

Four Scout Troops Now At Makualla

Four troops, making a total of 54 Scouts, are at Camp Makualla at Crescent Lake this week, according to Harold Talley, assistant Scout executive. Troops 8, 14, 19 and 44 left camp last week after holding a water carnival, two hikes, a boat and canoe trip across the lake, and participating in several other activities.

Troop 19 won the water carnival. Talley stated that last week nine boys out of 30 non-swimmers became beginners and one became a swimmer through the Scout training swim program. Twenty-five beginners advanced to the rank of swimmer and two swimmers earned the swimmer merit badge. Beginners are required to swim 100 feet, swimmers are required to swim 100 yards.

Last week, troops set up a swim area on Crescent lake. Demonstrations of life-saving techniques that can be used safely with moderate swimmers and non-swimmers were presented.

A number of wild animals are frequent visitors at the camp. Talley stated. During one night last week, he said, a bear came Troops at the camp this week are troop 17, Dorris, Calif., with Clarence Molschenbacher, Scout committeeman, as leader; troops 3 and 16 from Klamath Falls, William Ely and Jim Farley, respective scoutmasters, and troop 35, Malin, with John K. Hershfelt as scoutmaster.

Several senior Scouts are helping to instruct the camp. Wright Carlton, Klamath troop 4, is assistant waterfront director; LaMont Wilson, troop 3, Klamath Falls, is outpost assistant; Hugh Wilson, troop 44, Tulolake, is storekeeper; and Bob Hilton, troop 3, is a ranger. Also, many senior Scouts from Bend are working at the camp, and one Prineville Scout has ranger duties at Makualla.

Make hay while the sun shines

Never was this time-worn advice sounder. Record-breaking business activity has created plenty of sunshine and hard working Americans are making hay as never before. Wise ones are putting aside—regularly—a certain portion of the money they are earning, thus building future cash reserves for a great variety of purposes. There is no substitute for the old fashioned habit of thrift.
