Klamath Folk Deep In Summer Plans

At least no one in Klamath Falls can be bored with the weather. Hot, breathless summer days are here and gone before your sunburn has a chance to peel.

Mid-summer, rain or shine, finds Klamath folk deep in vacation plans and weekend visits with many heading the call of lakes and woods and just plain sunshine.

Speaking of sunburn, a trip to a drug store for some sunburn lotion the other day gave us a small bit of comfort when we learned that the particular lotion we had in mind was sold out. Seems there are other people who haven't sense enough to come in out of the sun!

A new summer cabin spot has suddenly become quite a popular place. Four Klamath families are building and remodeling summer cottages along Spring creek. Among them are the Leslie Wrights who are spending practically every weekend there. Incidentally it's nice to see Mrs. Wright looking so well again after being ill for so long. The Harry Boivens are building a place here and Mrs. and Mrs. Al Backes are remodeling one. Just across the creek from the Wrights is the summer place of the A. D. Lamberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred M. Beck and daughter, Betty, spent last weekend at the family cabin at Lake o' the Woods. Medford guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Bittle, Mrs. Beck's parents, Horace and Louis Bittle, Mrs. Beck's brothers, and Jerry Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Witt.

Highlighting this week's social affairs was the lovely wedding of Cora Reber to James Rogers. The beautiful full-length bridal veil worn by Cora was one of the first long veils chosen by a Klamath bride in quite some time. A fine dainty trim of wide rows of Irish point lace added a special touch. The veil, incidentally, is an heirloom of the Reber family.

It's a girl for Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Erlanson. The little miss arrived at Wesley Memorial hospital in Chicago July 23, tipping the scales at seven pounds two ounces. Mrs. Erlanson is the former Adelle Zamsky. The Erlanson's new little daughter is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Erlanson and also of her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cizek.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers who are on their wedding trip in Canada. They have been spending most of their time in Victoria and are staying at the Empress hotel there. They're expected home early next week.

Mr. Howard McCamman, the little Irish bride of a Portland man is a newcomer to Klamath Falls. She and her husband plan to make their home here. With her friendly attitude toward Klamath folk she's sure to feel at home.

Jerry Johnson, a 12-year-old lad who sells papers for the Herald and News, is all a-twitter these days from a letter he received recently after his picture appeared in the paper. A young miss in Arizona had her fancy taken by the picture, and a fine correspondence between the two is under way. Jerry can hardly wait until he gets a picture of her.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Chitwood have returned after visiting relatives in Wisconsin and Arkansas. Chitwood, CMO, is at the local navy recruiting office, and they spent part of his 34-day leave visiting the Midwest.

Mrs. L. Orth Sisemore and sons, Jim and Bill, have recently returned from visiting Mrs. Sisemore's mother in Santa Cruz. Returning with her was her sister, Mrs. Delmar W. Frappia, and son, Norman, of Omaha, Neb. Mrs. Frappia plans to remain in Klamath Falls for several weeks at the Sisemore home on Lakeshore drive.

Mrs. Earl Weimar of West Klamath has as her house guest Mrs. J. A. Gordon of San Francisco. Mrs. Gordon is here for an extended visit and is a former resident of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Weimar's granddaughter, Anne Weimar Cummings, has returned to her home in Sacramento after spending a month at the Weimar residence.

Although the regular weekly meetings of lady golfers have ended until September, Friday found a number of golfers on the Reames course despite raindrops and threatening clouds. After a sack luncheon a number of the women stayed on at the club for bridge.

Mrs. Asabel Bush and daughter, Jody, are visiting at the Martin Ramsby home, 421 N. 5th. Mrs. Bush is a former resident of Klamath Falls and is now living in Salem. Jody and Sue Ramsby were being attending the Camp Fire girls' camp at Lake o' the Woods. Mrs. Bush plans to return to her home next week.

Picnic

Members and guests of Sojourners entertained their children at the annual children's picnic at Moore park, Wednesday, July 24. After lunch children played games.

Five tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon. Mrs. F. A. Murphy, Mrs. F. D. Hartin and Mrs. C. L. Svensgaard were hostesses for the affair.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. A. L. Eighthy, Mrs. C. G. Hooper, Mrs. E. R. Lent, Mrs. M. Compton, Mrs. Boyd Carasow, Mrs. J. A. Houston, Mrs. L. J. Sleight and Mrs. Virgil Rexford. Mrs. A. G. Kusler and Mrs. R. E. Craney are new members of the club.

The next regular meeting of Sojourners will be held in the Willard hotel, August 14, with a no-hostess luncheon preceding the meeting.

Marriage

Word has been received here announcing the marriage of Elizabeth Winifred Anderson of San Francisco to Dr. Meyer Aaron Zelig, formerly of the medical staff of the Marine Barracks.

Mrs. Zelig is the daughter of Mrs. Harvey Winifred Anderson of the bay city. Rites were solemnized on Friday, June 21. Dr. and Mrs. Zelig are at home at 2351 Leavenworth, San Francisco.

Mrs. C. S. Robertson entertained with a luncheon at the Pelican cafe Tuesday in honor of Mrs. M. C. Deering who is leaving Klamath Falls this week to make her home in Lebanon.

A LOVELY SUMMER WEDDING was that of Cora Bernice Reber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reber of Malin, and James Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers of Klamath Falls. Vows were exchanged in the First Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon, July 21. The two are on a wedding trip to Victoria.
