.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a black silk faille suit with a small black straw hat and brief veil. Her orchid was pinned to her suit jacket.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ervin of Rockford, Iowa. His bride was graduated from Klamath Union high school, attended the University of Oregon for two years where she was affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority, and later she completed nursing training at St. Mary's hospital, Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Erlandson returned to Klamath Falls last Saturday after attending their daughter's wedding. Also present for the ceremony were Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Erlandson of Chicago, the bride's brother and sister-in-law.

LUNCHEON AT THE PELICAN was the order of the day Tuesday for, left to right, Mrs. Robert McReynolds, Mrs. Don Wiedler, Mrs. Harry Wayne and Mrs. Jack Waggoner. Mrs. Wayne entertained for Mrs. Wiedler, a visitor from Chicago, and her two daughters, who are residing in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Wayne is leaving this weekend to make her home in California.

Klamath Girl Weds Wisconsin Man

Wed in Sparta, Wis., on Wednesday evening, June 12, were Vera E. Ottoman of Klamath Falls and Chester D. Knudtson of Sparta. The ceremony was read by the Rev. A. E. Frederick at the home.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Ottoman.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white net with a trim of small white daisies at the waist and the cap sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a beaded tiara. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers.

Attending the bride was her sister, Mrs. Blanche L. Carson of Los Angeles. She was gowned in pink taffeta with a matching bonnet and pale blue veil. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers.

Best man was Gerald A. Knudtson, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Mabel Artius, grandmother of the groom entertained with a reception following the wedding. The bride and groom cut their wedding cake which was served to the group of close friends and relatives attending.

Following a wedding trip to Wisconsin Delta, Mr. and Mrs. Knudtson will be at home in Sparta. For traveling Mrs. Knudtson wore a suit of navy with white accessories.

Rites Solemnized Saturday Evening

In a double ring ceremony read in the presence of a few close friends and relatives on Saturday evening, July 13 at eight o'clock, Mary Ruth Trulove, niece of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Trulove, became the bride of Jack D. Bothwell, also of this city.

Rites were solemnized by the Rev. David Barnett Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCollum of 1139 Crescent, before a fireplace banked with candelabra, palms and spring flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, E. D. Trulove, wore a gown of white satin and a fingertip veil belonging to Mrs. McCollum, her matron of honor.

For the traditional something old she placed a two-pence in her slipper. Something new was her strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her wedding gown was the something borrowed, and for something blue she carried a dainty blue handkerchief.

Mrs. McCollum, matron of honor, wore a gown of light blue chiffon and carried a bouquet of sweet peas in pastel shades. Mr. McCollum was best man.

The bride and groom cut their wedding cake at the reception which followed. The cake was served by Mrs. Gerald Whitlatch. Presiding at the coffee service was Mrs. E. D. Trulove, aunt of the bride.

Present in addition to the bride and groom, were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bothwell of Albany, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Trulove, Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre, Rev. David Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. George W. McCollum, Mrs. C. S. Robertson, Mrs. Gerald Whitlatch, Olive Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCollum.

Ashland Affair Held By OES

Lorena McNair, worthy grand matron of Oregon, was honored at a reception given by the Alpha chapter one, Order of the Eastern Star, Saturday night in Ashland.

The reception, held in the gymnasium of the Southern Oregon College of Education, was also given in honor of Edna Dougherty, grand organist, and J. H. Hardy, a past grand patron.

The gymnasium was decorated with a huge painting of Crater lake, flanked by large pine and fir trees. Throughout the building were trees, sea foam, and other Oregon shrubs.

Mrs. Steve Moss gave a humorous reading accompanied by Ruby Kenyon for Aloha chapter. There was also a program of musical numbers, readings, and responses from the guests and grand officers.
