

Church Ceremony Read At Ashland

In an afternoon ceremony Wednesday, July 17 in the Trinity Episcopal church of Ashland, Nancy Lou Ramsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Ramsay of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Ismael Mitchell of Sutter Creek, Calif.

The ceremony was read before an altar flanked with white gladioli and lighted tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Japanese silk with a fingertip veil of net. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white lilies. The silk from which her gown was made was a gift of the bridegroom, who served in Japan with the army.

For jewelry she wore a watch which had belonged to her paternal grandmother.

Barbara Ramsay, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She chose a long gown of blue organdy. Bridesmaid was Donna Ruger, who wore a similar gown of pink. Both carried nosegays of sweetpeas and lilies centered with white carnations.

Dorrance Ruger, uncle of the bride, was best man.

Marilyn Young was soloist and Mrs. Hoffman played the wedding music. Mrs. Ramsay chose a dress of black with white accessories. A single gardenia was pinned to her shoulder.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Maude Ruger, grandmother of the bride. An out-of-town guest was Mrs. Mavis Lutz, sister of the groom.

After a brief wedding trip to Mt. Lassen park they will make their home in Twain-Harte, Calif., where the groom is employed. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mitchell of Sutter Creek, Calif.
