Today's Newsie

RODNEY INMAN

Rodney Inman, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Inman of 517 N. 4th, has just returned from the Presbyterian church summer camp at Fir Point and soon plans to go to Scout camp with members of the Kiwanis sponsored Troop 5. After that he will pick up route 41 on which he carries 110 papers. Rodney enters Fremont junior high school this fall, having finished the seventh grade at Roosevelt in May. Collections, as with all carrier boys, are uppermost in The Herald and News fellow's minds. Rodney says collections on his route are "just fair." Lots of times, this young man said, the folks just don't bother to come to the door and some are "never home." This makes it pretty tough on a fellow because he has to go back repeatedly. Rodney played trumpet in the Roosevelt band and intends to try for the junior high band in the fall. He collects airplane pictures as a hobby.

USBR To Consider Bully Creek Project

WASHINGTON, July 31 (AP)—The reclamation bureau notified Rep. Stockman (R-Ore.) today it planned to consider construction of the Bully creek reservoir of the Vale irrigation project in Oregon as part of the Vale irrigation district.

This will provide extension of irrigation to about 5000 acres of land.

The bureau said it hoped to complete the reclassification about next January 1, when a report will be submitted to congress for authorization for construction of the dam and additional distribution works.

Flour Shortage Hits Sale of Pie Apples

MADRAS, July 31 (AP)—The flour shortage plaguing Jefferson county ranches now busy feeding harvest hands is also causing Yakima pie-apples to rot in the stores.

Grocers report a carload of flour due from Spokane Monday had been diverted and caused a critical shortage of bread and other baked items on the tables of harvest-busy ranchers, particularly the isolated operations.

You can't Scratch out Misery of Minor Rash

Try Mexsana, the medicated powder that has been a family favorite for 40 years, bringing relief from stinging, burning itch of minor skin irritations. Use for baby's diaper rash, too, when his fretful cries keep you awake at night. Helps check clothing chafe. Ask for Mexsana.

Ex-Klamathite To Co-Pilot First Mainliner For North

Assisting at the controls of United Air Lines' inaugural northbound Mainliner when it makes the initial stop here Thursday morning will be First Officer Dusne C. McDonald, formerly of Klamath Falls.

McDonald, 25 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDonald of Malin, was reared here and graduated from Klamath Falls high school in 1939.

In June, 1942, he joined the army air corps and held the rank of first lieutenant. He was stationed in England for seven months and participated in 35 bomber missions over Germany, flying B-24's and B-17's. He was awarded the Air Medal and the Presidential Unit of Citation.

In October, 1945, McDonald was employed as a co-pilot for United Air Lines. He is now based in Seattle and flies on the company's Pacific coast route. With the addition of Klamath Falls to United's system, he will make regular stops here.

He is married to the former Yvonne Petersteiner, daughter of Mrs. A. Petersteiner, 1914 Portland, and has one daughter, Linda Lee, 2½ years old.

CIO Organizes Farm Workers

PORTLAND, July 31 (AP)—Yamhill county farm workers will organize under a charter granted the CIO Food, Tobacco and Agriculture Workers union, a state CIO council official reported today.

The charter is the first in Oregon, the union reported.

Stanley Earl, secretary-treasurer, said a union local with about 100 members will hold an open meeting at the McMinnville chamber of commerce hall tonight for other farm workers.

A written statement issued by the CIO-FTA union agents advised the State Grange and Farmers union that no secondary pickets would be established which would hurt farmers.

"We shall respect the right of the farmer to haul his crops out and his supplies in," the statement said.

WAR EXHIBIT

GRESHAM, July 31 (AP)—Sea rescue units, radar and other war-developed military devices will be demonstrated at the Multnomah County fair here, Aug. 19-25.
