Market Quotations

NEW YORK, July 22 (AP)—Most stock leaders suffered from neglect today with dealings slack throughout. The direction was irregularly lower from the start. While scattered comebacks appeared in the final half hour, apparently inspired by a little short covering and timid technical buying, declines of fractions to a point or more predominated at the close.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 22 (AP)—Corn futures were under pressure, dropping around 4 cents at times today, but oats managed to display a fairly steady undertone. There was a good trade in oats with previous short sellers trucing to the buying side and giving the market support.

Trading developed in barley futures for the first time in several days with prices a few cents lower than last Saturday's asking prices.

Cash markets again weakened under heavy receipts. Wheat was 2 to 3 cents a bushel lower, corn 2 to 4 cents and oats ½ to 1 cent. All cash wheat fell below the $2.00 level with No. 1 hard bringing $1.98.

Corn finished 2¼-3½c lower, January $1.47½, after both deliveries sank to the former OPA ceiling of $1.46⅛ at one time. Oats closed ⅛-1⅛c higher, July 74¼c, and barley was down 2¼-1½c, November $1.35¼.

Who Made The World?

Christ created men, angels, archangels, the world and the universe. All were created by Him, says the Bible. And He is not only Creator but also Redeemer. For in the fullness of time, you see Him strip off His glory and step down out of Heaven to take human birth and grow up to manhood as the Son of Man. He gave sight to the blind and raised the dead back to life and by many a miracle, He proved Himself to be none other than God the Creator.

But He was also Redeemer. Sinless, He took our sins and died under them to free us. Christ died for our sins, the Bible puts it. God saw the anguish in His heart, as He suffered the pains of hell for us and God was satisfied. Jesus paid it all.

So Christ did His part. He is God's love gift, offered up for us to clear us. Now our part. We are to believe that Christ paid the debt of sin for us—"I know Whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him."—Apostle Paul. Settle it that He died for you and cleared you. Draw your new life from Him and live in the joy that He is to raise you up to glory on Resurrection Morn.

Dean Taylor.
