

7000 Acres Included In Fire Plans

Boundaries of the proposed rural fire protection district that will include approximately 7000 acres of the south suburban area including the South 6th street business section, thickly populated residential districts and farm property, are indicated on petitions that will be circulated soon for signatures of property owners. The proposed boundary lines were run recently by Keith Ambrose, Klamath Falls fire chief and Alva Lewis, vice president of the Suburban League.

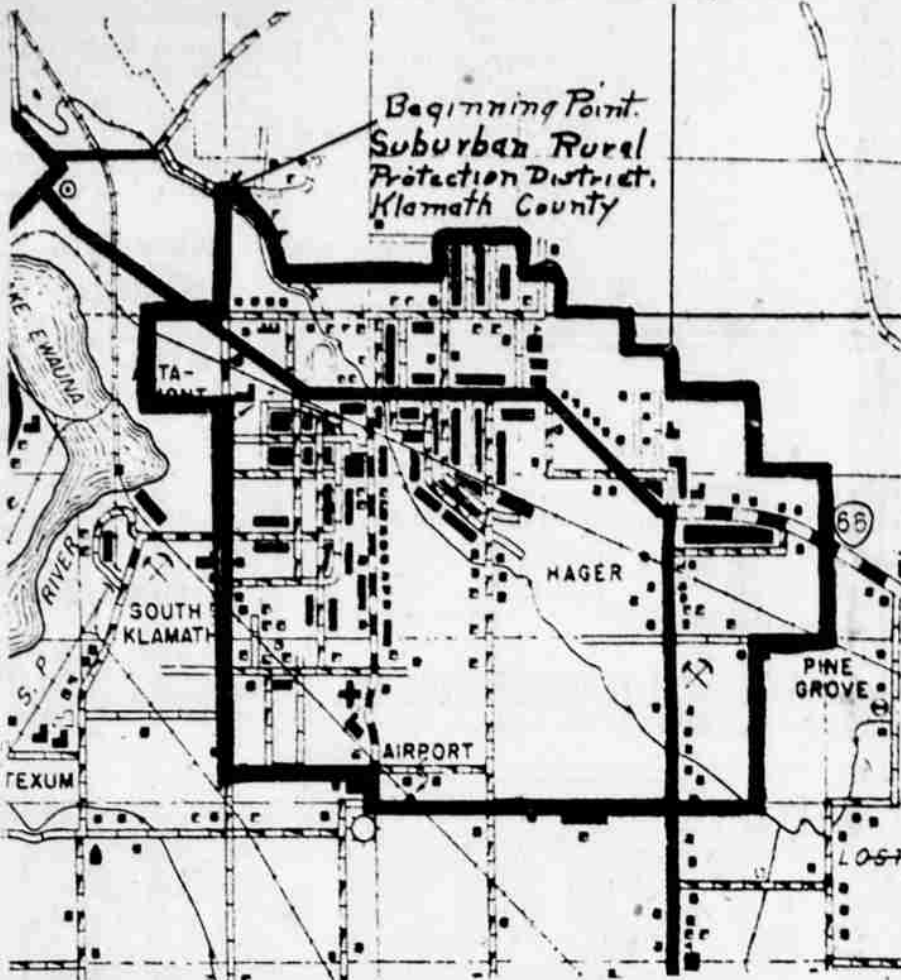

The protection measure was suggested some months ago by the Suburban League and the Shasta View grange and both organizations have worked jointly to further the plan. Ambrose and the state fire marshal met recently with property owners to outline steps necessary for establishment of the district. The area incorporated in the proposed district will be a portion of the city limits, will follow Washburn way to the northern boundary of the airport property, thence east on John's avenue to the junction with the Merrill highway, will follow property boundaries one mile east of the Lakeview-Merrill highway junction and property boundaries north to the northern boundary of Fair-aces to include the thickly settled district of the foothills.

Twenty-five per cent of property owners must sign petitions before they are presented to the county court for approval. If the request is granted and there is no opposing petition which would call for an election the court will order the election of five directors who will be responsible for purchase of equipment and conduct of the new district.

A maximum of 4 mills can be levied on taxable property for financing the program but it is expected that the rate will be lower than that figure since the assessed valuation will total several million dollars.

Executive committees of the grange and the league met Tuesday night in the interest of the district and the league will meet Friday night at 8 p. m., in the Shasta View school.

Camp Fire News

The second and final session of camp for Camp Fire Girls ended with a grand council fire at which awards were made for honors earned and for special service.

Beverly Kohn, Dolores Kidder and Marilyn Moore received their lighted torches to symbolize the completion of their work on the highest rank in Camp Fire, that of torchbearer.

Leo Rita Wade was raised to wood gatherer, the second rank.

Mrs. Larry French awarded trail maker honors, second in the series of special camp awards, to Arlene Brallier, Dolores Kidder, Marilyn Moore and Barbara Swanson. These four girls with Jean Lovell and Leo Rita Wade spent the entire camp period establishing a primitive camping area in the campsite which they named "Dream Cove." This primitive area was cleared, fire pits made, trails developed and simple shelters erected. The trail makers, as one of the requirements, spent two days cooking their meals and sleeping in this area.

Arlene Brallier, Geraldine Lewis, Beverly Calhoun, Shirley Slowey, Thelma Bell, Betty Williams and Delora Hedlund received fagot finder honors, first of the special camping awards.

Dorothy "Red" Ann Gallaspy, Mary Egan, Sue Ramsby, Joan Bush, Beverly Kohn, Jean Lovell and Thelma Bell honors for outstanding volunteer KP service.

Sally Greenleaf, Phyllis Beeson, Leona Leithead, Barbara Gritman, Arlene Lemier, Arlene Lynch, Conniemae Reeves and Martha Beasley received their pollywog honors from Dorothy Thomas, the waterfront instructor. Joan Bush, Susan Ramsby, Barbara Swanson, Geraldine Lewis and Marilyn Hemingsen received the frog honor and Mary Egan, Carolyn Stoler, Marilyn Moore and Delora Hedlund, the fish, for which the requirements are the same as for the American Red Cross swimming rating.

Ka-est-a honors, awarded by staff decision on all-around good camper qualities, were given to Dolores Kidder, Nancy Kintgen, Beverly Kohn, Arlene Lemier, Geraldine Lewis, Jean Lovell, Arlene Lynch, Virginia Martz, Marilyn Moore, Mary Qualls, Susan Ramsby, Barbara Swanson, Conniemae Reeves, Leo Rita Wade, Martha Beasley, Phyllis Beeson, Arlene Brallier, Joan Bush, Mary Egan, Daisy

Ceiling Price Raised On Peeler Grade Logs

SEATTLE, Aug. 1 (AP)—Producers of West Coast peeler grade logs, who sold to plywood manufacturers at adjustable prices, now may collect the authorized increase on those sales, the office of price administration said yesterday.

Ceiling price increases amount to $7.50 per thousand feet log scale and were effective July 26.

In the early days of the Roman republic gold rings were worn only by senators entrusted with a special mission for the state. Still later the jewelry caste system was: gold rings for freeborn men, silver rings for freedmen and iron rings for slaves.

One out of every 500 diamonds mined is good enough to meet the craftsmen's test for top color (blue-white) and to be used in the finest jewelry.

Saturday afternoon Delora Hedlund was crowned queen of the water carnival and Geraldine Lewis and Carol Guderian were crowned her princesses. Members of all swimming classes demonstrated swimming and diving skills learned at camp.

Gifts were awarded Carol Guderian, Beverly Swanson and Jane Larkin for being the best all-around Blue Bird campers by their counselors, Ednae Adamson and Hazel-Craig.

These girls were selected for their co-operation in all classes, cleanliness of tent and person, adherence to camp rules and regulations and attitudes to their fellow campers.

The following Blue Birds were in camp for the second session: Donna Zumwalt, Carole Ervin, Beverly Goehring, Carol Guderian, Rosalie Hazzard, Patricia Irwin, Judith Johnson, Janice Kenyon, Lynette Kohn, Jane Larkin, Karla Leithead, Romaine Lovelace, Joyce and Marilyn Markert, Beverly and Dale Pernell and Beverly Swanson.

YIP-EEE
ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Aug. 1 (AP)—This city, which claims the honor of being the country's oldest, has hired a part-time cowboy.

His job will be to round up stampeding cattle which, the police say, have been storming out of nearby woods and causing damage.

The cowboy, Pete Braddock, has been equipped with horse, whip and lariat and told to herd into city pound every stray cow he can lay a rope on.

Corpse Of Missing Girl Discovered In Reservoir

ONSET, Mass., Aug. 1 (AP)—A body identified by police as that of pretty Ruth McGurk, 23-year-old Cambridge summer visitor, was discovered today in a lonely cranberry bog reservoir 10 miles from the dance hall from which she vanished Saturday night.

The body was clad in a pink dress, but Medical Examiner E. Vincent Smith said undergarments were missing. Shoes also were missing and the backs of the victim's stockings were stained with a black substance which residents said was foreign to the area.

Investigators were considering the possibility that if the girl was slain, the crime was committed elsewhere and the body brought to the secluded pond, known as Green Lodge reservoir.

Dr. Smith said the condition of the body prevented an immediate decision as to whether the victim suffered external violence.

Jewelry, which served as partial identification, included a diamond engagement ring, an amethyst birthstone ring and a wrist watch. Miss McGurk had been wearing a $700 engagement ring given her by a sailor now absent on the Bikini bomb test.

Two girl friends of the young woman had informed police all three had gone to a dance on Saturday night and that Miss McGurk—after dancing twice with a man whom she spoke of as "Frank"—had left the hat with him.

TREASURE HUNT

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 1 (AP)—Detectives Mike Michelson and Donald Troyer speared a vacant lot after neighbors called police and reported suspicious characters had been seen burying something.

The officers dug up several cans filled with small toys, candy and rubber balloons which they took to the station and returned to the lot to await developments.

Two teen-agers approached and asked the detectives if they had seen anyone digging in the lot.

"We're having a treasure hunt and somebody's stolen all the prizes," the boys said.

The detectives turned to the lot—at night—got out their shovels and reburied the prizes.
